203. APPLICATIONS.

01. Application Forms. Applications shall include a completed application form in the format provided by the Commission for the applicable program, produced on eight and one-half inch by eleven inch (8½" x 11") paper and typed, reproduced on a computer, or neatly handwritten. The font or typeface must be at least twelve (12) point. Application forms may include questions requiring narrative answers and a proposed budget. Application forms shall not exceed the page limit for the program specified on the application form. The Commission may decline to consider pages in excess of the page limit. (4-6-05)

02. Submission. Applications shall be hand delivered to the Commission or sent to the Commission by the United States mail or other courier or delivery service. The Commission will not accept applications or supporting materials submitted by facsimile transmission or electronically. The Commission will accept applications for a program for a period beginning one (1) month prior to the next application deadline for the program and concluding on the application deadline. (4-6-05)

03. Ownership and Return of Applications. Upon submission, applications shall become the property of the Commission. At the request of the applicant, the Commission will return work samples. The return of work samples shall be at the risk and expense of the applicant. The Commission may require pre-payment of packing and shipping costs for the return of work samples. (4-6-05)

04. Work Samples and Supporting Materials. Each application shall include the work samples and supporting materials specified in these rules for the applicable program. (4-6-05)

a. Work samples shall be no more than five (5) years old. (4-6-05)

b. Applicants shall not send original work samples or master copies of work samples. (4-6-05)

c. Requirements for work samples are as follows: (4-6-05)

i. Slides. Applicants must submit no more than ten (10) two inch by two inch (2" x 2") slides. No more than two (2) detail shots may be included in slide submissions. Slides must be submitted in a plastic sheet, numbered one (1) to ten (10) in order of presentation, and labeled with the applicant's name, title, medium, dimensions, and date of the work. Applicants should place a red dot on the lower front left corner of the slide to indicate the placement of the slide. Applicants must submit a slide list containing the applicant's name, title, medium, dimensions, and date of the work. Applicants may include comments about each slide on the slide list. (4-6-05)

ii. Videotapes. Applicants must submit no more than two (2) properly cued videotapes. Unless approved by the Commission in writing, Videotapes shall be in VHS format. Each videotape cassette shall be labeled with the applicant's name, title of the work, and the date written, produced, or performed. Videotapes must be accompanied by an information list including the applicant's name, title of the work, the date written, produced, or performed, a description of the work sample, an explanation of what the Commission is seeing, and the applicant's responsibilities in the work. (4-6-05)

iii. Audiotapes and Compact Disks. Applicants must submit no more than two (2) properly cued audiotapes or compact disks. If applicable, applicants must indicate the track(s) to be reviewed by the Commission on each compact disk or audiotape. Audiotapes or compact disks must be labeled with the applicant's name, title of the work, and the date of the work. Audiotapes or compact disks must be accompanied by an information list including the applicant's name, title of the work, the date of the work, a description of the work, and the applicant's responsibilities in the work. (4-6-05)

iv. Manuscripts. Manuscripts must specify the completion date of the work. Applicants shall limit fiction and nonfiction work samples to three (3) short works of no more than twenty (20) pages or two (2) excerpts from larger works of not more than twenty (20) pages. Poetry work samples must be no more than fifteen (15) pages. Poems of less than one (1) page in length must be printed one (1) poem to a page. Manuscripts must be produced on eight and one-half inch by eleven inch (8½" X 11") paper and typed, reproduced on a computer, or neatly handwritten. The font or typeface must be at least twelve (12) point. (4-6-05)

05. Resumes. Resumes shall be no longer than two (2) pages and describe the applicant's professional development as an artist or arts administrator. Resumes must be produced on eight and one-half inch by eleven inch (8½" X 11") paper and typed, reproduced on a computer, or neatly handwritten. The font or typeface must be at least twelve-point (12). Resumes may contain academic training, publications, honors and awards, locations of exhibitions or performances, or a short personal biography concerning training in a traditional art. (4-6-05)

06. Artist Statements. Artist statements shall be no longer than one (1) page and must be produced on eight and one-half inch by eleven inch (8½" X 11") paper and typed, reproduced on a computer, or neatly handwritten. The font or typeface must be at least twelve (12) point. An artist statement should discuss the purpose of the work and provide the reader with a personal perspective of the artist concerning the work. (4-6-05)

07. Publication, Performance, and Production Information. Publication, performance, or production information shall be restricted to the applicant's resume. (4-6-05)

08. Matching Contributions. At the request of the Commission, the applicant shall provide documentation of matching contributions for Commission review. Contributions of services must be uncompensated and, if the applicant is an organization, shall not include the services of the applicant's board members. In-kind contributions must be valued at the reasonable rate for the services or property provided to the applicant in the applicant's community. If cash contributions are raised through fund-raising activities or donations from individuals, private foundations, or private companies, the applicant must identify the source of the cash contribution and maintain documentation substantiating the source of the cash contribution. (4-6-05)

204. DISQUALIFICATION.

The Commission may disqualify an applicant for any one (1) of the following: (4-6-05)

01. Non-Compliance with Rules. Failure to satisfy the requirements of these rules. (4-6-05)

02. Application Information, Samples, and Supporting Materials. Failure to provide information requested on the application form, to submit work samples or other supporting materials required by these rules, or to sign the application. (4-6-05)

03. Prior Non-Compliance. Failure to comply with the terms and conditions of a prior grant to the applicant by the Commission. (4-6-05)

205. PROGRAM GRANTS AND AWARD AMOUNTS.

Program grants and awards are subject to funds availability and may be awarded in any amount at the discretion of the Commission. The Commission may decline to accept applications or to issue an award or grant for any program due to a lack of funding. At the discretion of the Commission, a recipient may receive travel expense reimbursement. (4-6-05)

206. FINAL REPORTS.

Recipients must submit a final report to the Commission no later than the earlier of sixty (60) days following completion of the project or the last day of the final fiscal year of the award term. (4-6-05)

