until it provides the documents. If the ten (10) day period ends beyond the thirtieth day after application, do not delay benefits for the remaining household members, if the household is otherwise eligible. a. Primary proof. Primary proof is telephone access to the INS files. This method uses the Alien Status Verification Index (ASVI). The Alien indicator (A) plus the seven (7) or eight (8) numbers shown on the original document is used to access the ASVI file. (6-1-94)

b. Secondary proof. Secondary proof is sending photo copies of the original immigration documents and a Document Verification Request Form (G-845) to INS for proof. Secondary proof is used if: The legal noncitizen is a Special Agriculture Worker (SAW). Primary proof instructs the Department to "Institute Secondary Verification." No record is found through the primary proof system. The Department has accepted non-INS documents determined to be reasonable evidence of legal noncitizen immigration status. The Department has determined documents presented by the legal noncitizen are questionable. An Alien (A) Number is not on an INS document. Information in the record is not consistent and more proof is needed. (4-1-97)T

05. Secondary Proof Requirement. A person is not considered an ineligible legal noncitizen based only on primary proof. If primary proof fails to verify the legal noncitizen's eligible legal noncitizen status, the secondary proof procedure must be completed, before the Department can deny Food Stamps based solely on legal noncitizen status. (4-1-97)T

06. Legal Noncitizen Status Not Proved. A legal noncitizen whose status is not proved by INS must be considered an ineligible legal noncitizen. (4-1-97)T

07. Documentation Provided Late. Once the eligible legal noncitizen status is verified add the legal noncitizen. Add the legal noncitizen the month after the client provides documentation of legal noncitizen status to the Department, not the month after INS verifies the status. If the Food Stamp case is not open, the legal noncitizen must re-apply. (4-1-97)T

207. INELIGIBLE LEGAL NONCITIZEN STATUS.

If legal noncitizen status cannot be proved or ineligible legal noncitizen status is proved, the legal noncitizen is not eligible for Food Stamps. His income and resources must be counted. Ineligible legal noncitizens include, but are not limited to, legal noncitizens entering the country illegally to seek employment, legal noncitizen visitors, tourists, diplomats, and persons temporarily attending school in the United States with no intention of abandoning their foreign residence. In joint custody situations, children may move from one (1) parent's home to the other parent's home on a regular schedule during the month. The parents should decide which household will include the child. Where there are two (2) or more children, the children may be a member of either but not both households. If the parents cannot agree on the child's household for Food Stamps, include the child in the household of the first parent to apply. Assign the shortest allowable certification period. (6-1-94) employer to another, such as migrant farm labor or construction work. Households may apply for benefits between jobs, when work is not yet available at the new site. 268. PROOF OF JOB QUIT OR REDUCTION OF WORK HOURS.

09. Temporary Pattern of Employment. Person leaves a job where workers move from one (1)

Request proof of the household's statements if the household's job quit or reduction of work hours is questionable. The household is responsible for providing proof. This may include quits due to employer discrimination or unreasonable employer demands. In cases where proof of the voluntary quit cannot be obtained, the household must not be denied Food Stamps on the basis of a voluntary quit or reduction of work hours. If a household member refuses, without good cause, to provide enough information to determine voluntary quit or work reduction, a penalty must be imposed. If the member who quit was not the head of household, that member is not eligible. A ninety (90) day penalty begins the date the household member quit. The applicant household must be told the job quit and work reduction penalty information listed below: (9-22-96)T

01. Denial Reason. The household must be informed of the reason for the Food Stamp denial for the member or entire household. (9-22-96)T

When determining the penalty to impose, previous sanctions for noncompliance with JSAP and work registration requirements must be considered. Previous penalties for applicant voluntary quit or work reduction must also be considered. (9-22-96)T

01. Head of Household. If the member who quit or reduced work hours is the head of household, the entire household will be ineligible. The households period of ineligibility shall not exceed six (6) months. (9-22-96)T

273. VOLUNTARY QUIT OR REDUCTION OF WORK HOURS NOT FOUND UNTIL THE LAST MONTH OF THE CERTIFICATION PERIOD.

The Department may find the head of household voluntarily quit a job or reduced work hours, without good cause, before the last month of the certification period. 274. PENALTY FOR VOLUNTARY QUIT OR REDUCTION OF WORK HOURS NOT FOUND UNTIL THE LAST MONTH OF THE CERTIFICATION PERIOD.

An overpayment claim is filed for Food Stamps if the household or a member of the household was not eligible because of a voluntary quit or reduction of work. The claim begins the month after the month the quit or reduction occurred. If the household or household member received benefits for less than the penalty period after the month of the quit, a claim is established for the benefits received. The penalty is imposed for the remaining months in the penalty period. The total period covered by the claim and the penalty period must equal the appropriate penalty period. The period begins the month after the month the quit or work reduction occurred and continues for the appropriate penalty period. (9-22-96)T

275. ENDING VOLUNTARY QUIT OR REDUCTION OF WORK HOURS PENALTY.

Eligibility may be re-established after a voluntary quit or work reduction penalty period has elapsed for an otherwise eligible household or household member when a condition in Subsection 275.01 is met. Eligibility may be reestablished before the end of the penalty period for an otherwise eligible household or household member when a condition in Subsection 275.02 is met. (9-22-96)T

01. Ending Voluntary Quit or Reduction Penalty After Penalty Period Has Elapsed. (9-22-96)T

a. Member gets a job. The penalty member gets new employment comparable in salary or hours to the job the person quit. Comparable employment may entail fewer hours or a lower net salary than the job which was quit. To be comparable, the hours for the new job cannot be less than twenty (20) hours per week. To be comparable, the salary or earnings for the new job cannot be less than Federal minimum wage multiplied by twenty (20) hours per week. (9-22-96)T

02. Ending Voluntary Quit or Reduction Penalty Before the End of the Penalty Period. (9-22-96)T

a. Member leaves household. The penalty member leaves the household. The penalty follows the member who caused it. The penalty period continues for the penalty member for the greater of the length of the minimum penalty period or the date he complies. (9-22-96)T

276. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH A REQUIREMENT OF ANOTHER MEANS-TESTED PROGRAM.

Food Stamps must not increase when a failure to comply causes other means-tested benefits to decrease. Benefits from means-tested programs like TAFI and SSI may decrease due to failure to comply with a program requirement. Food Stamp benefits must not increase because of this income loss. If a reduction in benefits from another means-tested program occurs, verify the reason for the reduction. If the reason for the reduction cannot be verified, document the case record to reflect the good faith effort to verify the information. (7-1-97)T

277. PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH A REQUIREMENT OF ANOTHER MEANS-TESTED PROGRAM.

01. Failure to Comply with a TAFI Requirement. When a Food Stamp recipient fails to comply with a requirement of the TAFI program count that portion of the benefit decrease attributed to the TAFI penalty. Conditions for ending the penalty are listed below. (7-1-97)T

a. Time limited TAFI penalty. If the TAFI penalty is time limited, end the FS penalty when the TAFI penalty is ended. (7-1-97)T

b. Lifetime TAFI penalty. If the TAFI penalty is a lifetime penalty, apply the FS penalty for a length of time to match the remaining months of TAFI eligibility for the household. End the FS penalty if the household subsequently reapplies for TAFI and is denied for a reason other than the noncompliance that caused the TAFI penalty. (7-1-97)T

c. Member who caused the TAFI penalty leaves the household. End the TAFI penalty when the member who caused the TAFI penalty leaves the household. (7-1-97)T

02. Failure to Comply with a Requirement of a Means-tested Program Such as SSI. 415. EDUCATIONAL INCOME.

Educational income includes deferred repayment educational loans, grants, scholarships, fellowships, and veterans' educational benefits. The school attended must be a recognized institution of post secondary education, a school for the handicapped, a vocational education program, or a program providing completion of a secondary school diploma, or equivalent. Title IV and BIA educational income is excluded. Expenses may be deducted from educational income not excluded. Proof of expenses must be provided. Educational income is computed using steps in Subsections 415.01 through 41506. (6-1-94)

01. Step 1. Determine available income received for education. Exclude Title IV and BIA educational income. (6-1-94)

02. Step 2. Deduct the amount for origination fees and insurance premiums from any educational loans. (6-1-94)

03. Step 3. Deduct the largest amounts used for or earmarked as an allowance. The allowance is determined by the school, institution, or program. Do not deduct an allowance for living expenses. Deductible allowances are: (6-1-94)

a. Tuition allowance. (6-1-94)

05. Step 5. Deduct a child care allowance as determined by the school, institution, or program. (6-1-94)

06. Step 6. The remaining income is counted in the Food Stamp budget by prorating it over the period of intended use. (6-1-94)

416. -- 425. (RESERVED).

