In the case of an Indian child, the child's tribe and any Indian custodian must also be provided with notice. This must not be construed to require that any foster parent, or relative providing care for the child be made a party to the review solely on the basis of the receipt of such notice. Participants have the right to be represented by the individual of their choice. (7-1-21)T

02. Procedure in the Six Month Review. The parties who received notice will be given the opportunity to participate in the case review. (7-1-21)T

03. Members of Six Month Review Panel. The six (6) month review panel must include a Department employee who is not in the direct line of supervision in the delivery of services to the child or parent or guardian. The review panel may include agency staff, staff of other agencies, officers of the court, members of Indian tribes, and citizens qualified by experience, professional background, or training. Members of the panel will be chosen by and receive instructions from an authorized representative in the Department's Division of Behavioral Health, to enable them to understand the review process and their roles as participants. (7-1-21)T

04. Considerations in Six Month Review. Whether conducted by the court in a review hearing or a Department review panel, under state law, federal law and regulation, each of the following must be addressed in a six (6) month review: (7-1-21)T

- a. Determine the extent of compliance with the treatment plan; (7-1-21)T
- b. Determine the extent of progress made toward alleviating or mitigating the causes necessitating the placement; (7-1-21)T
- c. Review compliance with the Indian Child Welfare Act, when applicable; (7-1-21)T
- d. Determine the safety of the child, the continuing need for and appropriateness of the child's placement; and (7-1-21)T
- e. Project a date by which the child may be returned and safely maintained at home or placed for adoption, guardianship, or other permanent placement. (7-1-21)T

05. Recommendations and Conclusions of Six Month Review Panel. Following the six (6) month review, written conclusions and recommendations will be provided to all participants, subject to Department safeguards for confidentiality. The document containing the written conclusions and recommendations must also include appeal rights. (7-1-21)T
