39.02.09 – Rules Governing Requirements for Manufacturer's Certificate of Origin (MCO)

Who does this rule apply to?

This rule applies to Manufacturers providing certificates of origin for new vehicles.

- Manufacturers; and
- New vehicle and vessel dealers

What is the purpose of this rule?

This rule provides that dealers must have a manufacturer's certificate of origin (MCO) to apply for a first time title in Idaho, and such MCO must be endorsed by an Idaho licensed, franchised new vehicle dealer.

The rule clarifies the MCO contents as provided by the manufacturer and the security of the document, and information that must be contained within the MCO, and the assignment of the MCO to the franchised dealer.

What is the legal authority for the agency to promulgate this rule?

This rule implements the following statutes passed by the Idaho Legislature:

Motor Vehicles -

General:

- 49-201, Idaho Code – Duties of Board

Vehicle Titles:

- 49-504, Idaho Code – Applications To Department for Certificates – Procedure – Identification Numbers
- 49-507, Idaho Code – Departmental Regulations for Transfer of Vehicles – Appointment of Deputies and Assistants
