Eligible candidates will receive a Notice to Schedule (NTS) for the CPA Examination from NASBA. The NTS is valid for six (6) months from the date issued. A candidate's ATT lasts as long as the NTS is valid, or until the candidate tests whichever occurs first. 01. Credit for Sections Prior to Computerization of the CPA Examination. A candidate shall be required to pass all test sections of the CPA Examination in order to qualify for a CPA certificate and license. If, at a given sitting of the examination prior to the implementation of a computer-based CPA Examination, a candidate passes two (2) or more but not all sections, then the candidate shall be given conditional credit for those sections that the candidate has passed and need not sit for re-examination in those sections, provided that: (3-16-04)

c. The candidate passes the remaining sections of the CPA Examination within six (6) consecutive administrations of the CPA Examination given after the one at which the first sections were passed; and (3-16-04)

d. At each subsequent sitting at which the candidate seeks to pass any additional sections, the candidate sits for all sections not yet passed. (3-16-04)

02. Credit for Subjects After Computerization of the CPA Examination. Upon implementation of a computer-based CPA Examination, a candidate may take the required test sections individually and in any order. Credit for any test section(s) passed shall be valid for eighteen (18) months from the actual date the candidate took that test section(s), without having to attain a minimum score on any failed test section(s) and without regard to whether the candidate has taken other test sections, provided that: (3-16-04)

- a. Candidates must pass all four (4) test sections of the CPA Examination within a rolling eighteen-month period, which begins on the date that the first test section(s) passed is taken; (3-16-04)
- b. Candidates cannot retake a failed test section(s) in the same examination window; and (3-16-04)
- c. Candidates who do not pass all four (4) sections of the CPA Examination within the rolling eighteen-month period shall lose credit for any test section(s) passed outside the eighteen-month period and that test section(s) must be retaken. (3-16-04)

03. Candidates with Conditional Credit Earned on the Paper-Based CPA Examination. Candidates who have conditional credit on the paper-based CPA Examination as of the launch date of the computer-based CPA Examination are subject to the following transition requirements: (3-16-04)

 - iv. “Business Law and Professional Responsibilities” under paper-based corresponds to “Business Environment and Concepts” under computer-based. (3-16-04)
- b. A candidate who attained conditional credit under the paper-based examination will be allowed a transition period to complete any remaining test sections. The transition period is the maximum number of opportunities that the candidate has remaining, at the launch of the computer-based examination, to complete all remaining test sections, or three (3) years from the last day of the month conditional credit was attained, whichever is exhausted first. During the candidate’s transition period, any computer-based test section passed is not subject to the credit granting provisions of Subsection 108.02. (3-16-04)
- c. If a candidate who attained conditional credit under the paper-based examination does not pass all remaining test sections during the transition period, conditional credits earned under the paper-based examination will expire and the candidate will lose credit for the test sections earned under the paper-based examination. When paper-based credit is lost, any computer-based test section passed during the transition period becomes subject to the credit granting provisions of Subsection 108.02. (3-16-04)

04. Extending the Term of Credit. The Board may in particular cases extend the term of credit validity set forth in Subsections 108.02 and 108.03 upon demonstration by the candidate that the credit was lost by reason of circumstances beyond the candidate’s control. (3-16-04)

02. Exam Site. If the Board or its representative suspects that cheating has occurred or is occurring while the CPA Examination is in progress, the Board or its representative may summarily expel the candidate from the examination.
