A licensee may define the twelve (12) consecutive-month period, but the licensee shall apply it to the customer on a consistent basis. (5-3-03)

b. Example. A licensee provides a notice annually if it defines the twelve (12) consecutive month period as a calendar year and provides the annual notice to the customer once in each calendar year following the calendar year in which the licensee provided the initial notice. For example, if a customer opens an account on any day of year one (1), the licensee shall provide an annual notice to that customer by December 31 of year two (2). (5-3-03)

02. Termination of Customer Relationship. (5-3-03)

a. A licensee is not required to provide an annual notice to a former customer. A former customer is an individual with whom a licensee no longer has a continuing relationship. (5-3-03)

b. Examples: (5-3-03)

i. If the individual no longer is a current policyholder of an insurance product or no longer obtains insurance services with or through the licensee. (5-3-03)

ii. If the individual's policy is lapsed, expired or otherwise inactive or dormant under the licensee's business practices, and the licensee has not communicated with the customer about the relationship for a period of twelve (12) consecutive-months, other than to provide annual privacy notices, material required by law or rule, or promotional materials. (5-3-03)

iii. If the individual's last known address according to the licensee's records is deemed invalid. An address of record is deemed invalid if mail sent to that address by the licensee has been returned by the postal authorities as undeliverable and if subsequent attempts by the licensee to obtain a current valid address for the individual have been unsuccessful. (5-3-03)

iv. In the case of providing real estate settlement services, at the time the customer completes execution of all documents related to the real estate closing, payment for those services has been received, or the licensee has completed all of its responsibilities with respect to the settlement, including filing documents on the public record, whichever is later. (5-3-03)

03. Delivery. When a licensee is required by Section 150 to deliver an annual privacy notice, the licensee shall deliver it according to Section 350. (5-3-03)

151. -- 199. (RESERVED)

200. INFORMATION TO BE INCLUDED IN PRIVACY NOTICES.

The initial, annual and revised privacy notices that a licensee provides, under Sections 100, 150, and 300, must include each of the following items of information, in addition to any other information the licensee wishes to provide, that applies to the licensee and to the consumers to whom the licensee sends its privacy notice. (5-3-03)

01. Information Licensee Collects. The categories of nonpublic personal financial information that the licensee collects. (5-3-03)

02. Information Licensee Discloses. The categories of nonpublic personal financial information that the licensee discloses. (5-3-03)

04. Disclosures of Information About Former Customers. The categories of nonpublic personal financial information about the licensee's former customers that the licensee discloses, and the categories of affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties to whom the licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information about the licensee's former customers, other than those parties to whom the licensee discloses information under Sections 451 and 452. (5-3-03)

05. Disclosures Under Section 450. If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information to a nonaffiliated third party under Section 450 (and no other exception in Sections 451 and 452 applies to that disclosure), a separate description of the categories of information the licensee discloses and the categories of third parties with whom the licensee has contracted shall be provided. (5-3-03)

06. Explanation of Right to Opt Out. An explanation of the consumer's right under Subsection 400.01 to opt out of the disclosure of nonpublic personal financial information to nonaffiliated third parties, including the methods by which the consumer may exercise that right at that time. (5-3-03)

07. Disclosures Under Federal Law. Any disclosures that the licensee makes under Section 603(d)(2)(A)(iii) of the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. 1681a(d)(2)(A)(iii)) (that is, notices regarding the ability to opt out of disclosures of information among affiliates); (5-3-03)

08. Confidentiality and Security Practices. The licensee's policies and practices with respect to protecting the confidentiality and security of nonpublic personal information; and (5-3-03)

09. Categories as Permitted by Law. Any disclosure that the licensee makes under Section 201 of this rule. (5-3-03)

201. DESCRIPTION OF PARTIES SUBJECT TO EXCEPTIONS.

If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information as authorized under Sections 451 and 452, the licensee is not required to list those exceptions in the initial or annual privacy notices required by Sections 100 and 150. When describing the categories of parties to whom disclosure is made, the licensee is required to state only that it makes disclosures to other affiliated or nonaffiliated third parties, as applicable, as permitted by law. (5-3-03)