426. SELF-EMPLOYMENT INCOME.

Net self-employment income is computed by subtracting allowable business expenses from self-employment earnings. Actual, not rounded, figures are used. (6-1-94)

427. WHEN SELF-EMPLOYMENT INCOME MUST BE AVERAGED OVER TWELVE (12) MONTHS.

Self-employment income, even if received within a short period, must be averaged over a twelve (12) month period if it is the household's annual support. The self-employment income, if it is considered annual support by the household, must be averaged over a twelve (12) month period, even if the household gets income from other sources in addition to self-employment. Self-employment income received on a monthly basis, which is a household's annual support, is averaged over a twelve (12) month period. (6-1-94)

428. AVERAGING SEASONAL SELF-EMPLOYED INCOME.

Seasonal self-employed households get income from self-employment during part of the year. Self-employment income intended to meet the household's needs for only part of the year must be averaged over the period of time the income is intended to cover. (6-1-94)

429. WHEN SELF-EMPLOYMENT INCOME MUST BE PROJECTED.

If the household has a large increase or decrease in self-employment income, the self-employment income must not be averaged using past income. The Department must project self-employment income for the coming year using Subsections 429.01 through 429.03. Add the net self-employment income to any other earned income received by the household. (6-1-94)

01. Step 1. (6-1-94)

a. Self-Employed Less Than One (1) Year. If a self-employment enterprise has been in existence for less than a year, the income is averaged over the period the business has been in operation. If no income fluctuations are expected, the average monthly amount is projected for the coming year. (6-1-94)

b. Self-Employed For A Short Time: If the business has been in operation for less than a year and there is not enough information to make a projection, the household may be certified for less than a year. When the business has been in operation long enough to establish an average income, a new projection may be made. (6-1-94)

02. Step 2. Costs. Subtract the cost of producing the self-employment income. The cost of producing the self-employment income is calculated by projecting the monthly costs of producing the self-employment income. (6-1-94)

03. Step 3. Capital Gains. Capital gains are the increase in value of an asset between the time it is bought and the time it is sold. Add capital gains the household predicts it will get in the next twelve (12) months from self-employment assets. (6-1-94)

a. Start projecting capital gains the date the application is filed. (6-1-94)

b. Divide the yearly total projected capital gains by twelve (12). The monthly amount is used during the next twelve (12) months. (6-1-94)

c. A new average monthly amount must be calculated for this twelve (12) month period if the capital gains changes. (6-1-94)

04. Step 4. Add Capital Gains. Add the projected monthly capital gains to the projected self-employment income. (6-1-94)

430. COMPUTING SELF-EMPLOYMENT INCOME.

Procedures and rules for computing self-employment income are listed in Subsections 430.01 through 430.04. Self-employment income of households owning and operating a commercial boarding house is computed using Subsections 430.01 through 430.04. Add the net self-employment income to any other earned income received by the household. (6-1-94)

01. Step 1. Add Self-Employment Income. For the self-employment income period, add all gross self-employment income. (6-1-94)

02. Step 2. Add Self-Employment Capital Gains. Capital gains are the increase in value of an asset between the time it is bought and the time it is sold. Capital gains include profit from the sale or transfer of capital assets used in self-employment. The net proceeds of sales of capital assets used in self-employment are income. The Department must count the full amount of the capital gain as income for Food Stamps. (6-1-94)

03. Step 3. Subtract Costs. Subtract the cost of producing the self-employment income. The household must have proof of costs. Allowable costs of producing self-employment income include, but are not limited to: (6-1-94)

a. The cost of labor paid to nonhousehold members. (6-1-94)

b. The cost of stock. (6-1-94)

c. The cost of material. (6-1-94)

d. The cost for rent and utilities, advertising, shipping and legal fees. (6-1-94)

- e. The cost of seed and fertilizer. (6-1-94)
- f. Interest paid to purchase income-producing property, including real estate. (6-1-94)
- g. Insurance premiums. (6-1-94)
- h. Taxes paid on income-producing property. (6-1-94)
- i. Transportation, when a vehicle is an integral part of business activity. (6-1-94)
- 04. Costs of Doing Business. The following items are not allowed as costs of doing business: (6-1-94)
 - a. Payments on the principal of the purchase price of income-producing real estate and capital assets, equipment, machinery, and other durable goods. (6-1-94)
 - b. Net losses from previous periods. (6-1-94)
 - c. Federal, State, and local income taxes. (6-1-94)
 - d. Money set aside for retirement. (6-1-94)
 - e. Work-related personal expenses such as transportation to and from work. (6-1-94)
 - f. Depreciation. (6-1-94)
- 05. Step 4. Average Income. Divide the self-employment income by the number of months the income will be averaged. (6-1-94)

431. COMPUTING NON-COMMERCIAL BOARDER INCOME.

Income received from boarders, by a household not owning and operating a commercial boarding house, is computed using Subsections 431.01 through 431.03. Add the net self-employment income from the boarder to any other earned income received by the household. (6-1-94)

- 01. Step 1. Add Income. Add income from the boarder. Income from boarders includes all direct payments to the household for room and meals. Income includes contributions to the household's shelter expenses if paid directly to the household. Shelter expenses paid directly by boarders to someone outside the household are not income to the household. (6-1-94)
- 02. Step 2. Subtract Costs. Subtract cost of doing business. Cost is computed by: (6-1-94)
 - a. Using the amount of the thrifty food plan for a household size equal to the number of boarders. (6-1-94)
 - b. If the actual cost exceeds the thrifty food plan, count the actual documented cost of providing room and meals. If actual costs are used, only separate and identifiable costs of providing room and meals to boarders are counted. (6-1-94)
 - c. If the cost of doing business exceeds the payment the household receives from the boarder for lodging and meals, the negative balance must not be applied to other income. (6-1-94)
- 03. Step 3. Use Remaining Income. The remaining income is used in computing Food Stamp benefits. (6-1-94)

432. AVERAGING FARM SELF-EMPLOYMENT INCOME.

To be a self-employed farmer, the farmer must get or expect to get annual gross income of one thousand dollars ($1000) or more from farming. Self-employed farmers will have their income and income-producing expenses averaged over a twelve (12) month period. This average monthly income is used to compute the amount of the Food Stamp benefits. If the average income does not reflect actual income due to a large increase or decrease in business, the farm self-employment income must be calculated based on expected earnings. For a cash crop farmer, use the gross amount from the most recent crop sale. (6-1-94)

433. OFFSETTING FARM SELF-EMPLOYMENT LOSSES.

If a farmer's cost of producing self-employment income results in a loss, the loss must be subtracted from other countable income in the household. First, subtract the loss from non-farm self-employment income. If any loss remains, subtract the remaining loss from the total of earned income. If any loss remains, subtract the remaining loss from the total of unearned income. Net losses from the self-employment income of a farmer are prorated over the year. (6-1-94)

434. TERMINATION OF FARM SELF-EMPLOYMENT INCOME.

Where a farmer stops a farming operation during a certification period, remove the annualized income, expenses and loss for the remaining months in the certification period. (6-1-94)

435. -- 499. (RESERVED).

500. FOOD STAMP BENEFIT DETERMINATION.

Food Stamp benefits are determined at application, recertification, and when a change is reported. Benefit determination requires two separate actions. First, determine if the household is eligible for Food Stamps. Second, if the household is eligible, compute the Food Stamp issuance. Use the household's projected resources, income, expenses, and household composition to determine eligibility and Food Stamp amount. Use the household's past and current income, resources, expenses, and household composition to project future circumstances. (6-1-94)

501. INITIAL CHANGES IN FOOD STAMP CASE.

Act on changes in household circumstances found during the application or the initial interview. (6-1-94)

01. Anticipated Changes. A household can be eligible in the application month, but not eligible the month after the application month because of expected changes in circumstances. The household may not be eligible for the application month, but eligible for the next month. The same application form is used for the denial and the next month's eligibility determination. (6-1-94)

02. Food Stamps For the Application Month. The household's Food Stamp issuance for the application month may differ from its issuance in later months. (6-1-94)

03. Food Stamp Issuance Changes. The household's Food Stamp issuance may vary month to month, within the certification period, to reflect expected changes. (6-1-94)

04. Change Before Certification. If a household reports a change in household circumstances before certification and the Department can act on the change, include the reported information in determining Food Stamp eligibility and amount. (6-1-94)

05. Change After Certification. If a household reports a change after the certification and too late to be included in the budget for the next month, make the change as soon as possible. The change must be made no later than the second month after it is reported. Notice of the change must be given to the Food Stamp household. (6-1-94)

502. EARNED INCOME WHEN A HOUSEHOLD MEMBER TURNS AGE EIGHTEEN (18).

When a child attending elementary or secondary school turns age eighteen (18), count earned income received or expected by that person the month after he turns eighteen (18). (5-1-97)T

503. -- 507. (RESERVED).

508. PROJECTING MONTHLY INCOME.

Income is projected for each month. Past income may be used to project future income. Changes expected during the certification period must be considered. Criteria for projecting monthly income is listed below: (6-1-94)

01. Income Already Received. Count income already received by the household during the month. If the actual amount of income from any pay period is known, use the actual pay period amounts to determine the total month's income. Convert the actual income to a monthly amount if a full month's income has been received or is expected to be received. If no changes are expected, use the known actual pay period amounts for the past thirty (30) days to project future income. (6-1-94)

02. Anticipated Income. Count income the household and the Department believe the household will get during the remainder of the certification period. If the exact income amount is uncertain or unknown, that portion must not be counted. If the date of receipt of income cannot be anticipated for the month of the eligibility determination, that portion must not be counted. If the income has not changed and no changes are anticipated, use the income received in the past thirty (30) days as one indicator of anticipated income. If changes in income have occurred or are anticipated, past income cannot be used as an indicator of anticipated income. If income changes and income received in the past thirty (30) days does not reflect anticipated income, the Department can use the household income received over a longer period to anticipate income. If income changes seasonally, the Department can use the household income from the last season, comparable to the certification period, to anticipate income. (6-1-94)

03. Full Month's Income Not Expected. (10-1-94)

a. Ongoing income is income from an ongoing source. Ongoing income has been received in the past and is expected to be received in the future. If a full month's income is not expected from an ongoing source, count the amount of income expected for the month: (10-1-94)

i. If the actual amount of income is known, use the actual income. (10-1-94)

ii. If the actual amount of income is unknown, project the expected income. (10-1-94)

iii. Convert the income to a monthly amount. (10-1-94)

b. If income is from a new source and a full month's income is not expected, count the actual amount of income expected for the month. Do not convert the new source of income to a monthly amount. (10-1-94)

c. If income is from a terminated source and no additional income is expected in a future month from this source, count the actual income received during the month. Do not convert the terminated source of income. (10-1-94)

d. If a full month's income is not expected from a new or terminated source of income, count the amount of income expected for the month: (10-1-94)

i. If the actual amount of income is known, use the actual known income. (10-1-94)

ii. If the actual amount of income is unknown, project the income. (10-1-94)

iii. Do not convert the income to a monthly amount if a full month's income from a new or terminated source is not expected. (10-1-94)

04. Income Paid on Salary. Income received on salary, rather than an hourly wage, is counted at the expected monthly salary rate. (6-1-94)

05. Income Paid at Hourly Rate. Compute anticipated income paid on an hourly basis by multiplying the hourly pay by the expected number of hours the client will work in the pay period. Convert the pay period amount to a monthly amount. (6-1-94)

06. Fluctuating Income. When income fluctuates each pay period and the rate of pay remains the same, average the income from the past thirty (30) days to determine the average pay period amount. Convert the average pay period amount to a monthly amount. (6-1-94)

