SUBCHAPTER A – GENERAL PROVISIONS (Rules 0-19)

000. LEGAL AUTHORITY (RULE 0).

This chapter is adopted under the legal authority of Title 67, Chapter 52, Idaho Code, and pursuant to Section 48-604(2), Idaho Code. (7-1-93)

001. TITLE AND SCOPE (RULE 1).

01. Title. These rules are titled “Idaho Rules of Consumer Protection, Office of the Attorney General,” IDAPA 04, Title 02, Chapter 01. (7-1-93)

02. Scope. These rules are intended to protect persons in the state of Idaho against unfair, false, deceptive, misleading or unconscionable acts or practices by defining with reasonable specificity some of the acts and practices that violate the Act. Further, they are intended to provide reasonable guidance to persons doing business in the State of Idaho. (7-1-93)

002. WRITTEN INTERPRETATIONS – AGENCY GUIDELINES (RULE 2).

In accordance with Section 67-5201(19)(b)(iv), Idaho Code, this agency has written statements that pertain to the interpretation of the rules of this chapter, or to the compliance with the rules of this chapter. The document is available for public inspection and copying at cost at the Office of the Attorney General, Consumer Protection Unit. (7-1-93)

003. RULES OF CONSTRUCTION (RULE 3).

Without limiting the scope of any section of the Act, or any other rule or law, these rules shall be liberally construed and applied to promote the general purposes and policies of the Act. (7-1-93)

004. NON-INCLUSIVE (RULE 4).

These rules are not intended to cover all trade practices that violate the provisions of the Act. Many areas of illegal practice in trade and commerce are not specifically encompassed by these rules, but are still actionable under the Act. (7-1-93)

005. CUMULATIVE (RULE 5).

These rules are intended to be cumulative in effect and supplementary to each other. If acts or practices are governed by more than one (1) rule, compliance with one (1) rule does not excuse violations of another applicable rule. (7-1-93)

006. NON-EXCLUSIVE (RULE 6).

These rules are in addition to, and do not affect, any other rights or obligations that may exist by statute or judicial decision. (7-1-93)

These rules are subject to the same exceptions as set forth in Section 48-605, Idaho Code. (7-1-93)

008. REGULATED PERSONS (RULE 8).

Enforcement activities taken pursuant to these rules shall not be commenced against persons licensed and regulated by any state regulatory board within the Department of Self-Governing Agencies or the United States Government when the actions or transactions are regulated by such regulatory board unless the Attorney General has first referred the matter in writing to the appropriate regulatory board. If at any time following the expiration of thirty (30) days from the time of forwarding the matter to the regulatory board the Attorney General is not satisfied with the progress or decision of the regulatory board, he may proceed to the extent of his jurisdiction under the Act. The 30-day provision will be abated to the extent that the regulatory board was given an express opportunity to review the matter prior to the time when the Attorney General began to consider the matter. The thirty (30) day provision may be waived in whole or in part if the Attorney General deems that the public interest requires prompt attention by the Attorney General. (7-1-93)

009. KNOWLEDGE (RULE 9).

These rules are not violated unless a person knows, or in exercise of due care should know, that he has in the past engaged in or is engaging in conduct specified or prohibited by the Act, or these rules. (7-1-93)

44. Send. To deliver, mail, provide, or cause to be mailed, delivered, or provided. (1-21-92)

45. Services. Work, labor, or any other act or practice provided or performed by a seller to or on behalf of a consumer. (1-21-92)

46. Subject to Financing Contract. An agreement whereby a consumer's obligation to purchase goods or services from a seller is contingent upon the obtaining of financing by, or on behalf of, a consumer. (1-21-92)

47. Trade and Commerce. Advertising, offering for sale, selling, leasing, renting, collecting debts arising out of the sale or lease of goods or services, or distributing goods or services, at any point in the marketing chain, either to or from locations within the State of Idaho, directly or indirectly affecting the people of this State. (7-1-93)

48. Trade Area. The geographic area where a seller is located and where the seller's advertisements are disseminated. (1-21-92)

b. Bona fide gifts; (1-21-92)

c. Additions to existing goods or services or levels of goods or services, already provided to consumers for which there is no separate and specific charge for such additions; (1-21-92)

d. The restructuring of existing goods or services or levels of goods or services already provided, pursuant to negative option notice requirements, where the restructuring does not result in a substantial change in goods or services; or (1-21-92)

51. Verifiable Retail Value. A price at which a seller can demonstrate that a substantial number of goods or services have been sold at retail by a person other than the seller. (7-1-93)

SUBCHAPTER C – FALSE, MISLEADING CONDUCT IN GENERAL
(Rules 30-39)

030. GENERAL RULE (RULE 30).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to make any claim or representation concerning goods or services which directly, or by implication, has the capacity, tendency, or effect of deceiving or misleading a consumer acting reasonably under the circumstances. An omission of a material or relevant fact shall be treated with the same effect as a false, misleading, or deceptive claim or representation, when such omission, on the basis of what has been stated or implied, would have the capacity, tendency, or effect of deceiving or misleading a consumer acting reasonably under the circumstances. With reference to goods or services, this prohibition includes, but is not limited to, factors relating to the cost, construction, durability, reliability, manner or time of performance, safety, strength, condition, life expectancy, ease of operation, problems associated with repair or maintenance, availability, or the benefit to be derived from the use of the goods or services. (1-21-92)

031. SUBSTANTIATION (RULE 31).

The responsibility for truthful advertising which does not have the capacity, tendency, or effect of deceiving or misleading consumers acting reasonably under the circumstances rests with the seller. Sellers must be able to substantiate all claims or offers made before such claims or offers are advertised. Sellers must maintain sufficient records to substantiate all representations made in their advertisements. (1-21-92)

032. CONTRADICTORY REPRESENTATIONS (RULE 32).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to make any claim or representation that is inconsistent with or contradictory to any written claim, representation, or provision which is contained in any contract, document, or instrument evidencing a transaction. (1-21-92)

033. VIOLATIONS OF OTHER LAWS AND COURT ORDERS (RULE 33).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for any seller to engage in trade or commerce if in so doing the seller or the seller's goods or services fail to comply with: (1-21-92)

01. Federal and State Laws. Any Federal Trade Commission rule or regulation, the disclosure requirements of either the federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. Section 1601 et seq.) and Regulation Z promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 C.F.R. Section 226) or the federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. Section 1667 et seq.) and Regulation M promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board (12 C.F.R. Section 213), or any State of Idaho statute or rule that identifies conduct in trade and commerce as unfair or deceptive or a violation of the Act. (7-1-93)