202. SATISFYING THE PRIVACY NOTICE INFORMATION REQUIREMENTS -- EXAMPLES.

01. Categories of Nonpublic Personal Financial Information That the Licensee Collects. A licensee satisfies the requirement to categorize the nonpublic personal financial information it collects if the licensee categorizes it according to the source of the information, as applicable: (5-3-03)

a. Information from the consumer; (5-3-03)

b. Information about the consumer's transactions with the licensee or its affiliates; (5-3-03)

c. Information about the consumer's transactions with nonaffiliated third parties; and (5-3-03)

- d. Information from a consumer reporting agency. (5-3-03)
- 02. Categories of Nonpublic Personal Financial Information a Licensee Discloses. (5-3-03)
- a. A licensee satisfies the requirement to categorize nonpublic personal financial information it discloses if the licensee categorizes the information according to source, as described in Subsection 202.01 of this rule, as applicable, and provides a few examples to illustrate the types of information in each category. These might include: (5-3-03)
- i. Information from the consumer, including application information, such as assets and income and identifying information, such as name, address and social security number; (5-3-03)
- ii. Transaction information, such as information about balances, payment history and parties to the transaction; and (5-3-03)
- iii. Information from consumer reports, such as a consumer's creditworthiness and credit history. (5-3-03)
- (1) A licensee does not adequately categorize the information that it discloses if the licensee uses only general terms, such as transaction information about the consumer. (5-3-03)
- (2) If a licensee reserves the right to disclose all of the nonpublic personal financial information about consumers that it collects, the licensee may simply state that fact without describing the categories or examples of nonpublic personal information that the licensee discloses. (5-3-03)
- 03. Categories of Affiliates and Nonaffiliated Third Parties to Whom the Licensee Discloses. (5-3-03)
- a. A licensee satisfies the requirement to categorize the affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties to which the licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information about consumers if the licensee identifies the types of businesses in which they engage. (5-3-03)
- b. Types of businesses may be described by general terms only if the licensee uses a few illustrative examples of significant lines of business. For example, a licensee may use the term financial products or services if it includes appropriate examples of significant lines of businesses, such as life insurer, automobile insurer, consumer banking, or securities brokerage. (5-3-03)
- c. A licensee also may categorize the affiliates and nonaffiliated third parties to which it discloses nonpublic personal financial information about consumers using more detailed categories. (5-3-03)
- 04. Disclosures Under Exception for Service Providers and Joint Marketers. If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information under the exception in Section 450 to a nonaffiliated third party to market products or services that it offers alone or jointly with another financial institution, the licensee satisfies the disclosure requirement of Subsection 200.05 of this rule if it: (5-3-03)
- a. Lists the categories of nonpublic personal financial information it discloses, using the same categories and examples the licensee used to meet the requirements of Subsection 200.02 of this rule, as applicable; and (5-3-03)
- b. States whether the third party is: (5-3-03)
- i. A service provider that performs marketing services on the licensee's behalf or on behalf of the licensee and another financial institution; or (5-3-03)
- ii. A financial institution with whom the licensee has a joint marketing agreement. (5-3-03)
- 05. Simplified Notices. If a licensee does not disclose, and does not wish to reserve the right to disclose, nonpublic personal financial information about customers or former customers to affiliates or nonaffiliated third parties except as authorized under Sections 451 and 452, the licensee may simply state that fact, in addition to the information it shall provide under Subsections 200.01, 200.08, 200.09, and Section 201 of this rule. (5-3-03)

06. Confidentiality and Security. A licensee describes its policies and practices with respect to protecting the confidentiality and security of nonpublic personal financial information if it does both of the following: (5-3-03)