07. Converting Income to a Monthly Amount. If a full month's income is expected, but is received on other than a monthly basis, convert the income to a monthly amount using one of the formulas below: (6-1-94)

- a. Multiply weekly amounts by four point three (4.3). (6-1-94)
- b. Multiplying bi-weekly amounts by two point one five (2.15). (6-1-94)
- c. Multiplying semi-monthly amounts by two (2). (6-1-94)
- d. Use the exact monthly income if it is expected for each month of the certification period. (6-1-94)

509. TYPES OF INCOME TO BE AVERAGED.

Types of income to be averaged are listed below. Income for a destitute migrant/seasonal farm worker household is not averaged. (6-1-94)

01. Self-Employment Income. Average self-employment income. (6-1-94)
02. Contract Income. Average contract income over the period of the contract, if not received on an hourly or piecework basis. Households with averaged contract income include school employees, share croppers and farmers. These households do not include migrants or seasonal farm workers. (6-1-94)
03. Scholarships or Education Loans. Average scholarship, deferred educational loan, or other educational grant income, after exclusions, over the period of intended use. Scholarships or education loans may cover part of a month. A partial month is counted as a whole month to determine the period of intended use. (6-1-94)
 - a. If education benefits are received in the middle of the coverage period average them over the entire period, after deducting allowable expenses. Count the average monthly amount for only the remaining months in the period covered. No overissuance exists for the previous months. (6-1-94)
 - b. If education costs are incurred and verified after the first month of the school term, average the expenses over the entire period of intended use. Deduct only the average monthly amount for the remaining months in the period of intended use. (6-1-94)
04. Income Received Less Often Than Monthly. When receipt of income is less often than monthly, the anticipated income can be averaged over the period intended to cover to determine the average monthly income. (6-1-94)

510. COMPUTING AVERAGED INCOME.

To average income use the steps in Subsections 510.01 through 510.02. (6-1-94)

01. Step 1. Determine the household's expected income. (6-1-94)
02. Step 2. Divide the total income by the number of months used to compute the average income. The period does not need to be the same as the certification period. (6-1-94)

511. PROJECTING PUBLIC ASSISTANCE (PA) HOUSEHOLD INCOME.

The income of PA households is projected as described below: (6-1-94)

01. Head of PA Unit Moves Out. Do not count PA income in a Food Stamp household in a month when the head of the PA unit moves out. (6-1-94)
02. Entire PA Unit Moves Out. Do not count PA income in a Food Stamp household in a month when an entire PA unit moves out. (6-1-94)
03. PA Member Moves In or Out. Do not prorate PA income when a PA Food Stamp household changes because a PA member moves in or out. (6-1-94)

04. PA Member Disqualified. Do not prorate PA income when a PA Food Stamp household changes because any PA member becomes disqualified for Food Stamps. (6-1-94)

05. Supplemental PA Payments. Do not count as income retroactive supplemental PA payments received for a prior month. Retroactive PA payments are lump sum payments. No overissuance exists for the month of receipt. (6-1-94)

06. Current PA Income. Count the current month's PA income. (6-1-94)

512. SPECIAL CASES FOR COUNTING INCOME.

Special cases for counting income are listed below: (6-1-94)

01. Wages Held at the Request of Employee. Wages held at the request of the employee are income in the month the wages would have been paid by the employer. (6-1-94)

02. Garnishments Held by Employer. Garnishments withheld by an employer are income in the month the wages would have been paid. (6-1-94)

03. Wages Held by Employer, Other than Garnishment and Employee Request. Wages held by the employer, even if in violation of law, are not counted as income. (6-1-94)

04. Advances on Wages. Advances on wages will count as income if the household reasonably expects the advance to be paid. (6-1-94)

05. Varying Payment Cycles. Households getting unearned or earned income on a recurring monthly or semi-monthly basis do not have varying income merely because mailing or payment cycles cause additional payments to be received in a month. The income is counted for the month it is intended. (5-1-97)T

06. Nonrecurring Lump Sum Payments and Capital Gains. Nonrecurring lump sum payments must not be counted as income. Nonrecurring lump sum payments are counted as a resource starting in the month received. Nonrecurring lump sum payments include capital gains from the sale or transfer of securities, real estate, or other real property held as an investment for a set period of time. The capital gains are income only if the assets were used in self-employment. (6-1-94)

07. SSI or PA Entitlement. If a household intentionally fails to comply with a means tested program, a penalty may be imposed and benefits reduced to collect the means tested program overpayment. Means tested programs include SSI or PA. Count the full amount of means tested benefits the household is entitled to, not the reduced amount caused by the failure to comply. (7-1-97)T

513. -- 530. (RESERVED).

531. COMPUTING GROSS INCOME.

Compute gross Food Stamp income by performing the steps in Subsections 531.01 through 531.06. (6-1-94)

01. Step 1. Project wages and salaries for the month for each household member. Do not count excluded income. (6-1-94)

a. Add wages and salaries for the household. (6-1-94)

b. Add net self-employment income. (6-1-94)

02. Step 2. Subtract any loss from a farmer's self-employment income. (6-1-94)

03. Step 3. Project unearned income, including educational income, for the month for each household member. Do not count excluded income. Add unearned income for the household. (6-1-94)

04. Step 4. Add unearned income to earned income. (6-1-94)

05. Step 5. Subtract any remaining loss from a farmer's self-employment income. (6-1-94)
06. Step 6. The income remaining is gross income for Food Stamp eligibility. (6-1-94)

532. GROSS INCOME LIMIT.

Households exceeding the gross income limit for the household size are not eligible, unless they are categorically eligible or have an elderly or disabled member. Categorically eligible households are exempt from gross and net income limits. All members of categorically eligible households must be approved for TAFI, AABD, or SSI. Households with elderly or disabled household members are exempt from the gross income limit. Gross income limits are listed in Table 532.

(7-1-97)T

533. INCOME DEDUCTIONS.

A household is entitled to a deduction when it gets a bill or, if there is no bill, when the payment is due. Only the deductions listed below must be taken from household's gross income: (6-1-94)

01. Standard Deduction. The standard deduction is one hundred thirty-four dollars ($134) per month per household. (7-1-97)
02. Earned Income Deduction. The earned income deduction is twenty percent (20%) of gross earned income. (6-1-94)
03. Excess Medical Deduction. The excess medical deduction is nonreimbursed medical expenses more than thirty-five dollars ($35) per household per month. The household member must be either age sixty (60) or older or disabled to get this deduction. Special diets are not deductible. (6-1-94)
04. Dependent Care Deduction. The dependent care deduction each month is dependent care expenses up to a maximum of two hundred dollars ($200) per dependent child under age two (2) and one hundred seventy-five dollars ($175) for any other dependent. The care must be needed for a household member to accept, continue, or seek employment, or attend school or training for employment. (9-1-94)
05. Child Support Deduction. The child support deduction is the legally obligated child support amount the household pays, or expects to pay, on behalf of a non-household member. (7-1-97)
06. Shelter Costs. The monthly shelter cost, over fifty percent (50%) of the household's income after all other deductions, is the excess shelter cost. (6-1-94)

534. AVERAGING PERIODIC DEDUCTIONS.

Infrequent, changing, or one time only deductions for medical, child support, shelter or child care are averaged. Averaging deductible expenses and procedures are listed below: (7-1-97)

01. Averaging Infrequent Expenses. Households can have infrequent expenses averaged forward over the interval between scheduled billings. If there is no scheduled interval, expenses are averaged over the intended coverage period. (6-1-94)

02. Averaging Fluctuating Expenses. Households can have fluctuating expenses averaged over the certification period in which they are billed. (6-1-94)

03. Averaging One Time Only Expenses. One time only expenses can be averaged over the certification period in which they are billed. One time only expenses can be used as a one time deduction for one month. One time only expenses can be averaged over the remaining months in the certification period. Expenses averaged over the remaining certification period begin the month the change will become effective. (6-1-94)

04. Predicting Future Expenses. Predicted expenses must be based on the most recent month's bills, unless changes are expected to occur. (6-1-94)

05. Converting Expenses to Monthly Figures. Whenever an expense is billed on other than a monthly basis convert the expense to a monthly amount. (6-1-94)

a. Multiply weekly amounts by four point three (4.3). (6-1-94)

b. Multiply bi-weekly amounts by two point one five (2.15). (6-1-94)

c. Multiply semi-monthly amounts by two (2). (6-1-94)

d. Use a monthly figure if it can be predicted for each month of the certification period. (6-1-94)

e. The method used to compute monthly expenses must be documented. (6-1-94)

535. MEDICAL DEDUCTIONS.

Medical costs over thirty-five dollars ($35), for elderly or disabled household members, must be deducted from the household income. Medical deductions are listed below. If an agreement is made between the medical provider and the client to pay a bill in monthly amounts, count the monthly agreement amount. The agreement may be oral or written. The agreement must be made before the initial bill becomes due. The agreement must indicate a specific amount due each month. The specified amount is the monthly expense. If there is no agreement, amounts from past billing periods are not deductible. The amounts are not deductible, even if the past debt is in the current bill and actually paid by the household. (6-1-94)

01. Medical and Dental Services. Services must be performed by licensed practitioners, physicians, dentists, podiatrists, or other qualified health professionals. Other qualified health professionals include registered nurses, nurse practitioners, licensed physical therapists and licensed chiropractors. (6-1-94)

02. Psychotherapy and Rehabilitation Services. Services must be performed by licensed psychiatrists, licensed clinical psychologists, licensed practitioners, physicians or other qualified health professionals. (6-1-94)

03. Hospital or Outpatient Treatment. Hospital or outpatient treatment includes costs for hospital, nursing care, State licensed nursing home care, and care to a person immediately before entering a hospital or nursing home. (6-1-94)