207. DELEGATION.

The Commission may delegate its roles, responsibilities, or duties under these rules to Commission staff, artists, or community volunteers including, but not limited to, the review of program applications. (4-6-05)

208. RECONSIDERATION OF APPLICATIONS.

Applicants may request reconsideration of an application within thirty (30) days of a program grant or award notification issued by the Commission. Requests for reconsideration must be in writing and filed with the executive director of the Commission at the Commission's offices. The Commission considers requests for reconsideration where the applicant demonstrates a misinterpretation or misunderstanding of the application, work samples, or supporting materials. The Commission will not consider a request for reconsideration based upon incomplete or incorrect applications, work samples, or supporting materials. (4-6-05)

300. PROGRAMS SUPPORTING INDIVIDUALS.

The commission administers the programs for individuals or collaborations of individuals set forth in Sections 301 through 304 of these rules. (4-6-05)

301. QUICKFUNDS.

QuickFund$ provides grants to support new or exemplary arts projects, activities, or professional development for individuals working in all disciplines and for the professional growth of arts administrators. QuickFund$ grants are available to individuals for professional development and QuickProjects. (4-6-05)

01. QuickFund$ - Professional Development. QuickFund$ for professional development provides reimbursement to artists for gatherings where they will teach or learn from their peers and to arts administrators for attending a conference, seminar, workshop, or other form of career advancement training. The Commission will not accept QuickFund$ for professional development applications: (4-6-05)

a. For the same event or opportunity from more than one (1) member or staff of a single organization with a budget over fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). (4-6-05)

b. For the same event or opportunity from more than two (2) members or staff of a single organization with a budget under fifty thousand dollars ($50,000). (4-6-05)

c. For attendance at the same opportunity or event that was the subject of award to the applicant in the prior fiscal year. (4-6-05)

d. From an applicant who has received a QuickFund$ grant in the same fiscal year. (4-6-05)

02. QuickFund$ - QuickProjects. QuickProjects provides support for activities that allow an applicant to develop significant and specific projects or new works that will be shared with the public. (4-6-05)

03. QuickFund$ - Evaluation Criteria. QuickFund$ grant applications for individuals are evaluated on a point scale with a total of one hundred (100) points. (4-6-05)

a. Artistic Quality. A maximum of fifty (50) points are awarded for artistic quality. Artistic quality is evaluated as follows: (4-6-05)

i. For artists, evaluation of artistic quality is based upon the skill demonstrated by the work samples submitted by the applicant and whether the project, purpose, or goal of the applicant is a logical extension of the applicant's previous work or aesthetic interest. (4-6-05)

ii. For arts administrators, evaluation of artistic quality is based upon whether the applicant's past work history indicates professional experiences with respected arts organizations or projects, or whether the organization for which the applicant works produces programs of high artistic quality that are appropriate for the organization's stated mission. (4-6-05)

b. Feasibility. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for feasibility. The evaluation of feasibility is based upon whether the applicant's ability and plan demonstrates that the applicant can realistically accomplish the project or activity and whether the budget is clear and correlates with the applicant's description of the project or activity. (4-6-05)

c. Artistic Growth. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for artistic growth. The evaluation of artistic growth is based upon whether the opportunity has the potential to significantly affect or enhance the applicant's ability, career, artistic development, technique, or managerial skills. Where appropriate, the evaluation considers whether there the opportunity includes the public, such as with an exhibition, performance, reading, or demonstration. (4-6-05)

d. Preferences. The Commission may give preference to applicants who have not previously received funds through a Commission program. (4-6-05)

04. QuickFund$ - Matching Contributions. Applicants for a QuickProjects grants must provide Cash contributions equaling one-third (1/3) of the requested funds. Applicants for professional development must provide cash contributions equaling the requested funds. (4-6-05)

the Writer in Residence appointment is the highest recognition of achievements in literature and the largest financial award accorded an Idaho writer by the state of Idaho. (4-6-05)

01. Writer in Residence - Recipient Obligations. Recipients of a Writer in Residence appointment shall give twelve (12) public readings throughout the state of Idaho during the appointment term. Eight (8) public readings shall be in communities with populations of fewer than twenty-five thousand (25,000) residents. The public readings shall be conducted at regular intervals, approved by the Commission, during the term of the appointment. In its discretion, the Commission may require the recipient to give up to three (3) additional readings at special public events. (4-6-05)

02. Writer in Residence - Limitations on Award. The Commission will not recommend applicants with two (2) prior Writer in Residence appointments for subsequent appointment to Writer in Residence. The Commission will not award a Literature Fellowship to applicants who have previously received a Writer in Residence appointment. (4-6-05)

03. Writer in Residence - Evaluation Criteria. Writer in Residence applications are evaluated on a points scale with a total of one hundred (100) points. (4-6-05)

a. Literary Excellence. A maximum of sixty (60) points are awarded for literary excellence. The evaluation of literary excellence is based upon the originality, distinguished consistency, and preeminent quality of the applicant's work. (4-6-05)

b. Past Work and Contributions to Literature. A maximum of twenty (20) points are awarded based upon the quality of the applicant's past work and the applicant's contributions to Literature. (4-6-05)

c. Effectiveness of Oral Reading. A maximum of twenty (20) points are awarded for the effectiveness of the applicant's oral reading. (4-6-05)

04. Writer in Residence - Coordination with Fellowships. Applicants may apply for both the Writer in Residence program and the Fellowship program on one (1) application. If selected for award under both programs, the applicant shall accept only one (1) program award. (4-6-05)

05. Writer in Residence - Award and Term. The Commission submits recommended appointments under the Writer in Residence program to the Governor. Appointments to Writer in Residence are made in the sole discretion of the Governor. The term of a Writer in Residence appointment is three (3) years beginning with the date of appointment specified in the announcement of award by the Commission. (4-6-05)

06. Writer in Residence - Application Requirements. The Commission reviews applications for the Writer in Residence program anonymously. Notwithstanding the requirements for work samples and supporting materials in these rules, applicants shall follow the directions contained in the application form for preserving the applicant's anonymity. Applicants for the Writer in Residence program shall submit an application form, a resume, manuscripts, and an audiotape or compact disk of the applicant's oral reading. (4-6-05)