02. Federal Trade Commission Consent Decree. Any Federal Trade Commission Consent Decree in which the seller is a party to the decree. (1-21-92)

03. Judicial Order. Any judgment, injunction, order, or other relief obtained by the Federal Trade Commission in any action brought in a United States District Court in which the seller is a party or otherwise subject to the court's decrees and orders. (1-21-92)

034. OFFICIAL, GOVERNMENTAL, OR OTHER MISLEADING ENVELOPES OR OFFERS (RULE 34).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for any seller to use any printing styles, graphics, layouts, text, colors, or formats on envelopes or on the offer which implies, creates an appearance, or would lead a reasonable person to believe that the offer originates from or is issued by or on behalf of a government or public agency, public utility, public organization, insurance company, credit reporting agency, bill collecting company or a law firm, unless the same is true. (1-21-92)

035. INVOICES AND BILLS (RULE 35).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to advertise by use of any written or documentary material that has the tendency, capacity, or effect of misleading a consumer, acting reasonably under the circumstances, that the advertisement is an invoice or bill. (7-1-93)

036. MAILBOX ADDRESSES (RULE 36).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to refer to a U.S. Post Office box number or a private mail service box number in trade and commerce as a "suite," "department," "office," "apartment," or any other term or abbreviation that has the tendency, capacity, or effect of misleading a consumer, acting reasonably under the circumstances, to believe that the reference pertains to anything other than a box number at a U.S. Post Office or at a private mailbox service. (7-1-93)

037. -- 039. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER D – DISCLOSURE OF CONDITIONS IN OFFER
(Rules 40-49)

040. GENERAL RULE (RULE 40).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to offer goods or services with material contingencies, conditions, or qualifications attendant to the offer unless such contingencies, conditions, or qualifications are clearly and conspicuously disclosed in connection with the initial offer. (1-21-92)

041. SUBSEQUENT DISCLOSURE (RULE 41).

Subsequent disclosure to the consumer of such material contingencies, conditions, or qualifications attendant to an initial offer, even if prior to consummation of the transaction relating to the offer, is not a defense to the requirements of CPR 40. (1-21-92)

042. -- 049. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER E – BAIT AND SWITCH SALES
(Rules 50-59)

050. GENERAL RULE (RULE 50).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to engage in bait-and-switch sales tactics. (1-21-92)

051. INITIAL OFFER (RULE 51).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to create a false impression of the grade, quality, quantity, make, value, age, size, color, usability, availability, or origin of the goods or services offered, or which may otherwise misrepresent the goods or services in such a manner that later, on disclosure of the true facts, there is a likelihood that the consumer may be switched from the advertised goods or services to other goods or services. Even though the true facts are subsequently made known to the consumer, subchapter E is violated if the first contact or interview is secured by a bait-and-switch offer. (7-1-93)

052. DISCOURAGEMENT OF PURCHASE OF ADVERTISED MERCHANDISE (RULE 52).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to discourage the purchase of the advertised goods or services as part of a bait-and-switch scheme to sell other goods or services. For example, among acts or practices which will be considered in determining if an advertisement is a bona fide offer are: (1-21-92)

01. Refusal to Show. The refusal to reasonably show, demonstrate, or sell the goods or services advertised or otherwise offered in accordance with the terms of the initial offer. (1-21-92)

02. Disparagement. The disparagement by acts or words of the advertised goods or services or disparagement with respect to the guarantee, credit terms, availability of service, repairs, or parts, or in any other respect, in connection with the advertised goods or services. (1-21-92)

03. Availability. The failure to have available at all outlets listed in the advertisement a sufficient quantity of the advertised goods or services to meet reasonably expected public demand, as defined in CPR 103, unless the advertisement clearly and conspicuously discloses that the supply of a particular good is limited and/or the goods or services are available only at designated outlets, or unless the advertisement discloses that a particular good is to be closed out or offered for a limited time. Issuing of "rain checks" of goods or offering comparable or better goods at the sale price will be considered a mitigating circumstance, unless there is a pattern of inadequate inventory or the inadequate inventory was intentional. (7-1-93)

04. Refusal to Take Orders. The refusal to take orders for the advertised goods or services to be delivered within a reasonable period of time. (1-21-92)

05. Showing Impractical Goods or Services. The showing or demonstrating of goods or services which are defective, unusable, or impractical for the purpose represented or implied in the advertisement. (1-21-92)

06. Compensation Plans. The use of a sales plan or method of compensation for salesmen which is designed to prevent or discourage them from selling the advertised goods or services. This does not prohibit compensating salesmen by use of a commission. (1-21-92)

053. SWITCH AFTER SALE (RULE 53).

In the event of a sale of the advertised goods or services, it is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to attempt to "unsell" the advertised goods or services with the intent and purpose of selling other goods or services in their stead, except when the parties are bargaining for a bona fide trade-in. (1-21-92)

054. PATTERN OF CONDUCT (RULE 54).

The fact that a seller occasionally sells the advertised goods or services at the advertised price shall not constitute a defense to a charge that the seller has engaged in bait-and-switch tactics. (1-21-92)

055. LEADER ITEMS (RULE 55).

Nothing in subchapter E shall prevent a seller from advertising goods and services with the hope that consumers will buy goods or services in addition to those advertised. (7-1-93)

056. -- 059. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER F – DECEPTIVE, COMPARATIVE, REFERENCE, AND WHOLESALE PRICING
(Rules 60-69)

060. DECEPTIVE PRICING -- GENERAL RULE (RULE 60).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to represent or imply that: (1-21-92)

01. Misrepresentations. Goods or services may be purchased for a specified price, if such is not the case. (1-1-79)

02. Reduced Price. Goods or services are being offered for sale at a reduced price, if such is not the case. For example, a firm publishes a catalog or brochure entitled “pre-Christmas sale.” Some of the items in the catalog are being offered at a reduced price, but others are not. On the non-sale (discounted) items, the advertisement should disclose that the item is being offered at the everyday price or the sales items should be clearly identified as such. If none of the advertised items are being offered at a reduced price, then it is inappropriate to use a term such as “sale.” (1-1-79)

03. Hidden Costs. A stated price is for complete or functional goods or services, if, in fact, there are additional hidden costs which must be expended in order to make the goods or services complete or functional. (1-1-79)