- a. Describes in general terms who is authorized to have access to the information; and (5-3-03)
- b. States whether the licensee has security practices and procedures in place to ensure the confidentiality of the information in accordance with the licensee's policy. The licensee is not required to describe technical information about the safeguards it uses. (5-3-03)

203. SHORT-FORM INITIAL NOTICE WITH OPT OUT NOTICE FOR NON-CUSTOMERS.

01. Short-Form Initial Notice Allowed. A licensee may satisfy the initial notice requirements in Paragraph 100.01.b. and Subsection 251.02, for a consumer who is not a customer, by providing a short-form initial notice at the same time as the licensee delivers an opt out notice as required in Section 250. (5-3-03)

02. Short-Form Initial Notice Requirements. A short-form initial notice shall: (5-3-03)

- a. Be clear and conspicuous; (5-3-03)
- b. State that the licensee's privacy notice is available upon request; and (5-3-03)
- c. Explain a reasonable means by which the consumer may obtain that notice. (5-3-03)

03. Delivery of Short-Form Initial Notice. The licensee shall deliver its short-form initial notice according to Section 350. The licensee is not required to deliver its privacy notice with its short-form initial notice. The licensee instead may simply provide the consumer a reasonable means to obtain its privacy notice. If a consumer who receives the licensee's short-form notice requests the licensee's privacy notice, the licensee shall deliver its privacy notice according to Section 350. (5-3-03)

04. Examples of Obtaining Privacy Notice. The licensee provides a reasonable means by which a consumer may obtain a copy of its privacy notice if the licensee: (5-3-03)

- a. Provides a toll-free telephone number that the consumer may call to request the notice; or (5-3-03)
- b. For a consumer who conducts business in person at the licensee's office, maintains copies of the notice on hand that the licensee provides to the consumer immediately upon request. (5-3-03)

204. FUTURE DISCLOSURES.

The licensee's notice may include: (5-3-03)

01. Nonpublic Personal Financial Information. Categories of nonpublic personal financial information that the licensee reserves the right to disclose in the future, but does not currently disclose; and (5-3-03)

02. Affiliates or Nonaffiliated Third Parties. Categories of affiliates or nonaffiliated third parties to whom the licensee reserves the right in the future to disclose, but to whom the licensee does not currently disclose, nonpublic personal financial information. (5-3-03)

205. SAMPLE CLAUSES.

Sample clauses illustrating some of the notice content required by Section 200 are included in Appendix A of this rule. (5-3-03)

206. -- 249. (RESERVED)

250. FORM OF OPT OUT NOTICE TO CONSUMERS.

01. Opt Out Notice Form. If a licensee is required to provide an opt out notice under Subsection 400.01, it shall provide a clear and conspicuous notice to each of its consumers that accurately explains the right to opt out under Section 400. The notice shall state: (5-3-03)

a. That the licensee discloses or reserves the right to disclose nonpublic personal financial information about its consumer to a nonaffiliated third party; (5-3-03)

b. That the consumer has the right to opt out of that disclosure; and (5-3-03)

c. A reasonable means by which the consumer may exercise the opt out right. (5-3-03)

02. Adequate Opt Out Notice. A licensee provides adequate notice that the consumer can opt out of the disclosure of nonpublic personal financial information to a nonaffiliated third party if the licensee: (5-3-03)

a. Identifies all of the categories of nonpublic personal financial information that it discloses or reserves the right to disclose, and all of the categories of nonaffiliated third parties to which the licensee discloses the information, and states that the consumer can opt out of the disclosure of that information; and (5-3-03)

b. Identifies the insurance products or services that the consumer obtains from the licensee, either singly or jointly, to which the opt out direction would apply. (5-3-03)

03. Reasonable Means to Exercise an Opt Out Right. A licensee provides a reasonable means to exercise an opt out right if it: (5-3-03)

a. Designates check-off boxes in a prominent position on the relevant forms with the opt out notice; (5-3-03)

b. Includes a reply form together with the opt out notice; (5-3-03)

c. Provides an electronic means to opt out, such as a form that can be sent via electronic mail or a process at the licensee's web site, if the consumer agrees to the electronic delivery of information; or (5-3-03)

d. Provides a toll-free telephone number that consumers may call to opt out. (5-3-03)

