01. Designated Individual Member of Agency Staff. A designated individual member of agency staff is any of the following: (1-3-94)

a. Any member of the staff of the Department of Agriculture designated in a legal notice to receive written comments in a rule-making action; or (1-3-94)

b. Any member of the staff of the Department of Agriculture appointed by the director to preside at a hearing; or (1-3-94)

005. REFERENCE TO AGENCY.

Reference to the agency in these Rules includes the agency director, board or commission, agency secretary, hearing officer appointed by the agency, or presiding officer, as context requires. Reference to the agency head means to the agency director, board or commission, as context requires, or such other officer designated by the agency head to review recommended or preliminary orders. (1-3-94)

006. LIBERAL CONSTRUCTION.

The rules in this chapter will be liberally construed to secure just, speedy and economical determination of all issues presented to the agency. Unless prohibited by statute, the agency may permit deviation from these rules when it finds that compliance with them is impracticable, unnecessary or not in the public interest. (1-3-94)

007. -- 009. (RESERVED).

010. PRESIDING OFFICERS AND HEARING OFFICERS.

01. Presiding Officer. (1-3-94)

a. Any hearing conducted under these rules shall be conducted by and shall be under the control of the presiding officer. The presiding officer may be the Director of the Department of Agriculture, or any hearing officer appointed by the Director or designated by statute. (1-3-94)

b. One or more members of the agency board, the agency director, or duly appointed hearing officer may preside at a hearing as authorized by statute or rule. When more than one officer sits at a hearing, they may all jointly be presiding officers or may designate one of them to be the presiding officer. (1-3-94)

c. If the presiding officer or any decision maker has a potential conflict of interest as defined in Section 59-703(4), Idaho Code, that officer shall comply with the requirements of the Ethics in Government Act of 1990, Title 59, Chapter 7, Idaho Code (e.g. Sections 59-701 through 59-705, Idaho Code). (1-3-94)

d. Unless required for the disposition of a matter specifically authorized by statute to be done ex parte, a presiding officer serving in a contested case shall not communicate, directly or indirectly, regarding any substantive issue in the contested case with any party, except upon notice and opportunity for all parties to participate in the communication. The presiding officer may communicate ex parte with a party concerning procedural matters (e.g., scheduling). Ex parte communications from members of the general public not associated with any party are not required to be reported by this rule. However, when a presiding officer becomes aware of a written ex parte communication regarding any substantive issue from a party or representative of a party during a contested case, the presiding officer shall place a copy of the communication in the file for the case and distribute a copy of it to all parties of record or order the party providing the written communication to serve a copy of the written communication upon all parties of record. Written communications from a party showing service upon all other parties are not exparte communications. (1-3-94)

02. Appointment of Hearing Officers. A hearing officer is a person other than the agency head appointed to hear contested cases on behalf of the agency. Unless otherwise provided by statute or rule, hearing officers may be employees of the agency or independent contractors. Hearing officers may be (but need not be) attorneys. Hearing officers who are not attorneys should ordinarily be persons with technical expertise or experience in issues before the agency. (1-3-94)

03. Hearing Officers Contrasted With Agency Head. Agency heads are not hearing officers, even if they are presiding at contested cases. The term "hearing officer" as used in these rules refers only to officers subordinate to the agency head. (1-3-94)

04. Disqualification of Officers Hearing Contested Cases. Pursuant to Section 67-5252, Idaho Code, any party shall have a right to one (1) disqualification without cause of any person serving or designated to serve as a presiding officer and any party shall have a right to move to disqualify a hearing officer for bias, prejudice, interest, substantial prior involvement in the case other than as a presiding officer, status as an employee of the agency hearing the contested case, lack of professional knowledge in the subject matter of the contested case, or any other cause provided by law or any cause for which a judge is or may be disqualified. Any party may, within fourteen (14) days, petition for the disqualification of a hearing officer after receiving notice that the officer will preside at a contested case or promptly upon discovering facts establishing grounds for disqualification, whichever is later. Any party may assert a blanket disqualification for cause of all employees of the agency hearing the contested case, other than the agency head, without awaiting the designation by a presiding officer. A hearing officer whose disqualification is requested shall determine in writing whether to grant the petition for disqualification, stating facts and reasons for the hearing officer's determination. Disqualification of agency heads, if allowed, will be pursuant to Sections 59-704 and 67-5252(4), Idaho Code. (1-3-94)