04. Services. A stated price of goods or services includes certain services, such as delivery, installation, service or adjustments, or includes parts or accessories, if such is not the case. (1-1-79)

05. Specific Goods or Services. A stated price applies to all sizes or types of goods or services, if the stated price is in fact applicable only to certain sizes or types of goods or services. (1-21-92)

06. Inventory. A stated price reduction applies to an entire inventory or grouping of goods when it only applies to isolated items within the inventory or grouping. (1-1-79)

061. COMPARATIVE PRICING -- GENERAL RULE (RULE 61).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to represent by any means which has the capacity, tendency, or effect of deceiving or misleading a consumer acting reasonably under the circumstances as to the value of the past, present, common, or usual price of goods or services, or as to any reduction in the price of goods or services, or any savings relating to the cost or price of the goods or services. (1-21-92)

01. Savings or Value Claims. Savings or value claims utilized in connection with terms such as “originally,” “formerly,” “regularly,” “usually,” “list price,” “compare at,” or other like terms, expressions or representations must be based on facts provable by the seller: (1-1-79)

a. By the seller’s own records; or (1-21-92)

b. By reasonably substantial competitive sales in the trade area where such claims or representations are made, under circumstances and conditions represented or implied by the claims or representations. (1-21-92)

02. Comparison Claims. The use of such terms as “reduced,” “sale,” “special price,” “originally,” “formerly,” “slashed,” etc. are deemed to be comparisons between the seller’s present prices and his bona fide, regular prices. Terms such as “list price,” “compare at,” “comparable value,” “suggested price,” etc. are deemed to be comparisons between the seller’s present prices and the prevailing competitors’ prices. Terms such as “discount,” “usually,” “regularly,” etc., which have a vague meaning are presumed to be a comparison between the seller’s present prices and his bona fide, regular prices, unless the seller states otherwise in his advertising or sales promotion. (1-21-92)

062. COMPARISONS OF SELLER'S PRESENT PRICES TO SELLER'S FORMER PRICES (RULE 62).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to: (1-21-92)

01. Fictitious Prices. Offer goods or services by representations comparing present prices to former prices of the seller, if the seller establishes a fictitious or inflated former price for a short period of time and for the purpose of subsequently offering a reduction. For example, a seller usually sells a certain pen for a regular price of seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50), but he raises the price of the pen to an inflated price of ten dollars ($10) for a short period of time. He then “cuts” the price to its usual level of seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50), and advertises: “Terrific Bargain: Were $10.00, Now Only $7.50”; or (1-1-79)

02. Bona Fide Regular Price. Offer goods or services by representations comparing present prices to former prices of the seller, if the former price was merely an asking price and was not the bona fide, regular price at which such goods or services were openly, actively, and actually offered for sale or sold. (7-1-93)

063. COMPETITOR RETAIL PRICE COMPARISONS (RULE 63).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to offer goods or services by representations comparing the prices of the seller’s goods or services to the prices of identical goods or services of competitors, unless the seller can substantiate that the represented prices of the competitor’s goods or services are in fact the actual prices charged by the competitor in the same trade area, at the same point in time or on the date(s) clearly and conspicuously disclosed in the advertisement. If a price is stated without clear and conspicuous disclosure of a date on which it was in effect, it shall be presumed to be the current price. (7-1-93)

064. COMPARABLE PRICE COMPARISONS (RULE 64).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to offer goods or services by representations comparing the prices of the seller’s goods or services to the prices of comparable, but not identical, goods or services of a competitor’s, unless the seller can substantiate that the goods or services compared are substantially similar in grade and quality and the represented prices of the competitor’s goods or services are in fact the actual prices charged by the competitor in the same trade area, at the same point in time or on the date(s) clearly and conspicuously disclosed in the advertisement. If a price is stated without clear and conspicuous disclosure of a date on which it was in effect, it shall be presumed to be the current price. (7-1-93)

065. REFERENCE RETAIL PRICING PRACTICES (RULE 65).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to offer goods or services by representations comparing present prices to “manufacturer’s suggested prices,” or similar language establishing or implying base reference price comparisons, unless such reference price represents, in fact, a good faith, honest estimate of the regular price at which a substantial number of sales of the goods or services are made by comparable sellers in the same trade area or unless federal or state law permits or requires the disclosure of the price suggested by the manufacturer. CPR 65 applies with the same force and effect regardless of whether the advertiser is a national or regional manufacturer or supplier, a mail-order or catalog seller, or a local retailer, and regardless of whether the prices, establishing a basis for comparison, are advertised or pre-ticketed. (7-1-93)

066. WHOLESALE, FACTORY DIRECT, OR SIMILAR CLAIMS (RULE 66).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to: (1-21-92)

01. Factory. Describe itself or its goods by using the terms “factory direct,” “factory to you,” “direct from maker,” “factory outlet,” or words of similar meaning in its advertisements unless the seller’s goods are actually manufactured by the seller or in factories owned or controlled by the seller. (1-21-92)

02. Wholesaler. Describe itself by using the terms “wholesaler,” “wholesale outlet,” “distributor,” or words of similar meaning in its advertisements unless the seller actually owns and operates or directly and absolutely controls a wholesale or distribution facility which primarily sells goods to retailers for resale. A seller to which this provision applies may in addition be subject to CPR 66.03 and CPR 66.04 below. (1-21-92)

03. Cost. Use in connection with the advertising or sale of any goods or services, the terms “cost,” “invoice price,” “factory invoice,” “factory billing,” or terms of similar meaning or import or other representations that a good or service will be sold at, above, or below the seller’s actual cost unless such is true. (7-1-93)

04. Wholesale Prices. State or imply that any goods or services are being offered at “wholesale” prices or to use a term of similar meaning unless the prices are in fact at or below the current prices which most retailers in the trade area usually and customarily pay when they buy such goods or services for resale. (1-21-92)

067. LIMITED OFFERS (RULE 67).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice to offer goods or services by representations that the offer is “limited” unless the offer is in fact limited in duration or scope, or that the offer is an advance sale or introductory offer, and the seller in good faith expects to increase the price at a later date. (7-1-93)

068. SUBSTANTIATION (RULE 68).

A seller shall keep records or other documentary proof for a period of two (2) years which establish and substantiate the price claims and comparisons made. Failure to do so shall create a rebuttable presumption that the seller lacked a reasonable basis for the claims and comparisons made. (1-21-92)

069. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER G – USE OF THE WORD “FREE” AND SIMILAR REPRESENTATIONS
(Rules 70-79)

070. GENERAL RULE (RULE 70).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to: (1-21-92)

01. Free No Cost Offers. Offer any goods or services as free, by use of the word “free” or other term of similar import, unless receipt of the free goods or services by a consumer is without added cost to the consumer; provided, however, that the consumer may be required to pay necessary delivery charges to the United States Post Office or a regulated public carrier if such fact is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in the offer and provided that the consumer may be required to purchase goods at their regular price as a precondition of entitlement to the free goods if such fact is readily apparent to a consumer acting reasonably under the circumstances or is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in the offer. (1-21-92)

02. Free With Cost Offers. Offer any goods or services as “free,” “2 for 1,” “1-cent Sale,” or other term of similar import, if the seller increases the price of the base goods or services above their regular price or if the seller reduces the quality, quantity or size of the base goods or services. (1-1-79)

071. TIE-IN SALES (RULE 71).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to offer any goods or services as free, by use of the word “free” or other term of similar import, if the seller fails to clearly and conspicuously disclose at the outset all terms, conditions, and obligations upon which receipt and retention of the free items are contingent. (1-21-92)

072. CONDITIONAL OFFERS (RULE 72).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to offer any goods or services as free, by use of the word “free” or other term of similar import, when the consumer is obligated to perform conditions which are not readily apparent to a consumer acting reasonably under the circumstances or are not clearly and conspicuously disclosed. (1-21-92)

073. USE OF SIMILAR TERMS (RULE 73).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to meet the provisions of subchapter G by substitution of such similar words and terms as “gift,” “given without charge,” “at no cost,” “complimentary,” “bonus,” or other words or terms which tend to convey the impression to the consuming public that goods or services are free. (7-1-93)

074. ASTERISKS (RULE 74).

For purposes of this rule, disclosure of the terms of the offer set forth in a footnote of an advertisement to which reference is made by an asterisk or other symbol placed next to the offer, does not constitute a clear and conspicuous disclosure at the outset. (1-21-92)

075. DELIVERY CHARGES (RULE 75).

In all instances in which delivery charges, which include all shipping and handling charges, exceed ten dollars, pursuant to an offer subject to subchapter G, the total amount of such charges shall be clearly and conspicuously disclosed in the offer. Negative option membership plans operated in compliance with the Federal Trade Commission Rule on Use of Negative Option Plans by Sellers in Commerce (16 C.F.R. Section 425) are exempt from the provisions of CPR 75. (7-1-93)

076. -- 079. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER H – PROMOTIONAL GAMES AND ADVERTISING AND DECEPTIVE USE OF GIFTS
(Rules 80-89)

080. NO PURCHASE REQUIRED FOR CHANCE PROMOTIONS (RULE 80).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to offer, initiate, promote, or solicit participation in any kind of game of chance, contest, sweepstakes, or promotion in which goods or services are distributed by random or chance selection that requires any kind of entry fee, service charge, purchase, payments to information providers, or other obligation in order to enter or participate in the promotion or receive any of the offered awards, prizes, or gifts. Those persons authorized by Title 67, Chapter 77, Idaho Code, to conduct bingo and raffle games for charitable purposes, if conducted in conformity with Title 67, Chapter 77, Idaho Code, and negative option membership plans operated in compliance with the Federal Trade Commission Rule on Use of Negative Option Plans by Sellers in Commerce (16 C.F.R. Section 425) are exempt from CPR 80. (7-1-93)

081. DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS IN GIFT PROMOTIONS (RULE 81).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to offer, in writing, any goods or services, without obligation, as an inducement to a consumer to attend an in-person sales presentation or contact the seller by telephone or by mail, but only if the seller follows up the consumer's mail contact with a telephone contact, unless the offer clearly and conspicuously discloses in writing all of the following: (7-1-93)

01. Name and Address. The name and street address of the seller of the goods or services which are the subject of the sales presentation or contact with the seller. If the offer is made by an independent contractor of the seller, or is made under a name other than the true name of the seller, the name of the seller shall be more prominently and conspicuously displayed than the name of the independent contractor or other name. (1-21-92)

02. Purpose of Contact. The purpose of the requested sales presentation or contact with the seller, which shall include a general description of the goods or services that are the subject of the sales presentation and a clear statement, if applicable, that there will be a sales presentation and the approximate duration of the sales presentation. (7-1-93)

03. Odds. If the consumer is not assured of receiving any particular good or service, a statement of the odds of receiving each good or service offered. The odds "100,000" or "1:100,000." The odds shall be printed in a type size that is at least equal to that used for the standard text on the front (or first) page of the offer. (7-1-93)

04. Conditions. All restrictions, qualifications, and other conditions that must be satisfied before the consumer is entitled to receive the good or service, including but not limited to: (7-1-93)

a. Any deadline by which the consumer must attend the sales presentation or contact the seller in order to receive the good or service; and (7-1-93)

b. Any other conditions, such as a minimum age qualification, a financial qualification, or a requirement that if the consumer is married both husband and wife must be present in order to receive the good or service. Any financial qualifications shall be stated with specificity sufficient to enable the person to reasonably determine his or her eligibility; (7-1-93)

05. Verifiable Retail Value. The verifiable retail value of each good or service the consumer has been offered, awarded, or may be awarded. (7-1-93)

06. No Purchase Necessary. That no purchase is necessary in order to receive the goods or services that have been offered to the consumer as an inducement to attend the in-person sales presentation or contact the seller by telephone or by mail, but only if the seller follows up the consumer's mail contact with a telephone contact. (7-1-93)

07. Other Requirements. All other rules, terms and conditions of the offer, plan, or program. (1-21-92)

082. MISLEADING OFFERS (RULE 82).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for any seller making an offer subject to Subchapter H to: (7-1-93)

01. Misrepresent Goods or Services. Misrepresent the size, availability, quantity, identity, value, or qualities of any good or service. (7-1-93)

02. Misrepresent Odds. Misrepresent in any manner the odds of receiving any particular good or service. (7-1-93)

03. Specially Selected. Represent directly or by implication that the number of participants has been significantly limited or that any consumer has been specially selected to receive a particular good or service unless that is the fact. (7-1-93)