07. Writer in Residence - Application Deadline. Writer in Residence applications must be postmarked or hand delivered to the Commission on or before the last business day of January. (4-6-05)

304. TRADITIONAL ARTS APPRENTICESHIPS.

The Traditional Arts Apprenticeships program supports a learning partnership between a master and an apprentice. (4-6-05)

01. Traditional Arts Apprenticeships - Funding Limitations and Requirements. (4-6-05)

a. The traditional art practiced by the master must represent a shared cultural tradition of the apprentice. (4-6-05)

b. If the apprentice is under eighteen (18) years of age, the traditional art must traditionally be taught or passed down to persons under eighteen (18) years of age. (4-6-05)

c. A master may train more than one (1) apprentice where the traditional art is traditionally practiced by a group or taught or passed down in a group. (4-6-05)

d. A master may reside outside of Idaho if the ethnic or cultural group represented by the traditional art extends beyond Idaho. (4-6-05)

02. Traditional Arts Apprenticeships - Evaluation Criteria. Traditional arts apprenticeship applications are evaluated on a points scale with a total of one hundred (100) points. (4-6-05)

a. Quality. A maximum of fifty (50) points are awarded for quality. The evaluation of quality is based upon the community recognition accorded to the master, the benefit to the applicant from working with the master, and the commitment of the applicant to advancing his skills in the traditional art and to carrying on the traditional art. (4-6-05)

b. Community. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for community. The evaluation of community is based upon whether the master and the applicant share the same cultural background, whether the traditional art is significant to the cultural or ethnic community from which it arises and to the broader community, and whether the traditional art's practice is endangered or there are few artists practicing the traditional art. (4-6-05)

c. Feasibility. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for feasibility. The evaluation of feasibility is based upon whether the goals for the apprenticeship are clear, whether the applicant has submitted a clear, complete, and appropriate budget, and whether the work plan provides an appropriate time for interaction between the applicant and the master. (4-6-05)

d. Preferences. The Commission may give preference to traditional art forms with few practicing artists. (4-6-05)

03. Traditional Arts Apprenticeships - Length of Apprenticeships. The length of an apprenticeship under the traditional arts apprenticeships program shall not exceed ten (10) months. The Commission, in its sole discretion, may grant an extension of the length of an apprenticeship upon receipt of a written request submitted prior to the expiration of the length of the originally awarded apprenticeship. (4-6-05)

04. Traditional Arts Apprenticeships - Work Plan. The master and the applicant shall cooperatively develop a work plan for the apprenticeship. The work plan shall include the meeting schedule, meeting locations, and the materials needed for the apprenticeship. The work plan should consider the availability of seasonal materials and the preparation of materials prior to use. (4-6-05)

05. Traditional Arts Apprenticeships - Instructional Fees. Traditional arts apprenticeships awards shall include payment of an hourly instructional fee at a rate determined by the Commission to the master for the number of instructional hours approved by the Commission. (4-6-05)

06. Traditional Arts Apprenticeships - Application Requirements. Applications for traditional arts apprenticeships award shall submit an application form, a work plan, two (2) to three (3) letters of support from community members that describe the applicant's artistic contributions to the community and how the applicant's traditional art relates to the applicant's heritage, work samples appropriate to the applicant, and work samples appropriate to the master. Applicants are also encouraged to submit the master's resume. (4-6-05)

07. Traditional Arts Apprenticeships - Application Deadlines. Traditional arts apprenticeship applications must be postmarked or hand delivered to the Commission on or before the first business day of March. (4-6-05)

400. PROGRAMS SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS.

The Commission administers the programs for organizations set forth in Sections 401 through 405 of these rules.

01. Organizations - Significant Changes. Applicants that experience significant changes in the applicant's staff, programming, or finances following submission of an application and prior to a program award must notify the Commission of the changes in writing. (4-6-05)

02. Organizations - General Evaluation Criteria. The Commission reviews applications for support of organizations using the following general criteria. These general criteria are encompassed within the point totals and specific evaluation criteria of each program. Applicants should include substantiation for each of the criteria in the application. (4-6-05)

a. Community support through fund-raising or other community financial support. (4-6-05)

b. Accuracy of the budget submitted with the application. (4-6-05)

c. Involvement of Idaho artists and arts organizations. Use of out-of-state resources is permitted if the applicant demonstrates that the resources are not available with Idaho or if their use supplements the resources available locally. (4-6-05)

d. The applicant's financial need and access to financial and artistic resources. (4-6-05)

e. The applicant's commitment to make the arts accessible to all members of the public. Accessibility includes the ability of persons with special needs, ethnic groups, occupational groups, senior citizens, and young audiences to access the arts. Accessibility also includes consideration of the location and ease of use of facilities, content of the activities, and the planning process. Applicants must include documentation showing that the applicant invited pertinent cultural and community groups to participate in the applicant's planning process. (4-6-05)

f. The applicant's commitment to fairly compensating artists. (4-6-05)

g. The applicant's use of admission fees, where applicable, to provide financial support for the subject of the application. The Commission encourages the use of admission fees. (4-6-05)

03. Acquisition or Commission of Works. Applicants seeking funding for the acquisition of works of art or the commission of new works of art must meet the following criteria. The applicant must: (4-6-05)

a. Maintain a permanent exhibition facility that is open to the public. (4-6-05)

b. Demonstrate excellent management and security practices. (4-6-05)

c. Maintain an ongoing exhibition program or a permanent collection. (4-6-05)

04. College and University Applicants. The Commission will accept applications from college and university applicants if the applicant presents and markets its arts activities to the general public and the subject of the application is supplementary to the applicant's regular curriculum. College and university applicants are not eligible for General Operating Support grants or for Cultural Facilities grants. College and university applicants must provide matching contributions from non-public funds. The Commission will not classify organizations affiliated with a college or university, operating as a separate tax-exempt organization and applying as the separate tax-exempt organization, as a college or university applicant. (4-6-05)

