iv. A request must be made for return of the bond within one (1) year of discharge of the offense for which the offender was serving parole. (4-11-15)

300. VICTIMS.

01. Process for Victims. The commission has established a process for victims of criminal offenses for which an offender is currently incarcerated and is not serving a retained jurisdiction. Victims of non-adjudicated cases may be given courtesy treatment. This includes victims who may not be in the instant offense and those removed from the instant offense as a result of the plea bargain process. The victims may be located in the hearing officer report or from another victim coordinator or the prosecutor. The Victim Coordinator will verify the victims with the prosecutor when not included with the instant offense. (3-8-16)

a. The commission will establish a record for victims of offenders who may be considered for parole, early discharge, or commutation, or pardon. To establish a victim record, the commission must receive official written notice from the clerk of the sentencing court or the county prosecutor's office; the commission will use all tools at its disposal and will exercise all due diligence to notify victims of their rights if this official notice has not been received. If the commission has not received official notice of the victim, the commission or staff may be advised of the victim's identity directly by the victim, victim's family or other individual. Commission staff will verify the name or names of the victim(s) with the county prosecutor and a record will be established. (3-8-16)

b. The commission will notify the victims of their right to be notified of parole, early discharge, and commutation hearings and the decision. Notification will inform victims of right to submit written statements or information and their right to provide testimony. (3-8-16)

Testimony may be given to the executive director or commissioner(s) at the commission office or other locations, or the victim may be allowed to testify before the commission during a hearing session, but at a time separate from the actual hearing with the offender. Such testimony will be made a part of the record. (4-11-15)

c. If the commission was not officially notified of the victim and does become aware of the victim's desire to be heard following a hearing, any scheduled release to parole may be held in abeyance until a decision is made by the commission. (3-23-98)

i. The commission may review any written testimony by the victim and may elect to take no further action, or may schedule another hearing, or may void the release date and reconsider the parole grant. (4-11-15)

ii. The executive director may schedule a hearing without the vote of the commission to allow for the victim's testimony. (3-23-98)

a. The proposed parole plan should be available at the parole hearing interview and parole consideration hearing and should include a stable residence, employment, or a maintenance and care plan, and treatment for alcohol or drug problems, mental health problems, sex offender treatment, after care treatment, or any other treatment deemed necessary. This plan will be formulated using the validated risk and needs assessment that is used by the department of correction. The plan will be developed to manage and mitigate offender risk and will address the offender's needs. (3-8-16)

b. Educational programs may be considered, but the offender must demonstrate how normal living, treatment, and transportation expenses, etc., will be paid for. (4-11-15)

c. All parole plans will be investigated by the supervising authority in the area in which the prospective parolee plans to reside, and necessary information will be submitted along with the investigation request. An Idaho plan can take a minimum of six (6) weeks and an out of state plan up to three (3) months to submit, investigate, and plan for release. (4-11-15)

02. Interstate Compact Parole Plan. The commission may grant parole and transfer supervision of an offender to another state under the Interstate Compact for Adult Offender Supervision Act, as outlined in Subsection 250.10. (4-11-15)

The parolee is required to be present at the violation or revocation hearing, unless waived by the offender with the exception of an absentia revocation hearing as explained in Subsection 400.06.h. (4-11-15)

02. Warrants. A warrant may be issued for the offender's arrest. (3-23-98)

a. A supervising agency may issue an investigative warrant referred to as an agent's warrant. The agent's warrant authorizes local law enforcement to transport the parolee to the appropriate jurisdiction to be housed pending an appearance before the commission. (4-11-15)

b. A commission warrant may be signed by the executive director or by a member or members of the commission. Issuance of this warrant suspends the offender's parole until a determination has been made on the merits of the case. (4-11-15)

i. If the location of the offender is unknown, the warrant will be entered into NCIC, I-HOT, or other law enforcement data base and will designate which states the commission will extradite the offender from once arrested. At any time the executive director or designee may change the area of extradition. (4-11-15)

ii. If an offender is being held in custody on new charges in a state other than Idaho, the warrant may be placed as a detainer only and written notice of this action will be submitted to the holding facility; if the detainer is officially served on the offender without notice of this action to the commission, the commission will not be held responsible for the time limits prescribed by law for service of charges. (3-8-16)

