04. HIPAA. The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) Privacy Rule, 45 CFR 164, subparts A and E, does not preclude release by the facility of resident private health information or other resident identifying information to the Office. (3-31-22)

034. -- 040. (RESERVED)

041. WRITTEN CONSENT.

The Office shall ensure appropriate access to review medical and social records of a resident. (See OAA, Section 712) (3-31-22)

01. Resident Written Consent. Access to confidential records requires the written consent of the resident or legal representative. (3-31-22)

02. Lack of Consent. If the client is unable to provide written or oral consent, or the legal representative is unavailable to provide consent, the local ombudsman, with approval of the Office may inspect available client records, including medical records that are necessary for investigation of a complaint. (3-31-22)

03. Consent Refused. If a local ombudsman has been refused access to records by legal representative but has reasonable cause to believe that the legal representative is not acting in the best interest of the client, the local ombudsman may, with the approval of the Office, inspect client records, including medical records. (3-31-22)

04. Requirements for Informing Client or Resident. The local ombudsman shall inform the complainant or resident regarding: (3-31-22)

- a. Who will receive the information; (3-31-22)
- b. What information will be disclosed; and (3-31-22)
- c. The purpose for which the information is being disclosed. (3-31-22)

042. CONFIDENTIALITY.

The Office shall be the custodian of all local ombudsman program records including, but not limited to, records and files containing personal information relative to complainants and residents of long-term care facilities. Requests for release of confidential information shall be submitted to the Office for approval or denial. Release of information shall be granted pursuant to OAA, Section 721(e). (3-31-22)

01. Storage of Records. Client records shall be maintained in locked storage. Case records inactive for two (2) years or longer may be expunged. As required by law, release of these records shall be limited to persons authorized by the Office. (3-31-22)

02. Performance Evaluations. For performance evaluation purposes, direct supervisors shall have access to client files maintained by local ombudsmen. (3-31-22)

03. Confidential Records. Records to be safeguarded include, but are not limited to, long-term care and community-based complaint files including: (3-31-22)

- a. Notes of interviews with complainants and clients or collateral contacts; (3-31-22)
- b. All copies of residents' medical records or diagnoses; (3-31-22)
- c. All records relevant to complaint investigations; (3-31-22)
- d. All memoranda generated by the Office or by another agency office during the evaluation and resolution of a complaint; (3-31-22)
- e. All photographs, video tapes, tape recordings, etc. pertaining to complaint investigation; (3-31-22)
- f. All memoranda or letters generated during evaluation or resolution of a complaint; (3-31-22)
- g. Written documentation that parties affected by ombudsman opinions or recommendations have been notified; and (3-31-22)
- h. Information containing unverified complaints about long-term care facility owners, administrators, staff or other persons involved in the long-term care system or in other service programs. (3-31-22)

04. Request for Anonymity. The ombudsman shall honor a resident's or complainant's request to remain anonymous. If investigation of a complaint requires that a resident's or complainant's name be divulged in order for the investigation to proceed, the ombudsman shall so inform the resident or complainant. If the resident or complainant insists on maintaining anonymity, the ombudsman may terminate the investigation. (3-31-22)

043. DISCLOSURE.

The Office is the only entity authorized to disclose ombudsmen program files, records, or information. Identifying information of any resident or complainant shall be disclosed only with proper consent or in response to a court order. The Office, in its sole discretion, may delegate the disclosure of ombudsman program files, records, or information to a local ombudsman. (3-31-22)

01. Court Order. Identifying information of a resident, complainant, or both may be disclosed, with or without the consent of the resident, complainant, or both, pursuant to a court order issued by a court of competent jurisdiction. (3-31-22)

02. Resident Consent. Without a court order, identifying information of a resident shall be disclosed only if the resident or his representative communicates informed consent to the disclosure and the consent is given in writing, orally, visually or through the use of auxiliary aids and services; and such consent is documented by a representative of the Office in accordance with procedures. (3-31-22)

03. Complainant Consent. Without a court order, identifying information of a complainant shall be disclosed only if the complainant communicates informed consent to the disclosure and the consent is given in writing, orally, visually or through the use of auxiliary aids and services; and such consent is documented by a representative of the Office in accordance with procedures. (3-31-22)