401. QUICKFUND$ FOR ORGANIZATIONS.

QuickFund$ grants provide timely assistance to arts organizations for professional advice or training, pilot arts projects, projects essential to the initial growth of an organization, or new programs. The Commission will not award QuickFund$ grants for programs, events, or aspects of events that occur annually or that exceed the term of the award. QuickFund$ grants are available to organizations for QuickProjects and training and advice. (4-6-05)

01. QuickFund$ - QuickProjects. QuickProjects provides funds for pilot arts projects, projects essential to the initial growth of an organization, or new programs. (4-6-05)

02. QuickFund$ - Training and Advice. Training and advice awards provide funds for management consultancies and artistic consultancies. Management consultancies address aspects of the organization's operations such as fund-raising, technology, marketing, public relations, organizational development, audience development, long-range planning, program development, accessibility planning, and board or financial management. Artistic consultancies address aspects of the organization's arts projects such as voice instruction, lighting design, exhibition design, or conservation studies. (4-6-05)

03. QuickFund$ - Evaluation Criteria. QuickFund$ grant applications from organizations are evaluated on a point scale with a total of one hundred (100) points. Encompassed within the criteria below are the general criteria set forth in Subsection 400.03 of these rules. (4-6-05)

a. Artistic Quality. A maximum of fifty (50) points are awarded for artistic quality. The evaluation of artistic quality is based upon the programs produced by the applicant and the appropriateness of the applicant's projects to the applicant's mission. (4-6-05)

b. Management. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for management. The evaluation of the applicant's management is based upon whether the applicant's resources and the plan for carrying out the subject of the application demonstrate that the applicant can accomplish the project or activity successfully. The evaluation also includes whether the applicant has submitted a clear, complete, and appropriate budget and whether applicants for training and advice awards have clearly identified the purpose and need for the award. (4-6-05)

c. Community Involvement And Access. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for community involvement and access. The evaluation of community involvement and access is based upon the appropriateness and breadth of community involvement in the proposed project or activity and the public's access to the project or activity. (4-6-05)

d. Preferences. The Commission may give preference to applicants whose annual operating budget is less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) and to applicants who have not previously received funds from a Commission program. (4-6-05)

04. QuickFund$ - Matching Contributions. The applicant must provide matching contributions equaling the requested funds. (4-6-05)

05. QuickFund$ - Application Requirements. Applicants for QuickFund$ for organizations shall submit an application form; the resumes of key consultants, artists, or personnel; a list of the current board of directors of the organization with affiliation and contact information; an Internal Revenue Service tax determination letter, if applicable; and work samples reflecting prior projects or as applicable to the project or activity that is the subject of the application. Applicants should also submit no more than five (5) documents supporting the application such as brochures, letters from community partners, or work samples of participating artists. (4-6-05)

06. QuickFund$ - Application Deadlines. QuickFund$ applications must be postmarked or hand delivered to the Commission on or before the first Monday of March, June, September, or December. (4-6-05)

402. CULTURAL FACILITIES GRANTS.

Cultural Facilities Grants encourage local, public, and private support for feasibility studies, renovation or construction of performance, exhibition or artist spaces, purchases of equipment and fixtures for such spaces, and public arts projects. Cultural Facilities Grants are awarded for single-phase projects that can be completed in one (1) year and multi-phase projects where all of the individual phases of the project can be completed over a period that does not exceed five (5) years. The award of funding by the Commission does not guarantee funding for more than one (1) phase of a multi-phase project. (4-6-05)

01. Cultural Facilities Grants - Funding Limitations and Requirements. (4-6-05)

a. Applicants who have received Cultural Facilities Grants for five (5) consecutive fiscal years are ineligible for Cultural Facilities Grants for one (1) fiscal year. (4-6-05)

b. College and university applicants are ineligible for Cultural Facilities Grants. (4-6-05)

c. The Commission will not award a Cultural Facilities Grant for the purchase or maintenance of motorized or non-motorized vehicles. (4-6-05)

d. Construction and renovation using a Cultural Facilities Grant must comply with all federal, state, and local laws including laws governing the access of persons with disabilities, facilities on the National Register of Historic Places, and building, zoning, and other codes. (4-6-05)

e. The Commission will not fund construction and renovation using a Cultural Facilities Grant unless the primary purpose of the construction or renovation is for the presentation of the arts to the public. (4-6-05)

02. Cultural Facilities Grants - Feasibility Studies. Applicants for renovation or construction of facilities must submit a feasibility study. The extent of the feasibility study must match the significance of the project. The feasibility study must contain an analysis of the vision and planning for the project. (4-6-05)

03. Cultural Facilities Grants - Evaluation Criteria. Cultural Facilities Grant applications from organizations are evaluated on a point scale with a total of one hundred (100) points. Encompassed within the criteria below are the general criteria set forth in Subsection 400.03 of these rules. (4-6-05)

a. Planning. A maximum of fifty (50) points are awarded for planning. The evaluation of planning is based upon evidence of community-wide involvement in and need for the project, attention given to maintaining the building's historic integrity, if applicable, the adequacy of the facility to house equipment or fixtures purchased with the funds, and the relevance of equipment or fixtures purchased with the funds to the applicant's mission or programming. (4-6-05)

b. Management. A maximum of fifty (50) points are awarded for management. The evaluation of management is based upon the community impact or support for the project, and whether the applicant's resources and the plan for carrying out the project demonstrates that the applicant can accomplish the project successfully. The evaluation also includes whether the applicant has submitted a clear, complete, and appropriate budget, whether a multi-phase project is on schedule, and the applicant's ability to address the long-term care and conservation of public art acquired during the project. (4-6-05)

04. Cultural Facilities Grants - Matching Contributions. The applicant must provide cash contributions equaling the requested funds. (4-6-05)