iii. If the offender is arrested in a state other than Idaho and refuses extradition to Idaho, it may be necessary to request a governor's warrant; during the time period in which the subject refuses to waive extradition, time incarcerated will not be credited toward the sentence. (3-23-98)

c. Parolees who have allegedly absconded from supervision are considered to be a Fugitive from Justice, starting from the day a Fugitive Warrant is issued by the commission and ending upon the day of arrest on that warrant. Per Idaho Code Section 20-228 upon issuance of a Fugitive Warrant parole is suspended and that time that a parolee is considered to be a Fugitive from Justice will not be counted towards the time on parole, or as part of the sentence. (3-8-16)

03. Due Process. Every parolee arrested on a commission warrant for alleged violation(s) of parole is entitled to pertinent due process including notice of the date, time and location of any and all hearings involved in the revocation process, the right to appear at a hearing and address the allegations, and to confront and cross-examine person(s) who have given adverse information on which the charges have been based. (4-11-15)

a. For a first parole violation other than absconding, the commission or hearing officer will cause the parolee to be confined for a period of up to ninety (90) days effective immediately upon either: (3-8-16)

i. The date of waiver document, which indicates the parolee's acknowledgment of guilt and acceptance of sanctions in lieu of a violation hearing; or (3-8-16)

ii. Notice of the hearing officer's decision in event the parolee did not waive the hearing. (3-8-16)

b. For a second parole violation other than absconding, the commission or hearing officer will cause the parolee to be confined for a period of up to one hundred eighty (180) days effective immediately upon either: (3-8-16)

ii. Notice of the hearing officer's decision in event the parolee did not waive the hearing. (3-8-16)

c. For a third or subsequent parole violation other than by absconding, a dispositional hearing will be convened during a regular session of the commission to execute an order of parole revocation and determine the period of time the parole violator will be returned to state custody. (3-8-16)

d. For a first violation by absconding, the commission or hearing officer will cause the parolee to be confined for a period of up to one hundred eighty (180) days effective immediately upon either: (3-8-16)

i. The date of waiver document, which indicates the parolee's acknowledgment of guilt and acceptance of sanctions in lieu of a violation hearing or entering the decision; or (3-8-16)

ii. Notice of the hearing officer's decision in event the parolee did not waive the hearing. (3-8-16)

e. For a second or subsequent parole violation by absconding, a dispositional hearing during a regular session of the commission will be convened to execute an order of parole revocation and determine the period of time the parole violator will be returned to state custody. (3-8-16)

f. During any period of confinement on an intermediate sanction, the commission or hearing officer may reduce the period of confinement by up to thirty (30) days if the commission or hearing officer finds that there has been no instance of misconduct during the period of time the parolee is confined. (3-8-16)

g. Upon successful completion of a term of intermediate sanctioning under this section, the parolee will be released to parole supervision unless prior to completing the sanction, the parolee is convicted of a violent misdemeanor or felony crime. If convicted of a violent misdemeanor or felony crime, the parolee will proceed through the formal violation process. (3-8-16)

h. The commission or hearing officer will use the intermediate sanctions pursuant to Section 20-229B, Idaho Code, to determine length of confinement. The criteria may include the parolee's supervision history, stability in the community, severity and type of violation(s), risk and needs assessment score, and the violations report by the parole officer. (3-8-16)

i. When the member or members or hearing officer, having heard the matter, conclude that the allegations of violation of the conditions of parole have not been proven by a preponderance of evidence, or those that have been proven by a preponderance of the evidence are not sufficient cause for the revocation of parole, then the parolee will be reinstated on parole on the same or modified conditions of parole. (3-8-16)

05. Witnesses. The alleged parole violator or the accusing parole officer may present witnesses in support of the claims of the allegations or in defense of the charges. (3-23-98)

a. The commission has no subpoena power to compel any witness to attend a hearing. The alleged parole violator may make a timely written request to the commission office for certain adverse witnesses to be available for cross-examination, and such request must include the name, address, telephone number, and relationship to the case; the hearing officer will make reasonable efforts to request their participation. (4-11-15)

b. If it is determined by the hearing officer or the executive director that the identification of an informant or the personal appearance of a witness would subject such person to risk or harm, confrontation or cross-examination will not be allowed and the record will reflect such determination. (3-23-98)

c. It is the alleged parole violator's responsibility and the accusing parole officer's responsibility to notify their witnesses of the date, time, and location of any and all hearings or change of hearings. (4-11-15)