04. Unreasonable Means of Opting Out. A licensee does not provide a reasonable means of opting out if: (5-3-03)

a. The only means of opting out is for the consumer to write his own letter to exercise the opt out right; or (5-3-03)

b. The only means of opting out as described in any notice subsequent to the initial notice is to use a check-off box that the licensee provided with the initial notice but did not include with the subsequent notice. (5-3-03)

05. Specific Opt Out Means. A licensee may require each consumer to opt out through a specific means, as long as that means is reasonable for that consumer. (5-3-03)

251. PROVIDING OPT OUT NOTICE TO CONSUMERS AND COMPLYING WITH OPT OUT DIRECTION.

01. Same Form as Initial Notice Permitted. A licensee may provide the opt out notice together with or on the same written or electronic form as the initial notice the licensee provides in accordance with Section 100. (5-3-03)

02. Initial Notice Required When Opt Out Notice Delivered Subsequent to Initial Notice. If a licensee provides the opt out notice later than required for the initial notice in accordance with Section 100, the licensee shall also include a copy of the initial notice with the opt out notice in writing or, if the consumer agrees, electronically. (5-3-03)

03. Joint Relationships. (5-3-03)

a. If two (2) or more consumers jointly obtain an insurance product or service from a licensee, the licensee may provide a single opt out notice. The licensee's opt out notice shall explain how the licensee will treat an opt out direction by a joint consumer (as explained in Paragraph 251.03.e of this rule). (5-3-03)

b. Any of the joint consumers may exercise the right to opt out. The licensee may either: (5-3-03)

i. Treat an opt out direction by a joint consumer as applying to all of the associated joint consumers; (5-3-03)

ii. Permit each joint consumer to opt out separately. (5-3-03)

c. If a licensee permits each joint consumer to opt out separately, the licensee shall permit one (1) of the joint consumers to opt out on behalf of all of the joint consumers. (5-3-03)

d. A licensee may not require all joint consumers to opt out before it implements any opt out direction. (5-3-03)

e. Example. If John and Mary are both named policyholders on a homeowner's insurance policy issued by a licensee and the licensee sends policy statements to John's address, the licensee may do any of the following, but it shall explain in its opt out notice which opt out policy the licensee will follow: (5-3-03)

i. Send a single opt out notice to John's address, but the licensee shall accept an opt out direction from either John or Mary. (5-3-03)

ii. Treat an opt out direction by either John or Mary as applying to the entire policy. If the licensee does so and John opts out, the licensee may not require Mary to opt out as well before implementing John's opt out direction. (5-3-03)

iii. Permit John and Mary to make different opt out directions. If the licensee does so: (5-3-03)

(1) It shall permit John and Mary to opt out for each other; (5-3-03)

(2) If both opt out, the licensee shall permit both of them to notify it in a single response (such as on a form or through a telephone call); and (5-3-03)

(3) If John opts out and Mary does not, the licensee may only disclose nonpublic personal financial information about Mary, but not about John and not about John and Mary jointly. (5-3-03)

04. Time to Comply with Opt Out. A licensee shall comply with a consumer's opt out direction as soon as reasonably practicable after the licensee receives it. (5-3-03)

05. Continuing Right to Opt Out. A consumer may exercise the right to opt out at any time. (5-3-03)

06. Duration of Consumer's Opt Out Direction. (5-3-03)

a. A consumer's direction to opt out under Sections 250 and 251 is effective until the consumer revokes it in writing or, if the consumer agrees, electronically. (5-3-03)

b. When a customer relationship terminates, the customer's opt out direction continues to apply to the nonpublic personal financial information that the licensee collected during or related to that relationship. If the individual subsequently establishes a new customer relationship with the licensee, the opt out direction that applied to the former relationship does not apply to the new relationship. (5-3-03)