04. Prescription Drugs. Prescription drugs and prescribed over-the-counter medication including insulin. (6-1-94)

05. Medical Supplies and Sickroom Equipment. Medical supplies and sickroom equipment including rental or other equipment. (6-1-94)
06. Health Insurance. Health and hospitalization insurance premiums. These do not include health and accident policies payable in a lump sum for death or dismemberment. These do not include income maintenance policies to make mortgage or loan payments while a beneficiary is disabled. (6-1-94)
07. Medicare Premiums. Medicare premiums related to coverage under Title XVIII of the Social Security Act. (6-1-94)
08. Cost-Sharing or Spend-Down Expenses. Cost-sharing or spend-down expenses incurred by Medicaid recipients. (6-1-94)
09. Artificial Devices. Dentures, hearing aids, and prostheses. (6-1-94)
10. Guide Dog. Costs for buying and caring for any animal trained and routinely used to help a disabled person. Deductions include costs for dog food, training, and veterinarian services. (6-1-94)
11. Eyeglasses. Costs for eye examinations and prescribed eyeglasses. (6-1-94)
12. Transportation and Lodging. Reasonable transportation and lodging costs to get medical services. (6-1-94)
13. Attendant Care. Attendant care costs necessary due to age, disability, or illness. If attendant care costs qualify for both the medical and dependent care deductions, treat the cost as a medical expense. (6-1-94)
14. Attendant Meals. Deduct one hundred nineteen dollars ($119) per month if the household provides most of the attendant's meals. (7-1-97)

536. DEPENDENT CARE DEDUCTIONS.

A household can get a deduction for the costs of dependent care. The care of a dependent must be necessary for job search, employment, or training. The maximum deductible amount each month is two hundred dollars ($200) per dependent child under age two (2) and one hundred seventy-five dollars ($175) for any other dependent. If a child in the household reaches his second birthday during the certification period, adjust the dependent care deduction at the household's next recertification. The dependent care costs must be deducted from income. The dependent care must meet the criteria listed below: (3-1-97)T

01. Employment. To accept employment or continue employment. (6-1-94)
02. Job Search. To look for work. Person does not need to be subject to job search requirements. (6-1-94)
03. Training or Education. To attend training or to pursue education. The training or education must be preparation for employment. (6-1-94)

537. DEPENDENT CARE RESTRICTIONS.

Dependent care restrictions are listed below:

(6-1-94)

01. Care By Household Member. Dependent care cannot be deducted if the care is provided by another household member. (6-1-94)
02. In-Kind Payment. Dependent care cannot be deducted if the payment is in-kind, such as food or exchanges for shelter. (6-1-94)
03. Vendor Payment. Dependent care cannot be deducted if paid by vendor payment. (6-1-94)
04. Education Exclusion. Dependent care cannot be deducted if income for dependent care is excluded from educational income. (6-1-94)

05. Spouse Can Give Care. Dependent care cannot be deducted if the spouse in the home is physically capable of the dependent care and is not working, seeking work, or registered for work. (6-1-94)

06. Dependent Care Repaid. Dependent care cannot be deducted if repaid under a Federal child care program. Federal programs include At Risk, Child Care Development Block Grant Act of 1990, Transitional Child Care Program, or Title IV-A of the Social Security Act child care payments. (6-1-94)

538. CHILD SUPPORT DEDUCTIONS.

Effective October 1, 1995, a child support deduction is allowed for a household paying or expecting to pay legally obligated child support to or for a person living outside the household. The child support deduction must reflect the child support the household pays or expects to pay during the certification period, rather than the obligated amount. The child support deduction applies to child support payments outlined in Subsections 538.01 through 538.04.

(5-1-97)T

01. Monthly Child Support. Monthly legally obligated child support payments or portions of monthly legally obligated child support payments made to or for a person living outside the household. (5-1-97)T

02. Health Insurance. Health insurance payments the noncustodial parent is legally obligated to make to obtain coverage for a nonhousehold child. (7-1-97)

03. Payments Representing Child Support. Payments representing child support to or for a person living outside the household. The payments must be legally obligated as ordered by a court or administrative authority. (5-1-97)T

04. Arrearages. Child support payments made for prior months are arrearages. Monthly child support arrearage payments made to or for a person living outside the household are allowed. Monthly child support payments are counted for the month of payment, not for arrearages, unless the household can prove otherwise.

539. CALCULATION OF CHILD SUPPORT DEDUCTION.

The household's child support payment history is used to determine the child support payment allowed. Use Subsections 539.01 and 539.02 to calculate the child support payment deduction. (5-1-97)T

01. Payments Made in Each of the Three (3) Most Recent Months. If legally obligated child support or child support arrearage payments have been made in each of the three (3) most recent months and no income reduction is expected, average the child support or child support arrears amounts for the three (3) months. If the household has paid the monthly obligated child support or arrears for the current month, include the current month in the three (3) month period. Otherwise, average the three (3) prior months' child support. Do not include arrearages collected by tax intercept in the average. Anticipate changes in the legal obligation or other changes that would affect the payment. If obligated child support or arrearage payments have been made in the most recent three (3) months, and a change in income occurs, determine whether reduced child support is expected. Base the child support deduction on what the household expects to pay, after reviewing household income and expenses with the household. If no child support payments can be made, do not allow a child support deduction. (5-1-97)T

02. Payments Not Made in Each of the Last Three (3) Months. If child support or child support arrearage payments have not been made in each of the last three (3) months, anticipate future payments based on household circumstances. Base the child support deduction on what the household expects to pay, after reviewing the household's income and expenses with the household. If no child support or arrears payments can be made, do not allow a child support deduction. If at the last certification the child support deduction was based on the amount the household expected to pay and no child support was paid, do not allow a child support deduction for the new certification unless there is a change in income that would enable the household to make child support payments. Base the child support deduction on what the household expects to pay, after reviewing income and expenses with the household. (5-1-97)T

540. -- 541. (RESERVED).

542. COSTS ALLOWED FOR SHELTER DEDUCTION.

Shelter costs are current charges for the shelter occupied by the household. Shelter costs include costs for the home temporarily not occupied because of employment or training away from home or illness. The costs allowed for the shelter deduction are listed below: (6-1-94)

01. House Payments. Mortgages, second mortgages, mortgage fees and land payments. (6-1-94)
02. Rent. Rent and space rent. (6-1-94)
03. Loan Payments. Loan repayments for the purchase of a mobile or motor home, including interest. (6-1-94)
04. Taxes and Insurance. Property taxes, state, and local assessments and insurance on the structure. (6-1-94)
05. Utilities. Costs of heating, cooling, cooking fuel, electricity, the basic service fee for one telephone, water, sewer, garbage and trash collection, and fees for initial utility installation. (6-1-94)
06. Vehicle Payments. Payments for vehicles used as the primary residence for the household. (6-1-94)
07. Costs for Home Repairs. Nonreimbursable costs to repair a home damaged or destroyed by a natural disaster such as a fire or flood or earthquake. (6-1-94)
08. Home Temporarily Not Occupied. Shelter costs for the home temporarily not occupied because of employment or training away from home or illness. This shelter cost may be in addition to the shelter cost for the home the household currently occupies. Shelter costs for the home temporarily not occupied because of abandonment caused by a natural disaster or casualty loss. This shelter cost may be in addition to the shelter cost for the home the household currently occupies. For shelter deduction for a vacated home: (6-1-94)
 - a. The household must intend to return. (6-1-94)
 - b. Current occupants must not be claiming Food Stamp shelter costs. (6-1-94)
 - c. The home must not be leased or rented. (6-1-94)
 - d. The SUA is not allowed for a temporarily unoccupied home. (6-1-94)
 - e. The household must claim actual costs for both the unoccupied home and its current residence. (6-1-94)

543. STANDARD UTILITY ALLOWANCE (SUA).

The shelter deduction is computed using the SUA or actual utility costs. The SUA is described below: (6-1-94)

01. Standard Utility Allowance (SUA). The Standard Utility Allowance (SUA) can be used instead of actual costs of heating, cooling, cooking fuel, electricity, the basic service fee for one (1) telephone, water, sewer and garbage collection. The SUA is one hundred sixty five dollars ($165). The household must be told if actual utility costs exceed the SUA, the actual costs can be used if the household proves these costs. (10-1-96)T
02. SUA Qualifications. To qualify for the SUA, households must: (6-1-94)
 - a. Receive energy assistance payments made under the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Act of 1981; or (6-1-94)
 - b. The household must have a primary heating or cooling system. The household must have out-of-pocket heating or cooling costs billed on a regular or irregular basis. The heating or cooling costs must be separate from rent or mortgage payments. If not billed regularly for heating or cooling costs, the household must be otherwise Food Stamp eligible between billing periods. (6-1-94)

c. If the household claims cooling costs, the household must have either an air conditioning system or a room air conditioner to qualify for the SUA. (6-1-94)

d. If the household claims heating costs, the household must have expenses for a primary source of heat. Households buying wood for their primary source of heat may get the SUA. Cutting their own wood for the primary source of heat does not qualify a household for the SUA. Supplemental heat sources like, space heaters, electric blankets, cook stoves and a secondary heat source like a fireplace do not qualify households for the SUA. (6-1-94)

544. ACTUAL UTILITY COSTS.

The shelter deduction is computed using the SUA or actual utility costs. Actual utility costs are described below: (6-1-94)

01. Actual Utility Costs. If a household is not entitled to claim the SUA or does not wish to claim the SUA, the household can claim actual utility expenses for excess utility costs or utility costs it pays separately, including secondary heat sources. Charges for heating and cooling costs, except the costs of cutting their own wood, may be claimed as actual expenses by the household. (6-1-94)

02. Not Claiming SUA. For households not claiming the SUA, the Department can predict utility costs based on last year's bills from the same period, updated by overall price increases. If only the most recent bill is available, utility increases or decreases can be based on utility company estimates for the household's dwelling and utilities. An average of past expenses from the last several months must not be used to predict utility costs. Costs of heating, cooling, cooking fuel, electricity, the basic service fee for one telephone, water, sewer, and garbage and trash collection are allowed. (6-1-94)

545. SWITCHING BETWEEN ACTUAL AND SUA.

Households must be told they can switch between actual utilities and the SUA. Households can switch at recertification. Households can switch between standard and actual utilities when the household moves from one (1) residence to another. Households can switch between standard and actual utilities when their type of utilities change. (9-22-96)T