04. Labeling Offers. Label any offer a notice of termination or notice of cancellation. (7-1-93)

05. Misrepresent Offer. Misrepresent, in any manner, the offer, plan, program, or the affiliation, connection, association, or contractual relationship between the person making the offer and the owner, if they are not the same. (1-21-92)

06. Tendency to Mislead. Use publications, literature, or any written or verbal promotion that has the capacity, tendency, or effect of misleading or deceiving a consumer acting reasonably under the circumstances. (7-1-93)

07. Fail to Deliver. Fail to deliver the good or service to the consumer, at no expense to him or her, within ten (10) business days of the date of the initial contact by the seller to the consumer. Negative option membership plans operated in compliance with the Federal Trade Commission Rule on Use of Negative Option Plans by Sellers in Commerce (16 C.F.R. Section 425) are exempt from CPR 82.07. (7-1-93)

083. -- 089. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER I – GOING-OUT-OF-BUSINESS SALES
(Rules 90-99)

090. GENERAL RULE (RULE 90).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to advertise a going-out-of-business sale, unless the circumstances are in fact true and the going-out-of-business sale prices for goods or services are in fact lower than the regular prices of such goods or services. (1-21-92)

091. INFLATING INVENTORY (RULE 91).

No goods may be ordered for, or in anticipation of, a going-out-of-business sale, except in accordance with sound commercial practices. For example, it would be considered commercially sound to order a dryer that matches an existing washing machine. For purposes of subchapter I, all goods ordered within thirty (30) days prior to the beginning of a going-out-of-business sale shall create a rebuttable presumption that such goods were ordered in anticipation of a going-out-of-business sale. (7-1-93)

092. -- 099. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER J – INSUFFICIENT SUPPLY/LIMITATION ON QUANTITY
(Rules 100-109)

100. GENERAL RULE (RULE 100).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to advertise goods or services with intent not to have sufficient quantity of the goods, or sufficient facilities to render the services, to satisfy reasonably expected public demand unless the quantity is clearly and conspicuously advertised as limited. (1-21-92)

101. RAIN CHECKS (RULE 101).

If the seller issues rain checks for goods for which the advertisement does not clearly and conspicuously disclose that quantities are limited, such “rain checks” will be considered a mitigating circumstance, unless there is a pattern of inadequate inventory, or the inadequate inventory was intentional. (1-21-92)

102. SUBSTITUTE GOODS (RULE 102).

If the seller offers comparable or better goods at the sale price, such practice will be considered a mitigating circumstance, unless there is a pattern of inadequate inventory, or the inadequate inventory was intentional. (1-21-92)

103. DETERMINATION OF REASONABLY EXPECTED PUBLIC DEMAND (RULE 103).

Reasonably expected public demand shall be construed with respect to the following factors: (1-21-92)

01. Records of Past Sales. The record of past sales by a seller. (1-21-92)

SUBCHAPTER K – DISCLOSURE OF PRIOR USE
(Rules 110-119)

110. GENERAL RULE (RULE 110).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to represent, directly or indirectly, that goods are new or unused, or that any part of a good is new or unused, if such is not in fact true, or to misrepresent the extent of previous use of goods. (1-21-92)

111. DISCLOSURE REQUIRED (RULE 111).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to advertise, offer for sale, or sell any goods, as new goods, which are used, or contain used parts, are rebuilt, remanufactured, reconditioned, or contain rebuilt, remanufactured, or reconditioned parts, if such is not in fact true, unless clear and conspicuous disclosure of such characteristics or attributes is made to the consumer prior to the sale. There is a rebuttable presumption that a seller offers or advertises goods as new goods, unless clear and conspicuous disclosure to the contrary is provided. (1-21-92)

112. ACCEPTABLE DISCLOSURES (RULE 112).

The disclosure that goods have been used or contains used parts as required by CPR 111, may be made by use of a word or words such as, but not limited to, “used,” “second hand,” “demonstrator,” “repossessed,” “repaired,” “remanufactured,” “reconditioned,” or “rebuilt,” etc., whichever is applicable to the product involved. (7-1-93)

113. RETURNED GOODS (RULE 113).

Goods are not considered used if a prior consumer was given a full refund or exchange for the goods, in the normal course of business, and if the goods are not known to presently or formerly have defects. (1-1-79)

114. -- 119. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER L – ESTIMATES
(Rules 120-129)

120. GENERAL RULE (RULE 120).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice in connection with the furnishing of any repairs or improvements to goods, and in any rendering of services, for a seller to unreasonably understate or misstate the estimated price, whether such estimate be oral or written, or whether such estimate be formal or indirect; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to require that an estimate actually be furnished. (1-21-92)

121. UNFORESEEABLE CONDITIONS (RULE 121).

If an estimate is given, it is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to fail to obtain oral or written authorization in advance of performing additional and related, unforeseen, but necessary, repairs or improvements or services if such repairs, improvements, or services would unreasonably increase the originally estimated price.

122. EXPRESS LIMITED AUTHORIZATION (RULE 122).

When a person expressly limits the authorized price of any repairs, improvements, or services, it is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to exceed such authorization without first obtaining the express oral or written consent of such person.

SUBCHAPTER M – REPAIRS AND IMPROVEMENTS
(Rules 130-139)

130. GENERAL RULE (RULE 130).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to:

01. Necessity of Repairs. Represent that repairs or improvements are necessary when such is not the fact or perform and charge for unnecessary repairs. (1-21-92)

02. Completion of Repairs. Represent that repairs or improvements have been made when such is not the fact. (1-1-79)

03. Misrepresent Danger. Represent that the goods being inspected or diagnosed are in a dangerous condition or that the person's continued use of the goods may be harmful when such is not the fact. (1-1-79)

04. Liens. Wrongfully permit, by action or inaction, any mechanic's or materialmen's lien, or any other lien, to be filed or perfected against goods being repaired or improved, or wrongfully retain possession of the subject goods, when the owner or consumer has tendered payment in full or has tendered payment in accordance with the contract authorizing the repair or improvement. (1-21-92)

05. Model Jobs. In the case of any improvement to real property, represent falsely that the improvement is to serve as a "model" or "advertising job" or similarly mislead the consumer that a price reduction or other compensation will be received by reason of such real property improvement. (1-21-92)

131. ITEMIZED BILLING (RULE 131).

Unless there is an express contract setting forth a lump-sum basis for compensation, it is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to fail to provide, upon specific request, one itemized billing, statement, or copy of a work order, which includes:

(1-21-92)