07. Delivery. When a licensee is required to deliver an opt out notice by Section 250, the licensee shall deliver it according to Section 350. (5-3-03)

252. -- 299. (RESERVED)

300. REVISED PRIVACY NOTICES.

01. General Rule. Except as otherwise authorized in this rule, a licensee shall not, directly or through an affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal financial information about a consumer to a nonaffiliated third party other than as described in the initial notice that the licensee provided to that consumer under Section 100, unless: (5-3-03)

a. The licensee has provided to the consumer a clear and conspicuous revised notice that accurately describes its policies and practices; (5-3-03)

b. The licensee has provided to the consumer a new opt out notice; (5-3-03)

c. The licensee has given the consumer a reasonable opportunity, before the licensee discloses the information to the nonaffiliated third party, to opt out of the disclosure; and (5-3-03)

d. The consumer does not opt out. (5-3-03)

02. Examples of Application of General Rule. (5-3-03)

a. Except as otherwise permitted by Sections 450, 451, and 452, a licensee shall provide a revised notice before it: (5-3-03)

i. Discloses a new category of nonpublic personal financial information to any nonaffiliated third party; (5-3-03)

ii. Discloses nonpublic personal financial information to a new category of nonaffiliated third party; or (5-3-03)

iii. Discloses nonpublic personal financial information about a former customer to a nonaffiliated third party, if that former customer has not had the opportunity to exercise an opt out right regarding that disclosure. (5-3-03)

b. A revised notice is not required if the licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information to a new nonaffiliated third party that the licensee adequately described in its prior notice. (5-3-03)

03. Delivery. When a licensee is required to deliver a revised privacy notice by Section 300, the licensee shall deliver it according to Section 350. (5-3-03)

301. -- 349. (RESERVED)

350. DELIVERY.

01. How to Provide Notices. A licensee shall provide any notices that this rule requires so that each consumer can reasonably be expected to receive actual notice in writing or, if the consumer agrees, electronically. (5-3-03)

02. Examples of Reasonable and Unreasonable Expectation of Actual Notice. (5-3-03)

- a. A licensee may reasonably expect that a consumer will receive actual notice if the licensee: (5-3-03)
- i. Hand-delivers a printed copy of the notice to the consumer; (5-3-03)
 - ii. Mails a printed copy of the notice to the last known address of the consumer separately, or in a policy, billing or other written communication; (5-3-03)
 - iii. For a consumer who conducts transactions electronically, posts the notice on the electronic site and requires the consumer to acknowledge receipt of the notice as a necessary step to obtaining a particular insurance product or service; or (5-3-03)
 - iv. For an isolated transaction with a consumer, such as the licensee providing an insurance quote or selling the consumer travel insurance, posts the notice, and requires the consumer to acknowledge receipt of the notice as a necessary step to obtaining the particular insurance product or service. (5-3-03)
- b. A licensee may not reasonably expect that a consumer will receive actual notice of its privacy policies and practices if it: (5-3-03)
- i. Only posts a sign in its office or generally publishes advertisements of its privacy policies and practices; or (5-3-03)
 - ii. Sends the notice via electronic mail to a consumer who does not obtain an insurance product or service from the licensee electronically. (5-3-03)
- 03. Annual Notices Only. A licensee may reasonably expect that a customer will receive actual notice of the licensee's annual privacy notice if: (5-3-03)
- a. The customer uses the licensee's web site to access insurance products and services electronically and agrees to receive notices at the web site and the licensee posts its current privacy notice continuously in a clear and conspicuous manner on the web site; or (5-3-03)
 - b. The customer has requested that the licensee refrain from sending any information regarding the customer relationship, and the licensee's current privacy notice remains available to the customer upon request. (5-3-03)
- 04. Oral Description of Notice Insufficient. A licensee may not provide any notice required by this rule solely by orally explaining the notice, either in person or over the telephone. (5-3-03)
- 05. Retention or Accessibility of Notices for Customers. (5-3-03)
- a. For customers only, a licensee shall provide the initial notice required by Paragraph 100.01.a., the annual notice required by Paragraph 150.01.a, and the revised notice required by Section 300 so that the customer can retain them or obtain them later in writing or, if the customer agrees, electronically. (5-3-03)
 - b. Examples of retention or accessibility. A licensee provides a privacy notice to the customer so that the customer can retain it or obtain it later if the licensee: (5-3-03)
 - i. Hand-delivers a printed copy of the notice to the customer; (5-3-03)
 - ii. Mails a printed copy of the notice to the last known address of the customer; or (5-3-03)
 - iii. Makes its current privacy notice available on a web site (or a link to another web site) for the customer who obtains an insurance product or service electronically and agrees to receive the notice at the web site. (5-3-03)
- 06. Joint Notice with Other Financial Institutions. A licensee may provide a joint notice from the licensee and one (1) or more of its affiliates or other financial institutions, as identified in the notice, as long as the notice is accurate with respect to the licensee and the other institutions. A licensee also may provide a notice on behalf of another financial institution. (5-3-03)