05. Cultural Facilities Grants - Application Requirements. (4-6-05)

a. Single-phase Projects. Applicants for single-phase Cultural Facilities Grants shall submit an application form; the resumes of key consultants, artists, or personnel; a list of the current board of directors of the organization with affiliation and contact information; an Internal Revenue Service tax determination letter, if applicable; three (3) current competitive bids for the project; a feasibility study, if applicable; a timeline for the project; blueprints and design drawings, if applicable; an historic significance report, if applicable; evidence of property or facility ownership or lease of the property or facility if the project involves construction or the installation of equipment or fixtures; and proof of adequate liability and fire insurance for the project. Applicants should also submit no more than five (5) documents supporting the application such as brochures, letters from community partners, or work samples of participating artists. Applicants are also encouraged to submit a list of in-kind contributions to the project. (4-6-05)

b. Multi-phase Projects. Applicants for multi-phase Cultural Facilities Grants shall submit the items required of applicants for single-phase Cultural Facilities Grants. The feasibility study shall have been completed in the prior three (3) years. In addition, applicants for multi-phase Cultural Facilities Grants shall submit a progress report based upon the original project plan containing an explanation of any delays or changes to the plan, and the original specifications for bids with a comparative summary sheet. Applicants for public art projects are not required to submit the original specifications for bids for the project. (4-6-05)

06. Cultural Facilities Grants - Application Deadline. Cultural Facilities Grant applications must be postmarked or hand delivered to the Commission on or before the last business day of January. (4-6-05)

403. GENERAL OPERATING SUPPORT GRANTS.

General Operating Support Grants are designed to stabilize the financial base of Idaho's established arts organizations, assist the organization in long-range planning, and aid in expansion of current programs. General Operating Support Grants are awarded as single-year grants or multi-year grants. (4-6-05)

01. General Operating Support Grants - Funding Limitations and Requirements. (4-6-05)

- a. The primary mission of the applicant must be the production, presentation, or support of the arts. (4-6-05)
- b. College and university applicants are ineligible for General Operating Support Grants. (4-6-05)
- c. Applicants for a single year grant must have been operating as a tax-exempt organization for thirty-six (36) months prior to the application deadline. Applicants for a multi-year grant must have been operating as a tax-exempt organization for sixty (60) months prior to the application deadline. (4-6-05)
- d. The responsibility for the applicant's operation must rest with a single individual. If the applicant is seeking a multi-year grant, a full-time paid staff person must hold the responsibility. (4-6-05)
- e. The applicant must employ artists. Applicants for multi-year grants must employ artists on a regular basis and compensate artists according to the prevailing community standard for the artist's discipline. (4-6-05)
- f. Applicants who have failed to reduce or have increased a budget deficit for three (3) consecutive years must demonstrate that the applicant has ended the applicant's most recent fiscal year with a balanced budget and that the applicant has made a significant effort to reduce the deficit during the applicant's current fiscal year. Applicants with a budget deficit must also provide a deficit-elimination schedule approved by the applicant's governing body and acceptable to the Commission. (4-6-05)

02. General Operating Support Grants - Evaluation Criteria. General Operating Support Grant applications are evaluated on a point scale with a total of one hundred (100) points. Encompassed within the criteria below are the general criteria set forth in Subsection 400.03 of these rules. Applicants of similar size and resources are reviewed based upon their gross annual operating budget, staff, longevity, location in a rural or urban county, and the criteria listed below. (4-6-05)

- a. Artistic Quality. A maximum of fifty (50) points are awarded for artistic quality. The evaluation of artistic quality is based upon whether the applicant produces programs of high artistic quality that are appropriate for the organization's stated mission. (4-6-05)
- b. Management. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for management. The evaluation of management is based upon whether the applicant's resources and the plan for using the grant and marketing during the term of the grant demonstrates that the applicant can successfully operate during and after the grant period. The evaluation also includes whether the applicant has submitted a clear, complete, and appropriate budget and whether there is an effective means of evaluating the organization's progress following award of a grant. (4-6-05)
- c. Community Involvement and Access. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for community involvement and access. The evaluation of community involvement and access is based upon the applicant's knowledge of audience and community needs, the applicant's use of local cooperative planning, the extent to which community needs are met by the applicant's plan for use of grant funds, whether the applicant's plan for use of grant funds includes and benefits new, underserved, or nontraditional constituencies, and whether the applicant provides access to its programs to persons with disabilities. (4-6-05)

03. General Operating Support Grants - Matching Contributions. Applicants must provide matching contributions equal to the requested funds. (4-6-05)

04. General Operating Support Grants - Discipline Rotation. Multi-year General Operating Support Grants are awarded to applicants based upon the discipline primarily supported by the applicant in a three (3) year rotation. Beginning with 2005, the rotation cycle is as follows: (4-6-05)

b. Year two (2) - visual arts; and (4-6-05)

c. Year three (3) - performing arts. (4-6-05)

05. General Operating Support Grants - Application Requirements. (4-6-05)

a. Initial Application. Applicants for General Operating Support Grants shall submit an application form; a copy of the applicant's financial statement for the most recent fiscal year of the applicant, with authorizing signatures; the resumes of key consultants and personnel; a list of the current board of directors of the organization with affiliation and contact information; a current two (2) to five (5) year long-range plan; an Internal Revenue Service tax determination letter; work samples reflecting prior and on-going projects; and a list of potential and confirmed programming events for the applicant's current programming season. Applicants should also submit no more than five (5) documents supporting the application such as brochures or letters from community partners. (4-6-05)

b. Interim Applications. Recipients of multi-year General Operating Support Grants shall submit an interim application form on or before the last business day in January of the first and second years of the grant. (4-6-05)

06. General Operating Support Grants - Application Deadlines. General Operating Support Grant applications must be postmarked or hand delivered to the Commission on or before the last business day of January. (4-6-05)

404. PROJECT SUPPORT GRANTS.

Project Support Grants encourage a variety of quality arts activities in the state of Idaho by supporting specific arts associated projects. A project may be a single event or activity or a season of events or activities. (4-6-05)