546. SHARED UTILITY EXPENSES.

The SUA must be prorated among households sharing utility costs. Prorate the SUA among the household, another individual not participating in the program, another household participating in the program, or both, if the household shares utility expenses with and lives with another individual, another household, or both. Use the actual utility costs paid by households or household members if the prorated share cannot be determined. The actual utility costs must not exceed the total utility costs of the residence. (6-1-94)

547. COSTS NOT ALLOWED FOR THE SHELTER DEDUCTION.

The costs listed below are not allowed in computing the shelter deduction. (6-1-94)

01. Utility Deposit. Fees for a one (1) time utility deposit. (6-1-94)
02. Rental Deposit. Damage or advance deposits on rentals. (6-1-94)
03. Past Due Rent. Payments made to pay past due rent. (6-1-94)
04. Wood Cutting. The cost to cut the household's own wood for heating. (6-1-94)
05. Furniture Rental. Rental furniture fees. (6-1-94)
06. Personal Insurance. Insurance on furniture or personal belongings. (6-1-94)
07. Vehicle Not Used As Residence. Payments or gasoline costs on vehicles used only for recreation. (6-1-94)

(6-1-94)

08. Repairs Not Paid By Household. Costs for repairing or replacing shelter paid by private or public agencies, insurance companies, or any other source. (6-1-94)

09. Shelter Not Paid By Household. Shelter paid by a vendor or employer. (6-1-94)

10. Utility Cost Paid by Utility Payment. Utility costs paid entirely by HUD or FmHA negative utility payment. (8-1-94)

548. COMPUTING THE SHELTER DEDUCTION.

The shelter deduction is computed as listed below: (6-1-94)

01. Household With Elderly or Disabled Member. If the household has an elderly or disabled member, deduct the monthly shelter cost exceeding fifty percent (50%) of the household's income after all other deductions. (6-1-94)

02. Household With No Elderly or Disabled Member. If the household does not have an elderly or disabled member, deduct the excess of fifty percent (50%) of the household's income, after all other deductions, up to the maximum two hundred fifty dollars ($250) limit. (1-1-97)T

549. NET INCOME LIMIT TEST.

Categorically eligible households do not have a net income limit. Households with an elderly or disabled household member must meet the net income limit. For all other households, compare the net income to the net income eligibility limit for that size household. This comparison must be completed for initial eligibility and when income changes. When the household income changes to a different income eligibility limit, apply the different limit. If the net income of the household exceeds the net income limit the household is not eligible for Food Stamps, unless categorically eligible. Net income limits are listed in Table 549.

552. -- 561. (RESERVED).

562. PRORATING INITIAL MONTH'S BENEFITS.

The initial month is the first month an applicant household is certified for Food Stamps. Except for migrant and seasonal farm worker households, an initial month follows any period the household does not get Food Stamps. For migrant and seasonal farm workers, the initial month follows a period of more than one (1) calendar month the household does not get Food Stamps. For the purposes of the migrant and seasonal farmworker provision, if a member leaves the previously certified household and a new case is established for that member's new household, the application month for the new household is an initial month. Food Stamps for the initial month are based on the day in the month the household applies. Food Stamps are based on the date of release from a public institution if a prerelease application is filed. Prorating is based on a thirty (30) day calendar month. Benefits are prorated from the application date to the end of the month. (4-1-97)T

563. FOOD STAMP PRORATING FORMULA.

Determine the prorated Food Stamp amount using the steps listed in Subsections 563.01 through 563.05. (7-1-97)

01. Step 1. Subtract the application date (1 through 30) from 31. If the application date is the thirty-first (31st) day of the month, use thirty (30). (7-1-97)

02. Step 2. Divide the amount in Step 1 by thirty (30). (7-1-97)

03. Step 3. Multiply the monthly Food Stamp benefit by the amount in Step 2. (7-1-97)

04. Step 4. If the difference in Step 3 ends in one (1) through ninety-nine ($.99) cents, round down to the lower dollar. (7-1-97)

05. Step 5. If the amount in Step 4 is for the initial month, and is less than ten dollars ($10), benefits must not be issued. (7-1-97)

564. BENEFITS AFTER THE INITIAL MONTH.

After the initial month, benefits must be issued as described below. (6-1-94)

01. One (1) and Two (2) Person Households. All eligible one (1) and two (2) person households must receive a minimum allotment of ten dollars ($10). (6-1-94)

02. Three (3) or More Person Household. (6-1-94)

a. All eligible households with three (3) or more members entitled to one dollar ($1), must receive two dollars ($2). (6-1-94)

b. All eligible households with three (3) or more members entitled to three dollars ($3), must receive four dollars ($4). (6-1-94)

c. All eligible households with three (3) or more members entitled to five dollars ($5), must receive six dollars ($6). (6-1-94)

03. Not Categorically Eligible. All households, except categorically eligible households, must be denied if the household's net income exceeds the level at which benefits are issued. (6-1-94)

565. FOOD STAMP BENEFITS FOR CATEGORICALLY ELIGIBLE HOUSEHOLD.

Categorically eligible households with one (1) or two (2) household members are eligible to get at least ten dollars ($10) of Food Stamps, regardless of net income. Categorically eligible households with three (3) or more household members are eligible for Food Stamps, but do not get Food Stamps if the net income is too high. (10-1-94)

566. AGGREGATE ALLOTMENTS.

Food Stamps are issued for more than one (1) full month if households meet the criteria below. (6-1-94)

01. General Household. Households, other than migrant or seasonal farmworker households, applying after the fifteenth (15th) day of the month must be issued combined Food Stamps for the application month and the next month. (6-1-94)

02. Migrant or Seasonal Farmworker Households. Migrant or seasonal farmworker households applying after the fifteenth (15th) of the month, certified for more than thirty (30) days, must be issued combined Food Stamps for the application month and the next month. Migrant or seasonal farmworker households, previously certified less than thirty (30) days before the new application date, do not get prorated benefits. These households get the full monthly allotment of Food Stamps. (6-1-94)

567. -- 573. (RESERVED).

574. BENEFITS FOR PREVIOUSLY DISQUALIFIED HOUSEHOLD MEMBERS.

The resources, income, and deductions of a previously ineligible household member must be determined. Add a previously disqualified household member the month following the last month in the sanction. The disqualification must have been due to an intentional program violation (IPV), work registration or Job Search Assistance Program (JSAP) sanction, failure to meet the ABAWD work requirement, voluntary quit or reduction of work hours, failure to comply with the SSN requirement, or ineligible legal noncitizen status. The person's resources, income, and deductions are counted the month the person is added to the household. (4-1-97)T

575. ADDING PREVIOUSLY INELIGIBLE STUDENT.

If the household member has been ineligible due to student status, add the eligible person the month following the month the household reports the change. (6-1-94)

576. CERTIFICATION PERIODS.

A certification period must be assigned for each household. Households must be assigned the longest certification period possible based on expected household circumstances. At the end of each certification period, entitlement to Food Stamps ends. Further eligibility starts only upon recertification based upon a newly completed application, an interview and verification. Benefits cannot be continued beyond the end of a certification period without a new determination of eligibility. (6-1-94)

01. First Month of Certification. The first month the household is eligible is the first month in the certification period for initial applicants. Upon recertification, a new certification period begins. (6-1-94)

02. Elderly or Disabled Households. Households consisting entirely of elderly or disabled members, whose income is stable, must be certified for up to twelve (12) months. (6-1-94)

03. Farmworker Households. Annual certification periods will be assigned to farmworkers who receive their annual salaries on a scheduled monthly basis. The income must not change as the amount of work changes. (6-1-94)

04. Self-Employed For At Least One (1) Year. Self-employed households, working as self-employed for at least one (1) year, will be certified up to twelve (12) months. Income must be readily predictable and household circumstances must not be likely to change. (6-1-94)

05. Self-Employed For Less Than One (1) Year. Households, self-employed less than one (1) year, will be certified up to six (6) months. Households self-employed for less than one (1) year are assigned a certification period to bring the household into the annual cycle. (6-1-94)

06. Financial and Medical Assistance Households. Households in which all members receive AABD, AABD-related Medicaid, or SSI or Medicaid will be assigned certification periods coinciding with the other program review. To align the Food Stamp certification with the redetermination date for the AABD, AABD-related Medicaid or SSI program, the household's Food Stamp certification can be shortened or extended when the AABD, AABD-related Medicaid, or SSI application is initially approved. The Food Stamp certification period for these households may be extended up to twelve (12) months. The household must be notified of changes in the length of the certification period. (7-1-97)T

07. Households Eligible for a Child Support Deduction. Households eligible for a child support deduction with no record of regular child support or arrearage payments will be certified up to three (3) months. Households eligible for a child support deduction with a record of regular child support or arrearage payments will be certified for up to six (6) months. These requirements do not apply to households assigned certification periods under Subsections 576.02, 576.04, 576.05, and 576.06. (5-1-97)T

08. Households Granted Separate Household Status. Households consisting of a parent and that parent's children who have been granted separate household status will be assigned a certification period up to six (6) months. Financial and medical assistance households granted separate household status must be assigned certification periods up to six (6) months. (9-1-94)

09. Stable Households. Households with stable income or work records, except self-employed and farmworker households, are certified for up to six (6) months. The household should expect no major changes in income, deductions, or household composition. (6-1-94)

10. Stable Homeless Households. Households in which all members are homeless, whose living arrangements reflect a stable living situation must be certified for up to six (6) months. Stable living situations include living with another household. Living in transitional housing is not a stable living situation. (6-1-94)

11. Unstable Households. Households will be certified for one (1) or two (2) months, when the household cannot predict its future circumstances, or when frequent changes in income or household status is expected. Households must be certified for the period the household can predict its circumstances, household status, and household income. Migrant and seasonal farmworkers, whose income is subject to large fluctuations during the work season will be certified for one (1) to two (2) months. The income fluctuation may be due to uncertainty of continuous employment, or due to bad weather, or other circumstances. (6-1-94)

12. Residents of Alcohol and Drug Abuse Centers. Residents of alcohol and drug abuse centers may be certified for periods of one (1) to six (6) months depending on the length of the treatment or rehabilitation program. (6-1-94)

