04. Table 306 - Deeming Income From Stepparent, Nonparent Caretaker, and Non-Citizen Parent.

TABLE 306 - DEEMING INCOME FROM STEPPARENT, NON-PARENT CARETAKER AND NON-CITIZEN PARENT
STEP	ACTION
Step 1.	Subtract a ninety dollar ($90) work disregard from the total monthly earned income.
Step 2.	Add the remaining earned income and unearned income to arrive at the total monthly income.
Step 3.	Subtract child support payments made by a stepparent, non-parent caretaker or non-citizen parent from total monthly income in Step 2.
Step 4.	Subtract payments made to a dependent not residing in the home from income in Step 3. The dependent must be claimed for income tax purposes before the payments can be subtracted. The amount remaining after the subtraction of the disregards is the net income.
Step 5.	Subtract the Need Standard for the stepparent, non-parent caretaker or non-citizen parent and their dependent children from the net income in Step 4. The difference is the income deemed to the Medicaid family unit.

(3-30-01)

307. -- 308. (RESERVED).

309. DETERMINING RESOURCE ELIGIBILITY.

The following information is required to determine a participant's resource eligibility: (4-6-05)

01. Countable Resources. The value of the participant's calculated countable resources is compared to the resource limit for the appropriate Health Care Assistance coverage group. (4-6-05)

02. Initial Eligibility. For initial eligibility the value of their countable resources is determined as of the application date. (4-6-05)

03. Excess Countable Resources. Excess countable resources anticipated at any time during an upcoming month, affects the entire month's eligibility. (4-6-05)

310. RESOURCE LIMITS.

The resource limit for AFDC-related coverage groups is one thousand dollars ($1,000). The resource limit for FPG-related coverage groups is five thousand dollars ($5,000). (4-6-05)

311. RESOURCE DEFINITION.

Resources are liquid assets, vehicles, and real property with a cash value upon disposition. Resources are available when the participant has the legal right to dispose of the resource and can do so in a reasonable length of time. (7-1-99)

312. LIQUID ASSETS.

Liquid assets include such things as cash, bank accounts, proceeds from the sale of a resource, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, promissory notes, mortgages, tax refunds, settlement of damage claims, trust funds, and other financial instruments that can be converted into cash. (3-30-01)

313. EQUITY VALUE OF RESOURCES.

Resources are counted according to their equity value. This is the value of the resource after all liens, mortgages and other encumbrances against the resource are subtracted. (7-1-98)

314. VEHICLES.

For both AFDC-related and FPG-related Medicaid coverage groups, one (1) vehicle, regardless of value, is excluded. In two (2) parent families, a second vehicle used for medical transportation, or seeking or retaining employment, is also excluded. The equity value of each additional vehicle, licensed or unlicensed, is a resource. The value of special equipment for the use or transportation of a disabled person is not counted when determining the equity value. (3-30-01)

315. BANK ACCOUNTS.

Money deposited to a bank account by the participant is a countable resource. Income not spent in the month received is counted as a resource the next month. (7-1-99)

316. (RESERVED).

317. SALES CONTRACTS.

A mortgage, promissory note, or other form of sales contract, that can be sold is a resource. (7-1-98)

318. RESOURCES EXCLUDED BY FEDERAL LAW.

A resource excluded by federal law is not counted in determining the resource amount available to the participant. (7-1-98)

319. -- 329. (RESERVED).

330. CONDITIONAL BENEFITS.

A participant ineligible due solely to excess nonliquid resources can receive Medicaid. Nonliquid resources are noncash resources not convertible to cash within twenty (20) working days. The participant must meet two (2) conditions. First, his countable liquid resources must not exceed three (3) times his Medicaid income limit. Second, the participant agrees, in writing, to sell excess nonliquid resources at their fair market value, within three (3) months. The value of excess real property is not counted as a resource, as long as the participant makes reasonable efforts to sell the property at its fair market value, and his reasonable efforts to sell are not successful. This exclusion is also used to compute deemed resources. (4-5-00)

01. Conditional Benefits Payments Disposal/Exclusion Period. The disposal period and exclusion period for excess nonliquid resources begins on the date the participant signs the Agreement to Sell Property. The disposal and exclusion periods can begin earlier for a participant who met all requirements to receive conditional benefits before his first opportunity to sign the Agreement to Sell Property. The participant must sign the Agreement to Sell Property before his application is approved. (4-5-00)

02. Time Period for Disposal of Excess Personal Property. The disposal period for excess nonliquid personal property is three (3) months. One (1) three (3) month extension, for sale of personal property, is allowed when good cause exists. (4-5-00)

03. Good Cause for Not Making Efforts to Sell Excess Property. The participant has good cause for not making efforts to sell property, when circumstances beyond his control prevent his taking the required actions. (3-30-01)

04. Participant Does Not Have Good Cause. If the participant does not have good cause for not making efforts to sell the property, the value of the property is counted as a resource back to the beginning of the conditional benefits period. If the resource value exceeds the limits, Medicaid is closed. Advance notice of closure is required. (3-30-01)

331. -- 344. (RESERVED).