05. Scope of Authority of Hearing Officers. Unless the agency otherwise provides, hearing officers have the standard scope of authority, which is: (1-3-94)

Persons, other than the original parties to the proceeding, who are directly and substantially affected by the proceeding, shall secure an order from the agency or presiding officer granting leave to intervene before being allowed to participate; provided, that the granting of leave to intervene or otherwise appear, in any matter or proceeding, shall not be construed to be a finding or determination of the agency that such party will or may be a party aggrieved by any ruling, order or decision of the agency, for purposes of court review or appeal. (1-3-94)

02. Form and Content of Petitions. Petitions for leave to intervene must be in writing and must clearly identify the proceeding in which it is sought to intervene, setting forth the name and address of the petitioner, making a clear and concise statement of the direct and substantial interest of the petitioner in such proceeding, stating the manner in which such petitioner will be affected by such proceeding, outlining the matters relied upon by such petitioner as a basis for the petitioner's request to intervene in such cause, and if affirmative relief is sought, the

All pleadings shall be on paper approximately eight and one-half by eleven (8 1/2 x 11) inches in size, and shall set forth a clear and concise statement of the matters relied upon as a basis for such pleading, together with an appropriate prayer, when relief is sought. (1-3-94)

04. Defective Pleadings-Dismissal. Upon the filing of any pleading, it will be inspected by the agency and if found to be defective or insufficient, the agency, on its own initiative, or on motion of any party, may strike or dismiss such document or require its amendment. (1-3-94)

05. Amendments to Pleadings. A pleading may be amended only by leave of the agency or the presiding officer. (1-3-94)

06. Applications. All pleadings requesting a right or authority from the agency shall be styled "Applications". They must set forth the full name and mailing address of the applicant, and must contain fully the facts on which the application is based, with required exhibits, and a request for the order, authorization, permission, certificate or permit desired and a reference to the particular provision of law requiring or providing the same. Answers shall be filed with the agency within the time limit prescribed in Subsection 300.05. Answers shall be so drawn as to advise the agency and all parties of record fully and completely of the nature of such material allegations of the complaint or petition. Matters alleged by way of cross complaint or affirmative defense shall be separately stated and numbered. In case a party fails to answer within the prescribed time, that party shall be deemed to have denied generally the allegations of the complaint or petition, and shall be precluded except with the consent of opposing parties and the agency from setting up any affirmative defense in the proceeding, and the agency may proceed with the matter solely upon the issues set forth in the complaint or petition, or issue a notice of default, or continue the matter to a future date under the provisions of Subsection 400.16. (1-3-94)

10. Motions--Defined--Form and Contents--Time for Filing. (1-3-94)

a. Motions Defined. All other pleadings requesting the agency to take any other action in a contested case, except consent orders or pleadings specifically answering other pleadings, are called "motions." (1-3-94)

Any motion to dismiss, strike or limit an application or claim or appeal, complaint, petition, or protest must be filed before the answer is due or be included in the answer, if the movant is obligated to file an answer. If a motion is directed to an answer, it must be filed within fourteen (14) days after service of the answer. Other motions may be filed at any time upon compliance with Rule 250.11. (1-3-94)

11. Procedure on Prehearing Motions. The presiding officer may consider and decide prehearing motions with or without oral argument or hearing. Unless otherwise provided by the presiding officer, when a motion has been filed, all parties seeking similar substantive or procedural relief must join in the motion or file a similar motion within seven (7) days after receiving the original motion. The party(ies) answering to or responding to the motion(s) will have fourteen (14) days from the time of filing of the last motion or joinder pursuant to the requirements of the previous sentence in which to respond. (1-3-94)

12. Formal Complaints. Formal complaints are those complaints filed under the provisions of the applicable law. Formal complaints must be in writing and shall set forth clearly and concisely the ground of complaint and a statement of the facts. Facts constituting acts or omissions, together with citations, statutes or rules of the agency involved, should be stated, together with the dates on which the acts or omissions occurred. The name of the person complained against must be stated in full, and the address of the complainant, together with the name and address of the complainant's attorney, if any, must appear upon the complaint. (1-3-94)

13. Hearings on Complaints. Formal complaints will be set for hearing at the earliest convenience of the agency, unless notice of satisfaction of the complaint, by answer or otherwise, is received by the agency. (1-3-94)

251. -- 299. (RESERVED).