13. Certifications After the Fifteenth (15th) of the Month. Households eligible for a certification period of three (3) or fewer months must have their certification period increased by one (1) month if the application is approved after the fifteenth (15th) day of the application month and the household's circumstances warrant the longer period. (6-1-94)

- iii. The household must submit a new application if it does not act by the end of the thirty (30) day processing period. (6-1-94)
03. Pending Application. If the application is held pending action beyond the thirty (30) day processing period, a written notice of application processing must be sent to the household. (6-1-94)
04. Household Action Required. If household action is needed to complete processing, send a notice explaining what action must be taken and that the application will be denied if the required action is not completed within thirty (30) days of the application date. (6-1-94)

589. IDENTIFICATION (ID) CARDS.

The Department must issue an Identification Card (HW 0556) to each certified household as proof of program eligibility. The card must be issued to the head of the household. The head of household and any authorized representative must sign the card. ID cards must not be mailed in the same envelope as Food Stamps. Identification Cards conditions are listed below: (6-1-94)

01. ID Card Issuance. Identification Cards must be issued: (6-1-94)

03. No Designated Representative. The authorized representative line on the ID Card must be voided, if the household does not designate an authorized representative. (6-1-94)
04. Special Notations on Cards. Households eligible for and interested in delivered meals must receive an ID card marked with the letter "M" or "CD" if the facility is a communal dining facility. Homeless persons must be issued an ID card marked "CD" in areas where restaurants are authorized to provide meals for them. (6-1-94)
05. Use of ID Cards. Upon request, the household or the authorized representative must present the household's ID card to the retail food store or meal service when exchanging food coupons for eligible food. (6-1-94)

590. -- 600. RESERVED).

601. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES.

Changes in a household's circumstances, during the certification period, must be used to redetermine eligibility and benefit level. The household must report and verify changes in circumstances within time limits. Changes may be reported by phone, by mail or directly to the Department. The Department must act on household changes that affect eligibility and/or benefit level. (6-1-94)

602. HOUSEHOLD MUST PROVIDE PROOF.

The household must furnish proof to support its statements and resolve inconsistent information. Proof can be provided in person, by mail, or by an authorized representative. Reasonable proof includes information to verify reported changes. If the household finds it difficult or impossible to get the proof, the Department must offer help to get the proof.

603. PERSON OUTSIDE HOUSEHOLD FAILS TO PROVIDE PROOF--CHANGES.

Food Stamps cannot be closed solely because a person outside the household fails to provide requested proof. The Department will attempt to get another source of proof if a person outside the household did not provide requested proof. Disqualified household members are not persons outside the household.

604. -- 610. (RESERVED).

611. REPORTING PROCEDURES.

01. Must Not Impose Added Reporting Requirements. The Department must not require additional household reporting not listed in these rules.

02. Report Form. The Department must give households a Change Report Form (HW 0594 or HW 0586) at certification, at recertification, when the household reports a change and when the household requests the form.

03. Reporting Methods. Changes can be reported by telephone, personal contact, or mail. Changes can be reported by a household member or authorized representative.

04. Failure to Report. If Food Stamps are overissued because a household fails to report required changes, a Claim Determination (HW 0560) must be prepared. A person can be disqualified for failure to report a change if he commits an Intentional Program Violation.

612. HOUSEHOLD MUST REPORT CHANGES.

Households must report any changes listed below:

(6-1-94)

01. Household Composition. Households must report when a person enters or leaves the Food Stamp household.

02. Residence. Households must report residence changes and resulting shelter cost changes.

03. Unearned Income. Households must report changes in an unearned income source. Households must report changes in unearned gross monthly income of twenty-five dollars ($25) or more, except changes in TAFI or AABD grants. This includes vendor payments and reimbursements.

(7-1-97)T

04. Earned Income. Households must report a change in an earned income source. Households must report a change in hourly rate or salary. Households must report a change from part-time to full-time work or full-time to part-time work. Work of less than thirty (30) hours weekly is part-time work. Thirty (30) or more hours weekly is full-time work.

(7-1-94)

05. Vehicles. Households must report any change in the number or type of licensed vehicles.

06. Resources. Households must report changes in cash on hand, stocks, bonds, savings, and bank accounts combining to reach or exceed two thousand dollars ($2,000).

07. Child Support. Households must report changes in legal obligations. Legal obligations include but are not limited to changes in the child support amount or the child reaches an age at which child support is no longer legally obligated. (5-1-97)T

613. DEPARTMENT MUST TAKE ACTION ON CHANGES.

The Department must act when changes are reported or become known to the Department. (6-1-94)

01. Documentation. Changes must be documented in the case record, even if there is no change in the Food Stamp amount. (6-1-94)

02. Change Report Form. A new Change Report Form (HW 0594 or HW 0586) must be given or sent to the household when a change is reported. (6-1-94)

03. Receipt of Report Notice. The Department must notify the household when the report is received. A Notice of Decision meets this requirement, when notifying the household of a benefit determination. (6-1-94)

04. Proof. Inform the household that proof of changes is required. The household must be told failure to provide the proof will result in decreased or stopped benefits. The Department must document how the request for proof was made. (6-1-94)

614. CHANGES IN INCOME, HOUSEHOLD COMPOSITION, OR ASSETS.

If a client reports a change in income, household composition, or assets resulting in excess resources, request proof of the change. If the household provides the proof by the requested date, provide notice and end or adjust benefits. If the household does not provide proof, send a closure notice. If the household then provides proof before the first day of the month the case would close, benefits must be continued, adjusted, or ended. The Department must give adequate notice to adjust or end benefits. (6-1-94)

615. CHANGES IN SHELTER, DEPENDENT CARE, CHILD SUPPORT OR MEDICAL EXPENSES.

If a client reports a change in shelter, dependent care, child support or questionable medical expenses, the Department must request proof of the change. If the household provides the proof by the requested date, notice must be sent and benefits adjusted. If the household does not provide the proof and the change would result in decreased benefits, no deduction is allowed. If the change would result in an increase in benefits, but the household does not provide proof, the deduction is not increased. The deduction remains at the amount verified before the change. Proof of anticipated medical expenses is not required provided the client has informed the Department of the expense and the expense is not questionable. Act on a medical change learned from a source other than the household only if the change can be made without contact with the household for further information or proof. Do not act on a medical change learned from a source other than the household if not verified upon receipt or if contact with the household for proof is necessary. (7-1-97)

616. DECREASES OR CLOSURE OF FOOD STAMPS.

If a change results in a decrease or closure of Food Stamps, the Department must provide notice. The notice must be sent within ten (10) days of the date the change is reported. The change must be effective the first month following timely notice, unless the change does not require ten (10) day advance notice. If the household fails to provide required proof of a change affecting eligibility by the requested date, the Department must send a closure notice. If the household fails to provide required proof of a change affecting Food Stamp amount by the requested date, and the change would result in decreased benefits, no deduction is allowed or benefits are decreased. If the household provides the change verification after the date requested, act on the change as if it was an increase. The effective date of the change is the month after the month the change is verified. (6-1-94)

617. INCREASES IN FOOD STAMPS.

If a change results in an increase in Food Stamps, the Department must allow the household ten (10) days to provide proof. The increase must be handled as follows: (6-1-94)

01. Proof Provided Within Ten (10) Days. If the household provides proof within ten (10) days of reporting the change, act on the change the month after the change was reported, not from the date proof was provided. Make the change effective the next regular Food Stamp issuance. For changes reported after the 20th of the month, issue a supplement for the next month. Issue the supplement no later than the 10th of the next month. If the change is reported and verified after EPICS cut off date, the change must be made by the second monthly Food Stamp issuance after the change is reported. (10-1-96)T

02. No Proof of Eligibility Change. If the household fails to provide proof of a change affecting eligibility, Food Stamps must be closed. Changes in income or household composition are changes affecting eligibility. Changes in assets causing resources to exceed the limits are changes affecting eligibility. (6-1-94)

03. No Proof of Benefit Level Change. If the household fails to provide proof of a change increasing the benefit level, the change is not allowed. The deduction remains at the amount already verified. Changes in shelter costs, dependent care costs, or medical costs affect benefit level. (6-1-94)

04. Proof Provided After Ten (10) Days. If the household fails to show proof within ten (10) days of reporting the change, but shows the proof later, increase benefits the month after the month proof is provided. (6-1-94)

618. FOOD STAMP INCREASE DUE TO ADDITION OF HOUSEHOLD MEMBER.

If a change results in a Food Stamp increase due to an added household member, the increase must be made the month following the month the change is reported, if proof is provided within ten (10) days of the Department's request. Make the change effective the next regular Food Stamp issuance. For changes reported after the 20th of the month, issue a supplement for the next month. Issue the supplement no later than the 10th of the next month. (10-1-96)T

619. FOOD STAMP INCREASE DUE TO DECREASED INCOME.

If a change results in a Food Stamp increase, due to a fifty dollar ($50) or more decrease in the household's gross income, the increase must be made the month following the month the change is reported, if proof is provided within ten (10) days of the Department's request. Notify the household of refusal to cooperate with a Notice of Decision. (6-1-94)

621. TAFI OR AABD HOUSEHOLD REPORTING CHANGES.

If a change requires a reduction or ending TAFI or AABD and Food Stamp benefits, and the Department can determine Food Stamp benefits, the Department will issue a Notice of Decision for both AABD and Food Stamps or TAFI and Food Stamps. If the household timely requests a fair hearing and continued benefits Food Stamps continue pending the hearing. The household must reapply if certification expires before the hearing is complete. If Food Stamps increase due to lowering or ending TAFI or AABD, issue the TAFI or AABD notice of adverse action, but do not increase Food Stamps until the household decides if it will appeal the action. If the household appeals and TAFI or AABD is continued, continue Food Stamp benefits at the old level. If the household does not appeal, change Food Stamps after notice. The time limit to act on changes increasing Food Stamps must be calculated from the date the TAFI or AABD Notice of Decision expires. (7-1-97)T