01. Project Support Grants - Funding Limitations and Requirements. (4-6-05)

a. Applicants may collaborate with one (1) or more organizations on the event or activity. The applicant must control the use of funding from the Project Support Grant, sign the application, and accept all legal and contractual obligations of the program. The Commission will consider the applicant as submitting the application and receiving the program award for the purposes of the exclusions related to the number of applications and program awards in Subsection 202.04 of these rules. (4-6-05)

b. Current applicants for or recipients of a General Operating Support Grant are eligible for a Project Support Grant only if the project is not a part of the recipient's normal season and is not included in the budget submitted with the General Operating Support application. The Commission will evaluate the project proposals of current applicants for or recipients of a General Operating Support Grant as provided in the criteria for artistic quality set forth in Subsection 404.02(a) of this rule. (4-6-05)

02. Project Support Grants - Evaluation Criteria. Project Support Grant applications are evaluated on a point scale with a total of one hundred (100) points. Encompassed within the criteria below are the general criteria set forth in Subsection 400.03 of these rules. (4-6-05)

a. Artistic Quality. A maximum of fifty (50) points are awarded for artistic quality. The evaluation of artistic quality is based upon the artistic merit and rationale for the project, the relationship of the program to the organization's stated mission, and whether an applicant who is a recipient of or has applied for a General Operating Support Grant is proposing a project that is new, risk-taking, serves a non-traditional audience, or is a collaboration between two (2) or more arts organizations or other community development organizations. (4-6-05)

b. Management. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for management. The evaluation of management is based upon whether the applicant's resources and the plan for using the grant and marketing during the term of the grant demonstrates that the applicant can successfully carry out the project. The evaluation also includes whether the applicant has submitted a clear, complete, and appropriate budget and whether there is an effective means of evaluating the project. (4-6-05)

c. Community Involvement And Access. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for community involvement and access. The evaluation of community involvement and access is based upon the applicant's use of local cooperative planning, the extent to which community needs are met by the applicant's plan for use of grant funds, whether the applicant's plan for use of grant funds includes and benefits new, underserved, or nontraditional constituencies, and whether the applicant provides access to its programs to persons with disabilities. (4-6-05)

d. Preferences. The Commission may give preference to applicants who have not applied for a General Operating Support Grant. (4-6-05)

03. Project Support Grants - Grant Amounts and Matching Contributions. The Project Support Grant shall not exceed one-half (1/2) of the costs for the event or activity. Applicants must provide cash contributions equaling the requested funds. (4-6-05)

04. Project Support Grants - Application Requirements. Applicants for Project Support Grants shall submit an application form; the resumes of key consultants and personnel; a list of the current board of directors of the organization with affiliation and contact information; an Internal Revenue Service tax determination letter, if applicable; work samples reflecting prior and on-going projects; and a list of potential and confirmed programming events for the applicant's current programming season. Applicants should also submit no more than five (5) documents supporting the application such as brochures or letters from community partners. Applicants are encouraged to submit a list of in-kind contributions to the project. (4-6-05)

05. Project Support Grants - Application Deadline. Project Support Grant applications must be postmarked or hand delivered to the Commission on or before the last business day of January. (4-6-05)

TumbleWords is a cooperative effort among twelve (12) western states to bring writers into communities where residents may be underexposed to creative writing because of geographical or economic circumstances. Under the TumbleWords program, writers of fiction, nonfiction, and poetry give readings and hold writing workshops. (4-6-05)

01. TumbleWords - Eligibility and Funding Requirements. Applicants for the TumbleWords program must satisfy the following: (4-6-05)

a. A unit of local, county, or tribal government, or an organization determined to be tax-exempt by the Internal Revenue Service must serve as the applicant by controlling the use of funding from the TumbleWords program, signing the application and accepting all legal and contractual obligations of the program. (4-6-05)

b. The application must demonstrate an interest within the community in increasing access to literature. Community interest shall include sufficient volunteers or staff to meet the requirements of the TumbleWords program in the community. (4-6-05)

c. The applicant must provide or secure a facility for readings, workshops, and other public activities that complies with all federal, state, and local laws and regulations. (4-6-05)

02. TumbleWords - Funding and Community Match. TumbleWords program awards are subject to funds availability including the availability of funding from the Western States Arts Federation. The applicant must provide matching contributions equaling requested funds. (4-6-05)

03. TumbleWords - Application Requirements. Applicants for the TumbleWords program shall submit an application form; the resumes of key writers or personnel; a list of the current board of directors of the organization with affiliation and contact information; and an Internal Revenue Service tax determination letter, if applicable. (4-6-05)

04. TumbleWords - Application Deadlines. The Commission accepts TumbleWords program applications during its regular business hours. (4-6-05)

500. SUPPORT FOR ARTS EDUCATION.

The Commission administers the programs supporting arts education set forth in Sections 501 through 504 of these rules. The following programs are available to individuals: Arts in Education Artist Roster, QuickFund$ for professional development for educators, and QuickFund$ Teacher Incentive Grants. The following programs are available to organizations: QuickProjects for education, ArtsPowered Learning Grants, and Creative Alternatives for Youth Grants. The Commission will not issue an award to organizations under a program for individuals or issue an award to an individual under a program for organizations. (4-6-05)

501. ARTS IN EDUCATION ARTIST ROSTER.

The Arts in Education Artist Roster is an online listing of artists who share their unique art forms in schools and communities. The Arts in Education Artist Roster does not provide funding to recipients. Recipients may set fees, schedules, and activities in collaboration with schools. (4-6-05)

01. Arts in Education Artist Roster - Evaluation Criteria. Applicants for the Arts in Education Artist Roster are evaluated based upon the applicant's artistic skills, communication skills, and the applicant's proposals for arts in education. (4-6-05)

02. Arts in Education Artist Roster - Application Requirements. Applicants for the Arts in Education Artist Roster shall submit an application form, a resume, an artist statement, work samples appropriate to the applicant's discipline, three (3) letters of recommendation from persons familiar with the applicant's artistic ability and communication skills, and support materials such as letters of acceptance, brochures, articles, workshop information, and resumes of master artists under which the applicant has studied. (4-6-05)