300. FILING AND SERVICE.

01. Filing of Pleadings. An original and two (2) legible copies of all pleadings shall be filed with the agency. The agency or the presiding officer may direct that a copy of all applications, petitions, complaints and other pleadings designated by the agency be served by the party filing the pleadings on any person whom the agency determines may be affected by the proceedings. (1-3-94)

02. Service Upon Agency. All pleadings, written communications, and documents that are intended to be part of an official record for a decision in a contested case must be filed with the agency. Documents are deemed to be filed when received during office hours, by the legal bureau at the central office of the agency or by the designated individual member of agency staff, and not when mailed, faxed or otherwise sent. (1-3-94)

03. Service by Agency. Service of summons and complaint shall be made in accordance with the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure. The agency may serve all notices, orders, and other documents, by certified mail, return receipt requested, to a party's last known mailing address, or by hand delivery, or by personal service, or by fax during office hours. Service by the agency shall be deemed complete when a true copy of such notice, order, or other document, properly addressed and stamped, is deposited in the United States Mail, or is personally served, or is delivered by hand, or is sent by fax during business hours. (1-3-94)

04. Proof of Service. There shall appear on the original of every pleading filed with the agency proof of service thereof by an acknowledgment of service or the following certificate:

(1-3-94)

05. Time for Filing Answers. Answers to complaints or petitions shall be filed with the agency and service thereof made to parties of record within twenty (20) days after service of said complaint or petition, unless for good cause, the agency or the presiding officer extends the time within which the answer may be made. When an answer is not timely filed under this rule, the presiding officer may issue a notice of default against the respondent pursuant to rule 500.03. (1-3-94)

301. DISCOVERY.

01. Kinds of Discovery. The kinds of discovery recognized and authorized by these rules in contested cases are: (1-3-94)

- a. Depositions; (1-3-94)
- b. Production requests or written interrogatories; (1-3-94)
- c. Requests for admission; (1-3-94)
- d. Subpoenas; and (1-3-94)
- e. Statutory inspection, examination, or investigation. (1-3-94)

02. Rules of Civil Procedure. Unless otherwise provided by statute, rule, order or notice, the scope of discovery, other than statutory inspection, examination, investigation, etc., is governed by the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure (see Idaho Rule of Civil Procedure 26(b)). (1-3-94)

03. When Discovery Authorized. Parties may agree between or among themselves to provide for discovery without reference to an agency's statutes, rules of procedure, or orders. Otherwise no party before the agency is entitled to engage in discovery unless the party moves to compel discovery and the agency issues an order directing that the discovery be answered. The presiding officer shall provide a schedule for discovery in the order compelling discovery, but the order compelling and scheduling discovery need not conform to the timetables of the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure. The agency or agency staff may conduct statutory inspection, examination, or investigation at any time without filing a motion to compel discovery. (1-3-94)

04. Rights to Discovery Reciprocal. All parties to a proceeding have a right of discovery of all other parties to a proceeding according to Rule 301.03 and to the authorizing statutes and rules. The presiding officer may by order, authorize, or compel necessary discovery authorized by statute or rule. (1-3-94)

05. Depositions. Depositions shall be taken in accordance with the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure for any purpose allowed by statute, the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure, or rule or order of the agency. (1-3-94)

06. Production Requests or Written Interrogatories and Requests for Admission. Production requests or written interrogatories and requests for admission shall be submitted in accordance with the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure for any purpose allowed by statute, the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure, or rule or order of the agency. (1-3-94)

07. Subpoenas. The agency may issue subpoenas upon a party's motion or upon its own initiative. The agency upon motion to quash made promptly, and in any event, before the time to comply with the subpoena, may quash the subpoena, or condition denial of the motion to quash upon reasonable terms. (1-3-94)