345. DETERMINING ELIGIBILITY FOR RETROACTIVE MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.

The participant's countable income is calculated for each retroactive month using actual, not converted income for that month to a maximum of three (3) months. Determine eligibility for each retroactive month separately. Retroactive medical assistance is limited to Title XIX Medicaid and CHIP A coverage groups. (4-6-05)

346. DETERMINING INCOME ELIGIBILITY FOR THE MONTH OF APPLICATION.

The individual's countable income for the application month is compared against the income limits for the appropriate Health Care Assistance program. (4-6-05)

347. DETERMINING AVAILABLE INCOME.

Income from financially responsible household members is considered available to the participant. Income is available when the participant has a legal interest in a liquidated sum. Income is available when action can be taken by the individual to obtain or use it. The participant must take all necessary steps to obtain program benefits for which he may be eligible. This includes RSDI, unemployment insurance, and worker's compensation. (4-6-05)

348. DETERMINING INCOME ELIGIBILITY.

Income from financially responsible household members is counted to determine an individual's eligibility. The individual's countable income must be calculated using actual income already received and anticipated income that can reasonably be expected. The individual's calculated income is used to determine eligibility. The appropriate Health Care Assistance coverage group is determined by comparing the income against the income limit. (4-6-05)

349. CALCULATING A FULL MONTH'S INCOME USING ACTUAL AND PROJECTED INCOME.

The participant's monthly income is calculated using actual income and anticipated income. Anticipated income is income the participant is reasonably expected to receive. The estimate of anticipated income must be based on the best available information. (4-6-05)

01. Full Month's Income Anticipated. If no changes are anticipated, the actual income received in the past thirty (30) days is used to calculate a full month's income. If changes are anticipated, the full month's income is projected with the new information. (4-6-05)

02. Full Month's Income Not Anticipated. If a full month's income is not anticipated, the actual income expected for the month is counted. If the actual income is unknown anticipated income for that month is projected. (4-6-05)

03. Seasonal Income. If income changes seasonally, consider the household's income from the previous season and any anticipated pay changes to calculate the individual's average monthly income. (4-6-05)

04. Fluctuating Income. When income fluctuates each pay period but the rate of pay remains the same, average the income from the past thirty (30) days to determine the average anticipated pay period amount. Convert the average anticipated pay period amount to a full month's income. (4-6-05)

05. Income Paid As Salary. Count income paid as salary at the expected monthly salary rate. Do not count salary at an hourly rate. (3-30-01)

06. Income Paid Under Contract. The earned income of an individual paid on a contractual basis is prorated over the term of the contract. (4-6-05)

350. CONVERTING INCOME TO A MONTHLY AMOUNT.

If a full month's income is expected, but income is received more often than monthly, convert the income to a monthly amount using the appropriate formula in Subsections 350.01 through 350.03. (3-30-01)

- 01. Weekly Income. Multiply weekly income by four point three (4.3). (3-30-01)
- 02. Bi-Weekly Income. Multiply bi-weekly income by two point one five (2.15). (3-30-01)
- 03. Semi-Monthly Income. Multiply semi-monthly income by two (2). (3-30-01)

351. EARNED INCOME.

Earned income is derived from labor or active participation in a business. The income can be wages, tips, salary, commissions, advances, jury duty payments, sale of plasma, vacation pay, bonuses, living allowance or stipend from AmeriCorps and Senior Corps, or profit from employment or self-employment. Earned income is gross earnings before deductions for taxes or any other purposes. It is counted as income when it is received, or would have been received except for the decision of the participant to postpone receipt. Earnings over a period of time and paid at one (1) time, such as the sale of farm crops, livestock, or poultry are annualized and self-employment expenses deducted. (3-30-01)

352. SELF-EMPLOYMENT EARNED INCOME.

Income from self-employment is treated as earned income. Compute self-employment income using Table 352.06. (3-30-01)

01. Annualize Self-Employment Income. Annualize the income if the participant has been self employed for more than one (1) year. (4-5-00)

02. Average Self-Employment Income. Average the income over the period of time the business has been operating if the participant has been self employed for less than one (1) year. (4-5-00)

03. Annualized or Averaged Income Not Accurate. If the annualized or averaged income does not reflect the participant's current or projected income from his business, anticipate self employment income and expenses. (4-5-00)

04. Allowable Costs of Producing the Self-Employment Income. Allowable costs of producing the self-employment income include: (4-5-00)

- a. The cost of labor paid to persons not in the home. (4-5-00)
- b. The cost of stock. (4-5-00)
- c. The cost of material. (4-5-00)
- d. The cost for rent and utilities, advertising, shipping and legal fees. (4-5-00)
- e. The cost of seed and fertilizer. (4-5-00)
- f. Interest paid to purchase income-producing property, including real estate. (4-5-00)
- g. Insurance premiums. (4-5-00)
- h. Taxes paid on income-producing property. (4-5-00)
- i. Transportation, when a vehicle is an integral part of business activity. (4-5-00)

05. Non-Allowable Costs of Producing the Self-Employment Income. The non-allowable costs of producing the self-employment income are: (4-5-00)

- a. Payments on the principal of the purchase price of income-producing real estate and capital assets, equipment, machinery, and other durable goods. (4-5-00)

- b. Net losses from previous periods. (4-5-00)
 - c. Federal, State, and local income taxes. (4-5-00)
 - d. Money set aside for retirement. (4-5-00)
 - e. Work-related personal expenses such as transportation to and from work. (4-5-00)
 - f. Depreciation. (4-5-00)
- 06. Computing Self-Employment Income.