03. Arts in Education Artist Roster - Application Deadlines. Arts Education Artist Roster applications must be postmarked or hand delivered to the Commission on or before the first business day of June. (4-6-05)

502. QUICKFUND$ FOR ARTS EDUCATION.

QuickFund$ grants support professional development or short-term projects that enliven or improve arts learning as an integral part of the education of Idaho's youth. QuickFund$ grants are available for professional development for educators, teacher incentive grants, and QuickProjects for education. (4-6-05)

01. QuickFund$ - Professional Development for Educators. QuickFund$ for professional development for educators provides support to teachers, educators, and artists on the Arts in Education Artist Roster to attend conferences, seminars, workshops, or summer educational events that provide training in arts curricula, arts teaching, arts assessment, arts integration, or related topics. (4-6-05)

02. QuickFund$ - Teacher Incentive Grants. Teacher incentive grants provide support to teachers for activities that enliven or improve arts learning in the classroom. (4-6-05)

03. QuickFund$ - QuickProjects for Education. QuickProjects for education provides support for short-term projects that enliven or improve arts learning as an integral part of the education of Idaho's youth. (4-6-05)

04. QuickFund$ - Evaluation Criteria. (4-6-05)

a. Professional Development for Educators and Teacher Incentive Grants. QuickFund$ applications for professional development for education and teacher incentive grants are available to individuals who are educators or an artist on the Arts in Education Artist Roster. Applications are evaluated on a point scale with a total of one hundred (100) points. (4-6-05)

i. Artistic and Individual Quality. A maximum of fifty (50) points are awarded for artistic and individual quality. Artistic and individual quality is evaluated based upon whether the applicant's past work history demonstrates experience working with arts or education projects of high quality, the artistic or educational merit and the rationale of the proposed project or experience, and the relation or application of the proposed activity or event to the vision or the mission of the school or organization where the applicant teaches Idaho youth. (4-6-05)

ii. Feasibility. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for feasibility. The evaluation of feasibility is based upon whether the applicant's ability and plan demonstrates the applicant can realistically accomplish the activity or event and whether the budget is clear and correlates with the applicant's description of the activity or event. (4-6-05)

iii. Professional and Artistic Growth. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for professional and artistic growth. The evaluation of artistic growth is based upon whether the opportunity has the potential to significantly affect or enhance the applicant's artistic development, professional skills, or teaching skills. The evaluation also considers whether the applicant demonstrates that the activity or event will improve student learning in the arts. (4-6-05)

b. QuickProjects for Education. QuickFund$ applications for QuickProjects for education are available to organizations and are evaluated on a point scale with a total of one hundred (100) points. (4-6-05)

i. Artistic Quality. A maximum of fifty (50) points are awarded for artistic quality. Artistic quality is evaluated based upon the artistic and educational merit and rationale of the project, the relation of the project to the vision or mission of the school or organization where it will be implemented, and whether the artists, consultants, personnel, and presenters carrying out the project are qualified to carry out the project's activities and appropriate for the Idaho youth attending the project. (4-6-05)

ii. Management. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for management. The evaluation of management is based upon whether the roles and responsibilities of key personnel, community, and school partners, artists, and outside consultants are identified and clearly defined and whether the budget is clear and correlates with the applicant's description of the activity or event. (4-6-05)

iii. Community Involvement and Access. A maximum of twenty-five (25) points are awarded for community involvement and access. The evaluation of community involvement and access is based upon whether the plan for the project reflects the community's demographics, including students, teachers, parents, administrators, and other community members. The evaluation is also based upon the applicant's plans to inform and involve the community, including publicity efforts. (4-6-05)

c. Preferences. The Commission may give preference to applicants who have not previously received funds through a Commission program. (4-6-05)

05. QuickFund$ - Matching Contributions. Applicants for a professional development for educators QuickFund$ grant must provide matching contributions equaling the requested funds. Applicants for a teacher incentive QuickFund$ grant must provide matching contributions equaling one-third (1/3) of the requested funds. Applicants for a QuickProjects for education grant must provide matching contributions equaling the requested funds. College and university applicants shall not use in-kind contributions as matching funds. (4-6-05)

a. Professional Development for Educators and Teacher Incentive Grants. Applicants for professional development for educators or a teacher incentive QuickFund$ grant shall submit an application form, a resume, work samples appropriate to the applicant, and supporting materials such as letters of acceptance, brochures, articles, or workshop information. (4-6-05)

b. QuickProjects for Education. Applicants for a QuickProjects for education grant shall submit an application form; resumes of key consultants, artists, or personnel; work samples reflecting prior projects or activities as applicable to the project or activity that is the subject of the application; and, no more than five (5) documents supporting the application such as brochures, letters from community partners, or work samples of participating artists. Applicants eligible to use in-kind contributions must also submit a list of in-kind contributions used as matching contributions. All applicants are encouraged to submit a list of in-kind contributions to the project.

07. QuickFund$ - Application Deadlines. QuickFund$ applications for arts education must be postmarked or hand delivered to the Commission on or before the first Monday of March, June, September, or December.

503. ARTSPOWERED LEARNING GRANTS.

ArtsPowered Learning Grants support teaching and learning opportunities for youth through grade twelve (12) by supporting artist in residence projects exceeding ten (10) days in length, school touring of performances or arts exhibitions, the development and implementation of programs and activities to improve teacher practice and student learning in and through the arts, and professional consultancies to assist in the alignment between educational goals of schools and the needs of educators with community-based arts resources.