08. Statutory Inspection, Examination, Investigation -- Contrasted With Other Discovery. This rule recognizes, but does not enlarge or restrict, an agency's statutory right of inspection, examination or investigation. This statutory right of an agency is independent of and cumulative to any right of discovery in formal proceedings and may be exercised by the agency whether or not a person is party to a formal proceeding before the agency. Information obtained from statutory inspection, examination or investigation may be used in formal proceedings or for any other purpose, except as restricted by statute or rule. The rights of deposition, production request or written interrogatory, request for admission, and subpoena, can be used by parties only in connection with formal proceedings before the agency. (1-3-94)

09. Answers to Production Requests or Written Interrogatories and to Requests for Admission. Answers to production requests or written interrogatories and to requests for admission shall be filed or served as provided by the order compelling discovery. Answers shall conform to the requirements of the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure. The order compelling discovery may provide that voluminous answers to requests need not be served so long as they are made available for inspection and copying under reasonable terms. (1-3-94)

10. Filing and Service of Discovery-Related Documents. Notices of deposition, cover letters stating that production requests, written interrogatories or requests for admission have been served, cover letters stating answers to production requests, written interrogatories, or requests for admission have been served or are available for inspection under Rule 301.09, and objections to discovery shall be filed and served as provided in the order compelling discovery. (1-3-94)

11. Prepared Testimony and Exhibits. Order, notice or rule may require a party or parties to file before hearing and to serve on all other parties prepared expert testimony and exhibits to be presented at hearing. (1-3-94)

12. Sanctions for Failure to Obey Order Compelling Discovery. The agency may impose all sanctions recognized by statute or rules for failure to comply with an order compelling discovery. (1-3-94)

13. Protective Orders. As authorized by statute or rule, the agency may issue protective orders limiting access to information revealed, requested or obtained during settlement negotiations, discovery, or hearing. (1-3-94)

302. INFORMAL PROCEDURE.

01. Informal Resolution Authorized. These rules encourage the use of informal proceedings to settle or determine contested cases. Unless prohibited by statute, the agency may provide for the use of informal procedure at any stage of a contested case. Informal procedure may include individual contacts by or with the agency staff asking for information, advice or assistance from the agency staff, or proposing informal resolution of formal disputes under the law administered by the agency. Informal procedures may be conducted in writing, by telephone or television, or in person, at the discretion of the agency. (1-3-94)

02. Informal Proceedings Do Not Exhaust Administrative Remedies. Unless all parties agree to the contrary in writing, informal proceedings do not substitute for formal proceedings and do not exhaust administrative remedies, and informal proceedings are conducted without prejudice to the right of the parties to present the matter formally to the agency. Settlement offers made in the course of informal proceedings are confidential and shall not be included in the agency record of a later formal proceeding. (1-3-94)

303. -- 349. (RESERVED).

350. PREHEARING CONFERENCES.

01. General. The agency may, upon written notice to all interested parties, hold a prehearing conference for the purposes of formulating or simplifying the issues, obtaining admissions of fact and documents, arranging for the exchange of proposed exhibits or prepared expert testimony, limiting the number of witnesses, and determining procedure at the hearing, and other matters which may expedite the orderly conduct and disposition of the issues. (1-3-94)

02. Action Taken. After the prehearing conference, the presiding officer shall enter an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for hearing to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of the parties; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the hearing to prevent injustice. (1-3-94)

03. Recessing Hearing for Conference. In any proceeding the presiding officer may, in the officer's discretion, call all parties together for a conference prior to the taking of testimony, or may recess the hearing for such conference, with the view of carrying out the purpose of this rule. The presiding officer shall state on the record the results of such conference. (1-3-94)

351. -- 399. (RESERVED).

400. HEARINGS.

01. Place and Time. Notice of the place, date and hour of the hearing will be served at least twenty (20) days before the time set therefor, unless the agency shall find that public necessity requires the hearing to be held at an earlier date. Hearings will be held at the central office of the agency unless otherwise determined by the agency. (1-3-94)

02. Failure to Appear.