01. Labor Charges. Labor charges, designating the number of hours and the rate per hour; or designating the flat rate labor charge or job rate if such repairs or improvements are customarily done and billed on a flat rate labor charge or job rate price basis; or, when a minimum charge is imposed, designating that fact. (1-21-92)

02. Parts and Materials. Parts and materials, designating each item that is separately included in calculating the total billing, and designating whether such parts or materials are used or rebuilt. (1-21-92)

03. Other Charges. Miscellaneous charges, designating the reason for the charge and the basis for calculation of the charge. (1-1-79)

04. Unit Pricing. Alternatively, where the agreement sets forth a price per unit, then the number of units being billed at that price. For example, a contract provides for carpeting and installation at ten dollars ($10) per yard. The itemized billing would state "92 yards carpeting at $10 per yard equals $920." (1-1-79)

132. OLD OR REPLACED PARTS (RULE 132).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to:

(1-21-92)

01. Inspection. Fail, upon request, to return or allow inspection of old or replaced parts upon completion of repairs or improvements. (1-1-79)

02. Retaining Old Parts. Retain old or replaced parts for reuse or resale, after request has been made for their return, unless such retention is made known to the consumer prior to performing any repairs or improvements, or unless the seller is able to demonstrate that he had made a bona fide price reduction for the newly installed parts in consideration for keeping the old or replaced parts, or unless the replacement was made under a warranty. (1-1-79)

133. -- 139. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER N – TIME OF DELIVERY OR PERFORMANCE INCLUDING MAIL ORDER SALES

02. Failure to Deliver. Fail to deliver goods or perform services, which have been ordered in person or otherwise, within a reasonable time following a specified delivery or performance date or within a reasonable time following the receipt of payment, unless the seller can show circumstances beyond his control and not within his knowledge at the time the order was accepted which prevented the seller from meeting the specified delivery date, and unless the seller can further show that he has given timely notice to the consumer of any such delay. (1-21-92)

141. MAIL ORDER SALES (RULE 141).

In connection with any mail order sale, pursuant to CPR 33, it is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to fail to comply with the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Rule on Mail Order Merchandise (16 C.F.R. 435). (7-1-93)

02. Failure to Lay Aside Goods. Fail to actually lay aside the specific goods chosen by the consumer or exact duplicates, unless a clear and conspicuous disclosure to the contrary is made to the consumer. (1-21-92)

06. Failure to Deliver. Fail to deliver to the consumer, upon request, at any time payment is made, a receipt showing the amount of that payment and the date thereof and, upon request, an itemized statement showing the amount previously paid and the amount still owing. (1-21-92)

151. REFUNDS OF LAY-AWAY PAYMENTS (RULE 151).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to fail to clearly and conspicuously disclose, or to misrepresent in any manner: (1-21-92)

01. Possible Default or Cancellation. The seller's policy with reference to the consumer's possible default or cancellation. (1-21-92)

02. Refund Policy. The seller's policy with respect to refund of payments made prior to the consumer's default or cancellation. (1-21-92)

SUBCHAPTER P – UNFAIR SOLICITATION PRACTICES AT OTHER THAN TRADE PREMISES
(Rules 160-169)

160. DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS (RULE 160).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to solicit a sale or order for sale of goods or services at other than appropriate trade premises, in person or by means of telephone, without clearly, affirmatively, and expressly revealing at the time the seller initially contacts the consumer, and before making any other statement, except a greeting, or asking the consumer any other questions, that the purpose of the contact is to effect a sale, by doing all of the following: (1-21-92)

01. Solicitor's Identity. Stating the identity of the person making the solicitation. (1-1-79)

b. The trade name of the seller represented by the person making the solicitation; and (1-21-92)

c. The address of the place of business of one of such persons so identified. (1-1-79)

161. GENERAL RULE (RULE 161).

03. Leaving Premises. Fail to promptly leave the premises at which a sales solicitation or presentation is made when the consumer has indicated he does not wish to buy, lease, rent, or order the offered goods or services, or has requested that the person leave the premises. (1-21-92)

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller: (7-1-93)

01. Misrepresentations About How or Why Consumer Selected. In soliciting a sale or order for the sale of goods or services, either in person or by telephone, at other than appropriate trade premises, to: (7-1-93)

a. Represent that the seller making the solicitation is making an offer to specially selected persons or that the consumer has been specifically selected, unless the selection process is designed to reach a particular type or types of persons; or (7-1-93)

b. Represent that the seller making the solicitation is conducting a survey, test, or research project, or is engaged in a contest or other venture to win a cash award, scholarship, vacation, or similar prize, if in fact the principal purpose or objective is to make a sale of goods or services or to obtain information to help identify sales prospects. (1-21-92)

02. Misleading Practices. In soliciting a sale or order for the sale of goods or services, either in person or by telephone, at other than appropriate trade premises, to misrepresent, directly or by implication: (7-1-93)

a. The identity of the seller, the person on whose behalf the seller is making solicitations, the seller's affiliation or association with other firms, businesses, or governmental entities, or the identity of the goods or services he offers to sell. For example, the X City Fire Department is putting on a fireman's ball. It hires a professional solicitor who is getting a percentage of the proceeds. The solicitor and his employees and agents should identify themselves on the telephone as follows: "I am Pat Telemarketer of XYZ Productions and I am calling for the X City Fire Department." (1-21-92)

b. The reasons for, existence of, or amounts of price reductions; (1-1-79)

c. The length of any sales presentation; (1-21-92)

165. -- 169. (RESERVED)

SUBCHAPTER Q – COOLING-OFF PERIOD FOR DOOR-TO-DOOR SALES
(Rules 170-179)

170. GENERAL RULE (RULE 170).
In connection with any door-to-door sale, it is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to: (1-21-92)

01. Written Disclosures. Fail to furnish the consumer with a fully completed receipt or copy of any contract pertaining to such sale at the time of its execution, which is in the same language, e.g., Spanish, as that principally used in the oral sales presentation and which shows the date of the transaction and contains the name and street address of the seller, and the following statement in ten (10) point type in immediate proximity to the space reserved in the contract for the signature of the consumer or on the front page of the receipt if a contract is not used: YOU, THE BUYER, MAY CANCEL THIS TRANSACTION AT ANY TIME PRIOR TO MIDNIGHT OF THE THIRD BUSINESS DAY AFTER THE DATE OF THIS TRANSACTION. SEE THE ATTACHED NOTICE OF CANCELLATION FORM FOR AN EXPLANATION OF THIS RIGHT. (1-21-92)

02. Notice of Cancellation. Fail to furnish each consumer, at the time he signs the door-to-door sales contract or otherwise agrees to buy goods or services from the seller, a completed form in duplicate, captioned "NOTICE OF CANCELLATION," which shall be attached to the contract or receipt and easily detachable, and contain in ten (10) point bold face type the following statement in the same language, e.g., Spanish, as that used in the contract:

NOTICE OF CANCELLATION

YOU MAY CANCEL THIS TRANSACTION, WITHOUT ANY PENALTY OR OBLIGATION, WITHIN THREE BUSINESS DAYS FROM THE ABOVE DATE.