07. Joint Relationships. If two (2) or more consumers jointly obtain an insurance product or service from a licensee, the licensee may satisfy the initial, annual, and revised notice requirements of Subsections 100.01, 150.01, and 300.01, respectively, by providing one (1) notice to those consumers jointly. (5-3-03)

351. -- 399. (RESERVED)

400. LIMITS ON DISCLOSURE OF NONPUBLIC PERSONAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION TO NONAFFILIATED THIRD PARTIES.

01. Conditions for Disclosure. (5-3-03)

a. Except as otherwise authorized in this rule, a licensee may not, directly or through any affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal financial information about a consumer to a nonaffiliated third party unless: (5-3-03)

i. The licensee has provided to the consumer an initial notice as required under Section 100; (5-3-03)

ii. The licensee has provided to the consumer an opt out notice as required in Sections 250 and 251; (5-3-03)

iii. The licensee has given the consumer a reasonable opportunity, before it discloses the information to the nonaffiliated third party, to opt out of the disclosure; and (5-3-03)

iv. The consumer does not opt out. (5-3-03)

b. If a consumer opts out, the licensee may not disclose nonpublic personal financial information about that consumer to a nonaffiliated third party, other than as permitted by Sections 450, 451, and 452. (5-3-03)

c. Examples of reasonable opportunity to opt out. A licensee provides a consumer with a reasonable opportunity to opt out if: (5-3-03)

i. By mail. The licensee mails the notices required in Subsection 400.01 of this rule to the consumer and allows the consumer to opt out by mailing a form, calling a toll-free telephone number or any other reasonable means within thirty (30) days from the date the licensee mailed the notices. (5-3-03)

ii. By electronic means. A customer opens an on-line account with a licensee and agrees to receive the notices required in Subsection 400.01 of this rule electronically, and the licensee allows the customer to opt out by any reasonable means within thirty (30) days after the date that the customer acknowledges receipt of the notices in conjunction with opening the account. (5-3-03)

iii. Isolated transaction with consumer. For an isolated transaction such as providing the consumer with an insurance quote, a licensee provides the consumer with a reasonable opportunity to opt out if the licensee provides the notices required in Subsection 400.01 of this rule at the time of the transaction and requests that the consumer decide, as a necessary part of the transaction, whether to opt out before completing the transaction. (5-3-03)

02. Application of Opt Out to All Consumers and All Nonpublic Personal Financial Information. (5-3-03)

a. A licensee shall comply with Section 400, regardless of whether the licensee and the consumer have established a customer relationship. (5-3-03)

b. Unless a licensee complies with Section 400, the licensee may not, directly or through any affiliate, disclose any nonpublic personal financial information about a consumer that the licensee has collected, regardless of whether the licensee collected it before or after receiving the direction to opt out from the consumer. (5-3-03)

