08. Hearing Record. The Veterans Affairs Commission or the Division Administrator will arrange for a record to be made of the contested case hearing. The record must be a verbatim record and it will be magnetically recorded by two (2) recording devices, unless a party requests a stenographic recording by a certified court reporter, in writing, at least seven (7) days prior to the date of hearing. The record shall be transcribed at the expense of the party requesting a transcription, and prepayment or guarantee of payment may be required. Once a transcription is requested, any party may obtain a copy at the party's own expense. The recorded proceedings will be provided to the Division Administrator for inclusion into the record. The Division shall maintain an official record of each contested case for a period of not less than six (6) months after the expiration of the last date for judicial review, unless otherwise provided by law. The record shall include all notices of proceedings, pleadings, motions, briefs, petitions and intermediate rulings, evidence received or considered, any oral or written statements allowed by the Commission, statement of matters officially noticed, offers of proof and objections and rulings thereon, the recording of the proceedings or any transcript of all or part of the proceedings, staff memoranda or data submitted to the Commission in connection with the proceeding, and any recommended order, preliminary order, final order or order on reconsideration. (3-30-01)

09. Subpoenas. The Commission may compel the attendance of specific persons and the production of specific documents, materials, or objects at any contested case proceeding by subpoena issued by the Division Administrator. (3-30-01)

10. Stipulations. The parties to a contested case proceeding may stipulate as to any fact at issue, either by written stipulation or by oral statement shown upon the record. Any such stipulation shall be binding upon all parties so stipulating and may be considered by the Commission. The Commission may require proof by evidence of any facts stipulated to, notwithstanding the stipulation of the parties. (3-30-01)

11. Rules of Civil Procedure. As contested case proceedings and hearings are informal, the Idaho Rules of Civil Procedure shall not apply. The Commission shall provide the procedure at the hearing, as required by the provisions of Section 67-5242(3), Idaho Code. (3-30-01)

12. Discovery. Prehearing discovery shall be strictly limited to obtaining the names of witnesses and copies of documents the opposing party intends to offer or present at the hearing. The Commission may order disclosure of this information if a party refuses to comply after receiving a written request. (3-30-01)

13. Briefing Schedule. The Commission may require briefs and written memoranda to be filed by the parties, and may establish a reasonable briefing schedule. (3-30-01)

14. Informal Disposition. Unless otherwise prohibited by statute or rule, the Commission may decline to initiate a contested case. Informal disposition may be made of any contested case by negotiation, stipulation, agreed settlement or consent order, which informal settlement is encouraged. The parties may stipulate as to the facts, reserving their right to appeal to a court of competent jurisdiction on issues of law. The Commission may request such additional information as may be required to decide whether to initiate or to decide a contested case. If the Commission declines to initiate or decide a contested case, a brief statement of the reasons for that decision will be furnished to all persons or parties involved. This disposition of a contested case by informal disposition shall be a final agency action pursuant to Section 67-5241, Idaho Code. (3-30-01)

Hearsay evidence may be received if it is relevant to or corroborates competent evidence, but shall not be the sole basis for any finding of fact. Any part of the evidence may be received in written form if doing so will expedite the hearing without substantially prejudicing the interest of any party.