IF YOU CANCEL, ANY PROPERTY TRADED IN, ANY PAYMENTS MADE BY YOU UNDER THE CONTRACT OR SALE, AND ANY NEGOTIABLE INSTRUMENT EXECUTED BY YOU WILL BE RETURNED WITHIN 10 BUSINESS DAYS FOLLOWING RECEIPT BY THE SELLER OF YOUR CANCELLATION NOTICE, AND ANY SECURITY INTEREST ARISING OUT OF THE TRANSACTION WILL BE CANCELLED.

IF YOU CANCEL, YOU MUST MAKE AVAILABLE TO THE SELLER AT YOUR RESIDENCE, IN SUBSTANTIALLY AS GOOD CONDITION AS WHEN RECEIVED, ANY GOOD DELIVERED TO YOU UNDER THIS CONTRACT OR SALE; OR YOU MAY IF YOU WISH, COMPLY WITH THE INSTRUCTIONS OF THE SELLER REGARDING THE RETURN SHIPMENT OF THE GOODS AT THE SELLER'S EXPENSE AND RISK.

IF YOU DO MAKE THE GOODS AVAILABLE TO THE SELLER AND THE SELLER DOES NOT PICK THEM UP WITHIN 20 DAYS OF THE DATE OF YOUR NOTICE OF CANCELLATION, YOU MAY RETAIN OR DISPOSE OF THE GOODS WITHOUT ANY FURTHER OBLIGATION. IF YOU FAIL TO MAKE THE GOODS AVAILABLE TO THE SELLER, OR IF YOU AGREE TO RETURN THE GOODS TO THE SELLER AND FAIL TO DO SO, THEN YOU REMAIN LIABLE FOR PERFORMANCE OF ALL OBLIGATIONS UNDER THE CONTRACT.

TO CANCEL THIS TRANSACTION, MAIL OR DELIVER A SIGNED AND DATED COPY OF THIS CANCELLATION NOTICE OR ANY OTHER WRITTEN NOTICE, OR SEND A TELEGRAM, TO (address of seller's place of business) NOT LATER THAN MIDNIGHT OF (Date). (1-21-92)

03. Completed Notice of Cancellation. Fail, before furnishing copies of the "Notice of Cancellation" to the consumer, to complete both copies by entering the name of the seller, the address of the seller's place of business, the date of the transaction, and the date, not earlier than the third business day following the date of the transaction, by which the consumer may give notice of cancellation. (1-21-92)

04. Purported Waivers. Include in any door-to-door contract or receipt any confession of judgment or any waiver of any of the rights to which the consumer is entitled under subchapter Q, including, specifically, his right to cancel the sale in accordance with the provisions of subchapter Q. SUBCHAPTER S – PYRAMID AND CHAIN DISTRIBUTION SCHEMES (Rules 190-199)

190. GENERAL RULE (RULE 190).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a seller to promote, offer, advertise, or grant participation in a pyramid or chain distribution scheme. (1-21-92)

191. PURPORTED LIMITATIONS (RULE 191).

A limitation as to the number of persons who may participate, or the presence of additional conditions affecting eligibility, or the fact that, in addition to the right to receive consideration for participation in the marketing plan, a person introduced into the plan actually receives something of value, does not, in and of itself, change the character of the marketing plan as a chain or pyramid distribution scheme. (1-21-92)

192. FACTORS (RULE 192).

In determining whether a promotion is a pyramid or chain distribution scheme, the following factors, among others, may be considered: (1-21-92)

01. Amount of Fees. Whether a substantial fee is required for entry and continued participation in the promotion. Requirement of a substantial fee suggests that the promotion is an unlawful pyramid or chain distribution scheme. (1-21-92)

02. Refund Policies. Whether the purchase of nonrefundable goods is required for entry and continued participation in the promotion or whether a consumer's right to a refund is subject to significant restrictions. Requirement of such purchase or purchases or significant restrictions placed on a consumer's right to obtain a refund suggests that the promotion is an unlawful pyramid or chain distribution scheme. (7-1-93)

03. Plan's Primary Focus. Whether the primary focus of the promotion is the opportunity for financial gain through the recruitment of more participants, not the sale of goods or services. Marketing programs based primarily upon the recruitment of other participants suggest that the promotion is an unlawful pyramid or chain distribution scheme. (1-21-92)

04. Price of Goods. Whether the goods, if any, for which the promotion allegedly exists to distribute, are inflated in price. An inflated price for the goods suggests that the promotion is an unlawful pyramid or chain distribution scheme. (1-21-92)

a. The name, street address, and telephone number of the loan broker; (7-1-93)

b. The maximum period of time the loan broker will take to arrange or make the loan to the consumer; and (7-1-93)

(7-1-93)

201. EXCEPTIONS (RULE 201).

SUBCHAPTER W – AUTOMOBILE ADVERTISING AND SALES
(Rules 230-239)

230. OBJECTIVE (RULE 230).

It is the objective of subchapter W to implement the intent of the legislature as declared in Section 48-601, Idaho Code, by furthering truthful and accurate advertising and sales practices for the benefit of the citizens and motor vehicle dealers of this state by providing for motor vehicle advertising and sales rules applicable to motor vehicle dealers. (7-1-93)

231. APPLICATION OF OTHER RULES (RULE 231).

Pursuant to CPR 5, subchapter W is not intended to contain the only rules governing automobile advertising and sales practices. (7-1-93)

232. GENERAL ADVERTISING PRACTICES (RULE 232).

The following are unfair and deceptive advertising practices: (7-1-93)