03. Partial Opt Out. A licensee may allow a consumer to select certain nonpublic personal financial information or certain nonaffiliated third parties with respect to which the consumer wishes to opt out. (5-3-03)

401. LIMITS ON REDISCLOSURE AND REUSE OF NONPUBLIC PERSONAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION.

01. Information the Licensee Receives Under an Exception. (5-3-03)

a. If a licensee receives nonpublic personal financial information from a nonaffiliated financial institution under an exception in Sections 451 or 452 of this rule, the licensee's disclosure and use of that information is limited as follows: (5-3-03)

i. The licensee may disclose the information to the affiliates of the financial institution from which the licensee received the information; (5-3-03)

ii. The licensee may disclose the information to its affiliates, but the licensee's affiliates may, in turn, disclose and use the information only to the extent that the licensee may disclose and use the information; and (5-3-03)

iii. The licensee may disclose and use the information pursuant to an exception in Section 451 or 452 of this rule, in the ordinary course of business to carry out the activity covered by the exception under which the licensee received the information. (5-3-03)

b. Example. If a licensee receives information from a nonaffiliated financial institution for claims settlement purposes, the licensee may disclose the information for fraud prevention, or in response to a properly authorized subpoena. The licensee may not disclose that information to a third party for marketing purposes or use that information for its own marketing purposes. (5-3-03)

02. Information a Licensee Receives Outside of an Exception. (5-3-03)

a. If a licensee receives nonpublic personal financial information from a nonaffiliated financial institution other than under an exception in Section 451 or 452 of this rule, the licensee may disclose the information only: (5-3-03)

i. To the affiliates of the financial institution from which the licensee received the information; (5-3-03)

ii. To its affiliates, but its affiliates may, in turn, disclose the information only to the extent that the licensee may disclose the information; and (5-3-03)

iii. To any other person, if the disclosure would be lawful if made directly to that person by the financial institution from which the licensee received the information. (5-3-03)

b. Example. If a licensee obtains a customer list from a nonaffiliated financial institution outside of the exceptions in Section 451 or 452: (5-3-03)

i. The licensee may use that list for its own purposes; and (5-3-03)

ii. The licensee may disclose that list to another nonaffiliated third party only if the financial institution from which the licensee purchased the list could have lawfully disclosed the list to that third party. That is, the licensee may disclose the list in accordance with the privacy policy of the financial institution from which the licensee received the list, as limited by the opt out direction of each consumer whose nonpublic personal financial information the licensee intends to disclose, and the licensee may disclose the list in accordance with an exception in Section 451 or 452, such as to the licensee's attorneys or accountants. (5-3-03)

03. Information a Licensee Discloses Under an Exception. If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information to a nonaffiliated third party under an exception in Section 451 or 452 of this rule, the third party may disclose and use that information only as follows: (5-3-03)

- a. The third party may disclose the information to the licensee's affiliates; (5-3-03)

a. The opt out requirements in Sections 250, 251 and 400 do not apply when a licensee provides nonpublic personal financial information to a nonaffiliated third party to perform services for the licensee or functions on the licensee's behalf, if the licensee: (5-3-03)

i. Provides the initial notice in accordance with Section 100; and (5-3-03)

b. Example. If a licensee discloses nonpublic personal financial information under Section 450 to a financial institution with which the licensee performs joint marketing, the licensee's contractual agreement with that institution meets the requirements of Subparagraph 450.01.a.ii. of this rule if it prohibits the institution from disclosing or using the nonpublic personal financial information except as necessary to carry out the joint marketing or under an exception in Section 451 or 452 in the ordinary course of business to carry out that joint marketing. (5-3-03)

02. Service May Include Joint Marketing. The services a nonaffiliated third party performs for a licensee under Subsection 450.01 of this rule may include marketing of the licensee's own products or services or marketing of financial products or services offered pursuant to a written agreement between the licensee and one (1) or more financial institutions to jointly offer, endorse, or sponsor a financial product or service.