06. Attorney. The alleged parole violator may utilize the services of an attorney at any hearing conducted during the revocation process. (3-23-98)

a. An attorney will be paid at the alleged parole violator's expense unless it is determined by a hearing officer for the commission, the executive director, or the commission that there is a colorable claim that the alleged violation(s) did not occur, that the alleged parole violator does not understand the proceedings, or is otherwise incapable of representing himself. (3-23-98)

b. It is the alleged parole violator's responsibility to notify his attorney of the date, time, and location of any and all hearings or change of hearings. The alleged parole violator's attorney may make a request of the commission office of any hearings and if requested in writing, the commission office will provide the attorney with copies of reports or documents that are public records according to the public records act. (3-8-16)

07. Hearings. The alleged parole violator will be advised of any and all hearing dates and locations within a reasonable time frame. The hearing officer or executive director will determine the location of all hearings. (4-11-15)

a. The subject may request continuance or waiver of any hearing which is subject to the final determination of the hearing officer, executive director, or the commission. (3-23-98)

b. The type of charges addressed in the allegations will determine the kinds of hearings available to the alleged parole violator. (3-23-98)

i. Non-technical Violations. If the alleged parole violator is convicted of a misdemeanor, or new felony, or is charged with absconding, the subject is not entitled to a preliminary or on-site hearing, but is entitled to a hearing to determine guilt or innocence within a reasonable time following service of the charges. (3-8-16)

ii. Technical Violations. If the alleged parole violator is charged with a violation of the conditions of parole other than a misdemeanor, or new felony criminal conviction, or absconding, the subject is entitled to a preliminary hearing within a reasonable amount of time. An on-site hearing will be conducted to determine guilt or innocence within thirty (30) days from the date the accused was served with the charges of the violation. (3-8-16)

c. Preliminary Hearing. A technical parole violator is entitled to a preliminary hearing to establish whether or not there is probable cause to believe the violations may have occurred, and such hearing will be conducted by staff of the supervising authority or as otherwise directed by the executive director. The alleged parole violator is entitled to a verbal or written decision within a reasonable time following the preliminary hearing. (4-11-15)

d. On-Site Hearing. A technical parole violator is entitled to an on-site hearing conducted by a hearing officer. The on-site hearing is conducted reasonably near the site of the alleged parole violation(s). The executive director or hearing officer will determine where the hearing will be conducted. In situations where the violation(s) occurred outside the state of Idaho, the executive director or hearing officer will determine the location of the hearing. Based on Interstate Compact rules, an on-site hearing may not be possible if charged and arrested in a state other than

- Idaho. (4-11-15)
- e. Violation Hearing. In most cases, a hearing officer will conduct a fact-finding or violation hearing and will make a finding on each allegation as to the guilt or innocence and may dismiss some or all allegations. If a hearing officer is unavailable, the executive director will appoint someone to conduct the hearing. The offender is entitled to a verbal or written decision within twenty (20) days of the violation hearing. (4-11-15)
 - f. Revocation. Pursuant to a violation hearing or waiver of such hearing and a finding of guilt was made on one (1) or more of the violations, the commission will consider whether or not parole will be revoked. (5-3-03)
 - i. The commission has full discretion in granting reinstatement on parole or revocation of parole. A hearing with the offender may be conducted or the decision may be made along with deliberation on an Absentia Parole Revocation. (see Subsections 400.07.g.i. and 400.07.g.ii.) The Commission will consider whether the parole will be reinstated or revoked and will state the reasoning if parole is revoked. (3-8-16)
 - g. Absentia Hearing. The commission can revoke parole without the subject's appearance if the subject has signed the proper commission form waiving the right to appear before the commission. The commission will determine if parole will be considered once the revocation decision has been made. (3-23-98)
 - i. If new criminal charges result in a new commitment and incarceration, the subject can admit guilt and waive an appearance at a violation or revocation hearing. (3-23-98)
 - ii. If the subject has absconded supervision and is reincarcerated in another state without a new conviction, the subject can admit guilt and waive an appearance at a violation or revocation hearing. (3-23-98)