622. CHANGE ENDS TAFI OR AABD INCOME.

A change ending a household's income from TAFI or AABD during the certification period may affect Food Stamp eligibility. If a TAFI or AABD notice is not required or the household does not appeal, send a notice explaining the household's benefits will end due to changes which may affect eligibility and/or benefit level. A notice must be sent to the household when Food Stamp benefits change because of a TAFI or AABD change. If TAFI or AABD ends and they remain Food Stamp eligible, advise the household of the work registration requirements. When the certification is shortened to reflect changes, the certification period must not end earlier than the month after the notice is issued, allowing adequate time to send a Notice of Expiration and for the household to timely reapply. (7-1-97)T

623. FAILURE TO TAKE PROMPT ACTION.

If the Department is unable to make a change in Food Stamp eligibility or issuance and an overissuance results, a Claim Determination (HW 0560) form must be prepared. If the Department fails to act on a change that increases household benefits, restore lost benefits. (6-1-94)

Benefits must be restored regardless of the elapsed time since the disqualification. Restored benefits may exceed twelve (12) months. (6-1-94)

03. Restoring Benefits to Households Who Have Moved Out of State. i. The error causing lost benefits is corrected; or (6-1-94)

ii. The household is found ineligible for Food Stamps. (6-1-94)

g. The Department must compute the household's eligibility for each month of loss. Replacement of Food Stamps not received in mail is described below: (6-1-94)

(6-1-94)

g. The postal service verifies the certified mail was not delivered and cannot be located. (6-1-94)

675. OVERISSUANCE CLAIMS AGAINST HOUSEHOLDS.

When more Food Stamps are issued than a household is eligible for, an overissuance exists. The Department must begin a Food Stamp Intentional Program Violation (IPV), Inadvertent Household Error (IHE), or Administrative Error (AE) claim against any household with a Food Stamp overissuance. All adult household members are jointly and separately liable for the value of overissuances. The adult household members, in the household at the time of the overissuance, are liable whether residing in the household with the claim or in any other household. An overissuance exists if a household altered and used an expired ATP. An overissuance does not exist when the household uses an expired ATP that is not altered. An overissuance does not exist when the household does not pay a budgeted expense. An overissuance does not exist if the Department did not ensure the household signed the application, registered for work or provided or applied for an SSN. (6-1-94)

676. INADVERTENT HOUSEHOLD ERRORS (IHE).

An IHE is an accidental household error resulting in a Food Stamp overissuance. Causes of IHE claims are listed below: (6-1-94)

- 01. Failure to Give Information. An IHE claim occurs when a household unintentionally fails to give correct or complete information. (6-1-94)
- 02. Failure to Report Change. An IHE claim occurs when a household unintentionally fails to report changes or to report at all. (6-1-94)
- 03. Failure to Comply. An IHE claim occurs when a household unintentionally fails to comply due to language barrier, educational level, or not understanding written or verbal instructions. (6-1-94)

04. Pending Hearing. An IHE claim occurs when a household gets continuing Food Stamps pending a fair hearing decision and the decision is against the household. (6-1-94)

05. Pending IPV. An IHE claim occurs between the time of an IPV referral and an IPV decision. (6-1-94)

677. COMPUTING IHE CLAIMS.

The IHE claim is the difference between the Food Stamps the household received and the Food Stamps they should have received. Compute the claim back to the month the IHE occurred. Do not allow the earned income deduction when determining an overissuance due to a household's failure, without good cause, to report earned income on time. Do not compute more than six (6) years before the date the overissuance was discovered. The first month of overissuance is the month the Food Stamp amount would have decreased if the change had been reported. The change can never be later than two (2) months after the error occurred. The Department must offset the claim against any amounts not yet restored to the household. (9-22-96)T

678. IHE DEMAND FOR REPAYMENT.

The Department must send a completed Demand Letter for Overissuance and Repayment Agreement (HW 0544) to the household. If the Department delivers the demand letter in person, the household must tell the Department its choice of repayment method on that day. If the Department delivers the demand letter by mail, the household must tell the Department its choice of repayment method, within twenty (20) days of the mailing date of the demand letter. (6-1-94)

679. ACTION AGAINST IHE HOUSEHOLDS FAILING TO RESPOND.

If the household fails to respond to the demand letter within twenty (20) days, reduce the Food Stamps by allotment reduction as soon as possible after notice. If the household requested continued Food Stamps or is getting continued Food Stamps at the time the household makes repayment choice, Food Stamp reduction must not begin until an adverse fair hearing decision is issued or the certification period ends and a new certification period begins. (6-1-94)

680. COLLECTING IHE OVERISSUANCES.

Food Stamps are reduced by ten percent (10%) of the monthly Food Stamps or ten dollars ($10) per month, whichever is greater. Food Stamps must not be withheld from an initial month's benefits. The procedures for collecting IHE claims are listed below: (6-1-94)

01. Lump Sum Payment. The household makes a full or partial lump sum cash or coupon return repayment, not requiring liquidation of the household's resources. (6-1-94)

02. Installments. The household makes regular monthly installments by cash or coupon return. (6-1-94)

03. Lump Sum and Installments. The household makes a combination of lump sum and installment cash or coupon returns. (6-1-94)

c. The notice must state if the household fails to make the overdue payment or to contact the Department to discuss renegotiation, the current Food Stamps will be reduced without further notice. (6-1-94)

07. Household Renegotiates Repayment. If the household requests renegotiation, the Department must decide if their financial circumstances allow payment renegotiation. If their financial circumstances warrant renegotiation, negotiate a new repayment agreement. If renegotiation is not feasible, continue renegotiation until a settlement is reached. Begin allotment reduction if a settlement is not reached. Notice is not required. (6-1-94)

08. Household Fails to Respond to Notice. Begin allotment reduction if a Food Stamp household fails to respond to the notice. (6-1-94)

09. Federal Income Tax Refund Offset Program (FTROP). Past Due claims can be submitted for collection through FTROP as specified in 7CFR 273.18 (g). The claim must meet the following criteria: (7-1-97)

a. The claim is properly established. (7-1-97)

b. No person liable for the claim currently participates in a Food Stamp household. (7-1-97)

c. The claim is for at least thirty dollars ($30). Multiple claims may be combined to total thirty dollars ($30). (7-1-97)

d. The date of the first demand letter is within ten (10) years of the processing year. There is no time limit on court judgements. (7-1-97)

e. Voluntary or involuntary payments are thirty (30) days past due. (7-1-97)

10. FTROP Notices. Sixty (60) days before referring claims for collection under FTROP, the Department will provide the person with a notice of intent to collect via tax refund offset. The notice must inform the person of their right to request a Department review of the intended collection action. The request for review must be received within sixty (60) days of the notice of intent. The Department will determine if the claims in question are past due and legally enforceable based on a review of its records or other information submitted by the person. The Department will notify the person in writing if it is determined the claim is past due and legally enforceable and the Department intends to refer the claim to IRS for offset. The notice of determination must inform the person of the right to request that FCS review the Department's decision. The notice must include instructions for requesting a review by FCS and the address of the FCS regional office. Claims subject to federal salary offset will be handled in accordance with 7CFR 273.18(g). (7-1-97)

681. EXCEPTIONS FOR STARTING IHE COLLECTION.

Do not start collection action on IHE claims when the claim is collected through an offset. Do not start collection action on IHE claims when the claim is less than thirty-five dollars ($35) and cannot be recovered by allotment reduction. Do not start collection action on IHE claims when the Department finds the household cannot be located. Do not start collection action on IHE claims when the collection action may prejudice the IPV determination. (6-1-94)

682. HOUSEHOLD MEMBERS CHANGE WHEN IHE EXISTS.

The Department must collect against any or all adult members of the household which received the overissuance. If household membership changes, collect from any household having a member who was an adult member of the household with the overissuance. Offset the claim against any household with a member who was an adult member of the original household when the overissuance occurred. (6-1-94)

683. SUSPENDING OR ENDING IHE CLAIM.

IHE claims may be suspended when at least one (1) demand letter was sent to a household not getting Food Stamps and the household cannot be located. IHE claims may be suspended when at least one (1) demand letter was sent to a household not getting Food Stamps and the cost of further action may exceed the recovery amount. IHE claims may end when the claim is determined uncollectible after three (3) years in suspense. (6-1-94)

684. -- 686. (RESERVED).

687. COMPUTING ADMINISTRATIVE ERROR CLAIMS.

An administrative error is an overissuance due to an action or failure to act by the Department. The Administrative Error claim is the difference between the Food Stamps the household received and the Food Stamps they should have received. Compute the claim back to the month the administrative error occurred. Do not go back more than twelve (12) months before the date the overissuance was discovered. When the Department did not act on timely change report, the first claim month is the first month the change would have affected Food Stamp amount. The first change month must not be later than two (2) months after the month the change occurred. The Department must offset the claim against any amounts not yet restored. (7-1-97)T

688. ADMINISTRATIVE DEMAND LETTER.

The Department must start collection by sending the household a completed Demand Letter for Overissuance and Repayment Agreement (HW 0544). The Department must allow the household twenty (20) days to decide on a repayment method and inform the department. (9-22-96)T

689. ACTION AGAINST ADMINISTRATIVE ERROR HOUSEHOLD FAILING TO RESPOND.

If the household fails to respond to the demand letter within twenty (20) days, reduce the Food Stamp allotment as soon as possible after notice. If the household requested continued Food Stamps, or is getting continued Food Stamps when it makes a repayment choice, reduction must not begin until an adverse fair hearing decision is issued or the certification ends and a new certification period begins. (9-22-96)T

690. ADMINISTRATIVE ERROR COLLECTION ACTION NOT TAKEN.

When the claim is collected by offset no further collection action is necessary unless there is a balance owed. Except for reconciliation claims, collection action is not started if the claim is less than one hundred dollars ($100). Collection action is not started if the Department finds the household cannot be located. Collection action is not started if the Department or FCS are taking steps to disqualify a drug or alcohol rehabilitation center and collection action may prejudice the case. (7-1-97)T

691. RECONCILIATION CLAIMS.

The Department must account for all issuances through a reconciliation process. The Department must reconcile incorrectly authorized issuances. Reconciliation errors are administrative errors identified by Central Office. Collection action is initiated on all reconciliation claims regardless of the amount. (6-1-94)