01. ArtsPowered Learning - Evaluation Criteria. ArtsPowered Learning grant applications are evaluated on a point scale with a total of one hundred (100) points.

a. Artistic and Educational Quality. A maximum of thirty (30) points are awarded for artistic and educational quality. The evaluation of artistic and educational quality is based upon whether the program or activity is aligned with the Interdisciplinary Humanities achievement standards of the Idaho State Board of Education and reflect the needs of the students; whether the goals and objectives of the program or activity identify specific concepts, processes, and skills that students will master as a result of their participation; whether the artists, consultants, personnel, and presenters are highly qualified to carry out the activities or program and are appropriate for the students; whether the program addresses the applicant's long-term educational goals; and whether the supporting materials, such as handouts, study guides, and compact disks, are of high quality, support the goals of the program or activity, and are appropriate for the students.

b. Planning, Implementation, and Evaluation. A maximum of thirty (30) points are awarded for planning, implementation, and evaluation. The evaluation of planning, implementation, and evaluation is based upon whether the outcomes of the program or activity are clearly defined and based upon the needs of the students; whether the activity or program is appropriate to achieve the desired outcomes; whether the students are involved in the planning, implementation, and evaluation of the activity or program; whether the evaluation methods are aligned with the curricula; whether the evaluation methods measure short-term and long-term results of the program or activity; whether the evaluation findings are incorporated into ongoing planning for the applicant; whether the applicant has used past evaluations to refine its programs or activities; whether the applicant supports the evaluation with adequate documentation; and whether the applicant disseminates the evaluation results to appropriate parties.

c. Management. A maximum of twenty (20) points are awarded for management. The evaluation of management is based upon whether the applicant has submitted a clear, complete, and appropriate budget; whether there is a broad base of support for the application from public and private sources; and whether the roles and responsibilities of key personnel, community, and school partners artists, and outside consultants are identified and clearly defined.

d. Access and Community Involvement. A maximum of twenty (20) points are awarded for access and community involvement. The evaluation of access and community involvement is based upon whether the applicant has shown that it engaged in planning that included a broad based committee reflective of community demographics including students, teachers, parents, administrators, and community members; whether the program or activity includes plans for publicity efforts to inform and involve the community; and whether the applicant has shown efforts to identify and include underserved populations in the program or activity.

02. ArtsPowered Learning - Matching Contributions. Applicants must provide matching contributions equaling one-half (1/2) of the requested funds. In-kind contributions shall not exceed one-half (1/2) of the required matching contributions.

03. ArtsPowered Learning - Application Requirements. Applicants for ArtsPowered Learning grants shall submit an application; a list of the project or activity's key personnel; a list of planning or advisory committee members that includes the individual's role, professional expertise, and affiliation; resumes of key consultants, artists, or personnel; three (3) to six (6) letters of support from executive directors of organizations, school principals, planning or advisory committee members, or other appropriate supports that demonstrate an understanding of and commitment to the project or activity; up to five (5) pieces of audio, visual, or published materials from the applicant or key partners, curriculum guides, or examples of past student work that will help the Commission understand the artistic and professional quality of the program or activity; and work samples appropriate to artists participating in the program or activity that are not on the Arts in Education Artist Roster. If the applicant will use in-kind contributions, the applicant must also submit a list of in-kind contributions to the project. (4-6-05)

04. ArtsPowered Learning - Application Deadlines. ArtsPowered Learning applications must be postmarked or hand delivered to the Commission on or before the first Friday in March. (4-6-05)

504. CREATIVE ALTERNATIVES FOR YOUTH.

The Creative Alternatives for Youth program supports out-of-school opportunities for young people at risk of not making a successful transition from adolescence to young adulthood. The Creative Alternatives for Youth program encourages meaningful collaborations between arts organizations and other community organizations, especially social service agencies that nurture the development and expression of the creative spirit of youth. (4-6-05)

01. Creative Alternatives for Youth - Evaluation Criteria. Creative Alternatives for Youth grant applications are evaluated on a point scale with a total of one hundred (100) points. (4-6-05)

a. Artistic and Educational Quality. A maximum of thirty (30) points are awarded for artistic and educational quality. The evaluation of artistic and educational quality is based upon whether the program or activity reflects the needs of the students; whether the goals and objectives of the program or activity identify specific concepts, processes, and skills that students will master as a result of their participation; whether the planned activities or program will support the students' intellectual and creative processes, experimentation, and growth; whether the artists, consultants, personnel, and presenters are highly qualified to carry out the activities or program and are appropriate for the students; whether the program addresses the applicant's long-term educational goals; and whether the supporting materials, such as handouts, study guides, and compact disks are of high quality, support the goals of the program or activity, and are appropriate for the students. (4-6-05)

b. Planning, Implementation, and Evaluation. A maximum of thirty (30) points are awarded for planning, implementation, and evaluation. The evaluation of planning, implementation, and evaluation is based upon whether the applicant has demonstrated a collaborative planning process that includes all partners in the project in the design, implementation, and commitment of resources; whether the outcomes of the program or activity are clearly defined and based upon the needs of the students; whether the activity or program is appropriate to achieve the desired outcomes; whether the students are involved in the planning, implementation, and evaluation of the activity or program; whether the evaluation findings are incorporated into ongoing planning for the applicant; whether the applicant has used past evaluations to refine its programs or activities; whether the applicant supports the evaluation with adequate documentation; and whether the applicant disseminates the evaluation results to appropriate parties. (4-6-05)

c. Management. A maximum of twenty (20) points are awarded for management. The evaluation of management is based upon whether the applicant has submitted a clear, complete, and appropriate budget; whether there is a broad base of support for the application from public and private sources; whether the project or activity is supported by adequate resources such as funding, materials, equipment, and facilities; and whether the roles and responsibilities of key personnel, community and school partners, artists, and outside consultants are identified and clearly defined. (4-6-05)

d. Access and Community Involvement. A maximum of twenty (20) points are awarded for access and community involvement. The evaluation of access and community involvement is based upon whether the applicant has shown that it engaged in planning that included a broad based committee reflective of community demographics including students, teachers, parents, administrators, and community members; whether the program or activity includes plans for publicity efforts to inform and involve the community; and whether the applicant has shown efforts to identify and include underserved populations in the program or activity. (4-6-05)