692. SUSPENDING AND ENDING ADMINISTRATIVE ERROR CLAIMS.

Administrative error claims may be suspended when at least one (1) demand letter was sent to household not getting Food Stamps and the household cannot be located. Administrative error claims may be suspended when at least one (1) demand letter was sent to household not getting Food Stamps and the cost of further action may exceed the recovery amount. Administrative error claims may be stopped when the claim is determined uncollectible by holding in suspense three (3) years. (6-1-94)

693. COLLECTING ADMINISTRATIVE ERROR CLAIMS.

The Department must collect against any or all adult members of the household with the AE overissuance. If household membership changes, collect from any previous adult member of the household with the overissuance. compromised for the three (3) year requirement. (6-1-94)

06. Household Fails To Repay. If the household fails to pay under a repayment agreement by paying nothing or less than agreed, send a notice. The notice must state insufficient or no payment was received. The notice must state the household may contact the Department to renegotiate their repayment agreement. If the household requests renegotiation, negotiate a new repayment agreement. If the household fails to respond to the notice, send additional demand letters to participating and nonparticipating households. The disqualified member's household will remain responsible for the overissuance resulting from the disqualified member's IPV, regardless of the household's eligibility. If the prosecutor fails to specify a period, use the IPV penalty periods as specified in Section 701 unless they are contrary to the court order. Persons exempt from work registration the day before the strike, for reasons other than employment, are not strikers. Persons unable to work due to other striking employees are not strikers. Persons, not part of the striking unit, who do not cross a picket line for fear of personal injury or death, are not strikers. (6-1-94)

03. Calculating Striker Food Stamps. Households with striking members are eligible, if the household was eligible for Food Stamps the day before the strike and is otherwise eligible at application. To determine eligibility and benefits use steps in Subsections 752.03.a. through 752.03.d. (6-1-94)

a. Step 1. Consider the day before the strike as the application date. (6-1-94)

753. SPONSORED LEGAL NONCITIZENS.

A sponsor executes an affidavit of support or similar agreement on behalf of legal noncitizen, as a condition of the legal noncitizen's entry or admission into the United States as a permanent resident. Treatment of a sponsor's income and resources is based on the type of affidavit of support the sponsor signed. Types of affidavits of support are listed in Table 753. (4-1-97)T

01. Affidavit Signed Between February 1, 1983 and March 31, 1997. Income and resources of a sponsor who signed this affidavit of support will have some of their income and resources counted for the sponsored legal noncitizens. The income and resources of the sponsor will be deemed for three (3) years after the legal noncitizen is admitted for permanent residence to the U.S. (4-1-97)T

02. Affidavit Signed On or After April 1, 1997. A sponsor who signed an affidavit of support after April 1, 1997 pursuant to Section 213A of the Immigration and Nationality Act will have all of their income and resources counted for the sponsored legal noncitizen. The income and resources of the sponsor will be deemed until the legal noncitizen becomes a naturalized citizen or until he has worked forty (40) qualifying quarters of coverage under Title II of the Social Security Act. A qualifying quarter includes a quarter worked by the legal noncitizen's parent while the legal noncitizen was under eighteen (18) and a quarter worked by the legal noncitizen's spouse during marriage if the legal noncitizen remains married to the spouse or the spouse is deceased. Any quarter after January 1, 1997 in which a legal noncitizen received any Federal means-tested benefit is not counted as a qualifying quarter.

754. DEEMING INCOME AND RESOURCES TO SPONSORED LEGAL NONCITIZEN.

Income and resources of the sponsor are deemed available to the legal noncitizen. If the sponsor lives with his spouse, the spouse's income and resources are also deemed available to the legal noncitizen. The income and resources are deemed, even if the sponsor and spouse were married after the sponsor signed the sponsorship agreement. The income and resources deemed to the legal noncitizen must be counted toward Food Stamp eligibility and issuance level of the legal noncitizen's household. Subsection 754.01 describes the steps for deeming income from a sponsor who signed an affidavit of support between February 1, 1983 and March 31, 1997. Subsection 754.02 describes the steps for deeming resources from a sponsor who signed an affidavit of support between February 1, 1983 and March 31, 1997. Subsection 754.03 describes the steps for deeming income from a sponsor who signed an affidavit of support on or after April 1, 1997. (4-1-97)T

01. Deeming Income From a Sponsor Who Signed an Affidavit of Support Between February 1, 1983 and March 31, 1997.

(4-1-97)T

a. Step 1. Compute the total monthly income of the sponsor and spouse when the legal noncitizen applies or is recertified. If the legal noncitizen has already reported under TAFI sponsored legal noncitizen rules use the TAFI reported gross income information.

(7-1-97)T

b. Step 2. Subtract the earned income deduction from the earned income of the sponsor and spouse.

(6-1-94)

c. Step 3. Compute the sponsor's household size. Count the sponsor, the spouse and persons claimed by them as dependents for Federal income tax.

(6-1-94)

d. Step 4. Find the Food Stamp gross monthly income limit for the sponsor's household size.

(6-1-94)

e. Step 5. Subtract the Food Stamp gross monthly income limit for the sponsor's household from the remainder in Step 2.

f. Step 6. The income remaining after Step 5 is deemed to the legal noncitizen household.

(4-1-97)T

g. Step 7. The sponsor may actually pay the legal noncitizen more income than deemed in Step 6. Any income the sponsor pays the legal noncitizen, exceeding the income deemed in Step 6, is also counted for Food Stamps.

(4-1-97)T

h. Step 8. If the legal noncitizen can verify his sponsor sponsors other legal noncitizens, divide the deemed income by the number of legal noncitizens applying for or getting Food Stamps. Deem all income and resources to the legal noncitizen until verification is provided.

(4-1-97)T

02. Deeming Resources From a Sponsor Who Signed an Affidavit of Support Between February 1, 1983 and March 31, 1997.

(4-1-97)T

(7-1-97)T

b. Step 2. Subtract two thousand dollars ($2,000) from the total resources of the sponsor and spouse computed in Step 1.

- c. Step 3. The resources remaining after Step 2 are deemed to the legal noncitizen household. (4-1-97)T
- d. Step 4. If the legal noncitizen can verify his sponsor sponsors other legal noncitizens, divide the deemed resources by the number of legal noncitizens applying for or getting Food Stamps. Deem all income and resources to the legal noncitizen until verification is provided. (4-1-97)T

755. DEEMING INCOME AND RESOURCES FROM A LEGAL NONCITIZEN'S NEW SPONSOR.

If the legal noncitizen reports a change in sponsors, compute the deemed income and resources again, using information from the new sponsor. The method of deeming used depends on the type of affidavit signed by the sponsor. The new sponsor's income and resources will be deemed for the remainder of the period specified in Section 753. (4-1-97)T

756. SPONSORED LEGAL NONCITIZENS EXEMPT FROM DEEMING.

A sponsored legal noncitizen is exempt from deeming if the legal noncitizen is a member of the sponsor's Food Stamp household. A sponsored legal noncitizen is exempt from deeming, if the sponsor has a separate Food Stamp household and the legal noncitizen is a member of another Food Stamp household. A sponsored legal noncitizen is exempt from deeming if the legal noncitizen is sponsored by an organization or group. A sponsored legal noncitizen is exempt from deeming if the legal noncitizen is not required to have a sponsor under the Immigration and Nationality Act including but not limited to a refugee, asylee, parolee or Cuban or Haitian entrant. (4-1-97)T

757. SPONSORED LEGAL NONCITIZEN'S RESPONSIBILITY.

The legal noncitizen and legal noncitizen's spouse are responsible for getting the sponsor to cooperate with the Department in determining Food Stamp eligibility. The legal noncitizen and legal noncitizen's spouse are responsible for providing the information and proof to determine the income and resources of the sponsor and sponsor's spouse. The legal noncitizen and legal noncitizen's spouse are responsible for providing information and proof to determine if the sponsor sponsors other legal noncitizens and how many. (4-1-97)T

If the proof is later provided, act on the information as a reported change in household composition. (4-1-97)T

760. OVERISSUANCE DUE TO INCORRECT SPONSOR DATA.

The sponsor who signed an affidavit of support between February 1, 1983 and March 31, 1997 and sponsored legal noncitizen are both liable for repayment of overissuances caused by incorrect sponsor data, unless the sponsor had good cause. Good cause exists unless the sponsor gives false statements or willfully withholds data. The sponsor may have a fair hearing to contest the fault and liability. If the sponsor had good cause or was without fault for incorrect data, the legal noncitizen's household is solely liable for the overissuance repayment. If the sponsor did not have good cause, start a claim against the sponsor, the legal noncitizen's household, or both. Claims may be started against both parties at the same time. Start a claim against the party most likely to repay the claim first. If the first party fails to respond to the demand letter within twenty (20) days, start a claim against the other party. Identify the claim as either an IHE or IPV claim. (4-1-97)T

The demand letter must tell the sponsor he will not have to repay, if he can show he did not give false statements or withhold information about his circumstances. Collection action may be stopped if documentation is obtained showing the sponsor cannot be located. Collection action may be stopped if the cost of collection exceeds the amount to be recovered. If the sponsor responds to the demand letter, collect a lump sum cash payment if the sponsor can pay the claim at one (1) time. If the sponsor cannot pay by lump sum, negotiate a monthly repayment schedule. Sponsor repayments must be recorded in the case file and identified as either an IHE or IPV claim. (4-1-97)T

762. COLLECTING CLAIMS AGAINST SPONSORED LEGAL NONCITIZENS.

Collect claims against sponsored legal noncitizens with a sponsor who signed an affidavit of support between February 1, 1983 and March 31, 1997 using procedures listed below. Take action to collect, whether or not the legal noncitizen household currently gets Food Stamps.

(4-1-97)T

(4-1-97)T

02. IPV Determined. An IPV results if information provided about the sponsor or sponsor's spouse was incorrect because the household concealed or provided false information. Start a claim against the legal noncitizen's household.

(4-1-97)T

03. IPV Referral. Pursue an IPV if enough evidence exists to show information from the sponsor or the sponsor's spouse was false or concealed through misrepresentation or willful withholding by the legal noncitizen. Handle the claim as an IHE until the IPV decision is made. Start a claim against the legal noncitizen's household.

(4-1-97)T