01. Clear and Conspicuous Disclosure of Material Terms. The advertising of any motor vehicle for sale, lease, rent without clearly and conspicuously disclosing all material terms and conditions relating to the offer. Material terms include those without which the advertisement would have the capacity, tendency, or effect of misleading or deceiving consumers acting reasonably under the circumstances. (7-1-93)

02. Footnotes and Asterisks. Use of one (1) or more disclosures by footnote or asterisk which alone or in combination confuse, contradict, materially modify, or unreasonably limit a principal message of the advertisement. (1-21-92)

03. Print Size. Use of any print in type size so small as to be not readily noticeable. An advertisement is misleading if important disclosures made therein are relegated to small print and inconspicuously buried at the bottom of the page. (1-21-92)

04. Photographs and Illustrations. Use of inaccurate photographs or illustrations when describing specific automobiles. For example, advertising a fully-loaded car when the ad actually refers to a minimally-equipped automobile in text. (1-21-92)

05. Color Contrasts. Use of color contrasts which render the text confusing or difficult to read. (1-21-92)

06. Abbreviations. Advertising with abbreviations which are not commonly understood by the general public (e.g., abbreviations commonly understood--AC, AM/FM, AUTO, AIR, 2DR, CYL Dealer's Doc Fee, MSRP, and OAC) unless approved by federal or state law (e.g., terms allowed by the federal Truth in Lending Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 1601 et seq., such as "APR"). (7-1-93)

233. PRICE ADVERTISING (RULE 233).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a dealer to: (7-1-93)

01. Advertised Price. Advertise the price of a motor vehicle without including in the advertised price all costs to the consumer at the time of sale, or which are necessary or usual prior to delivery of such vehicle to the consumer, including without limitation, any costs of freight, delivery, dealer preparation, and any other charges of any nature; provided, however, the following may be excluded from the advertised price of the motor vehicle: (7-1-93)

a. Taxes, license, and title fees; and (1-21-92)

b. A dealer documentation service fee, as defined herein, so long as the advertisement clearly and conspicuously discloses, in close proximity to the advertised price, the amount of such fee and that the fee is a dealer imposed fee; i.e. PRICE DOES NOT INCLUDE $ ____ (insert actual amount charged for dealer documentation service fee) DEALER DOC FEE. (1-21-92)

02. Advertising Limitations. Fail to clearly and conspicuously disclose in an advertisement any material limitations including, but not limited to: (7-1-93)

a. The number of motor vehicles in stock subject to the offer if the number is not likely to meet reasonably expected public demand; (1-21-92)

b. The period of time during which the offer is in effect, if the offer is subject to a time limitation of fourteen (14) days or less or when an offer is within fourteen (14) days of its close; and (7-1-93)

c. Any other applicable restrictions to which the advertised price may be subject. (1-21-92)

03. Low Prices. Use the term "low prices" or words of similar meaning or import in the advertisement, unless the prices offered are lower than those usually offered by the dealer or other dealers in the same trade area. (7-1-93)

04. Lowest Prices, Guaranteed Lowest Prices. Advertise that motor vehicles cost less in a particular community or geographic area or use the terms “lowest prices,” “guaranteed lowest prices,” “prices lower than anyone else,” “nobody can beat our prices,” or words of similar meaning or import in the advertisement, unless the dealer, or dealer association in the case of cooperative dealer advertising, systematically monitors and continues to monitor competitive prices in the trade area and can substantiate such claims. (7-1-93)

05. Price Matching. Use terms “meet your best offer,” or “we won’t be undersold,” or terms of similar meaning or import which suggest that a dealer will beat or match a competitor’s price unless: (7-1-93)

a. The advertisement clearly and conspicuously discloses the dealer’s price matching policy and any limitations; and (1-21-92)

b. Such policy does not require the presentation of any evidence which places an unreasonable burden on the consumer. (1-21-92)

06. Dealer’s Cost. Except as required in CPR 233.07.a., advertise a motor vehicle using any reference to the term “dealer’s cost,” or that a motor vehicle is available for purchase at, above or below “cost.” (7-1-93)

07. Invoice Pricing. Advertise that a motor vehicle is available for purchase at an amount below, at, or above “factory invoice,” “factory billing,” “manufacturer’s invoice,” or terms of similar meaning or import, unless: (7-1-93)

a. The advertisement uses the terms “factory invoice,” “manufacturer’s invoice,” or other terms that clearly convey that the invoice referred to is the factory or manufacturer’s invoice; (1-21-92)

b. The advertised reference to factory or manufacturer’s invoice price shall be the final price listed on the factory or manufacturer’s invoice; (1-21-92)

c. The following disclosure is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in the advertisement: “FACTORY INVOICE MAY NOT REFLECT DEALER’S ACTUAL COST”; and (1-21-92)

d. The original factory or manufacturer’s invoice, or a true and correct copy thereof, shall be readily available at the place of business for inspection by prospective customers. (1-21-92)

08. Vehicle Availability. Subject to CPR 233.01 and CPR 233.02, fail to allow consumers to purchase all motor vehicles described by the advertisement at the advertised price. If some motor vehicles in stock may not be purchased at the advertised prices, the advertisement shall clearly and conspicuously disclose that the advertised price applies only to a specified number of motor vehicles. Vehicle identification numbers for any motor vehicle advertised for sale by a dealer shall be readily available at the dealer’s place of business for inspection by customers. (7-1-93)

09. Buy-Down Rate. Advertise the sale of any motor vehicle at a “buy-down” rate, as that term is defined herein, without clearly and conspicuously disclosing in the advertisement the following: “BELOW MARKET RATE MAY AFFECT PURCHASE PRICE OF CAR.” (7-1-93)

10. Hidden Finance Charges. Fail to include hidden finance charges (i.e. the difference, if any, between the cash and credit price of a “buy-down” motor vehicle) in the Truth in Lending calculation and disclosure requirements. (7-1-93)

234. OTHER ADVERTISING PRACTICES (RULE 234). It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a dealer to: (7-1-93)

01. Demonstrator Vehicles. Advertise any demonstrator vehicle without clearly and conspicuously disclosing: (7-1-93)

- a. The year, make, and model of the motor vehicle; and (1-21-92)
- b. That the motor vehicle is a “demonstrator” or has been previously driven. (1-21-92)
- 02. Executive or Official Vehicles. Advertise any executive or official vehicle: (7-1-93)
- a. Without clearly and conspicuously disclosing the year, make, and model of the motor vehicle; (1-21-92)
- b. Without clearly and conspicuously disclosing that the motor vehicle is an executive or official vehicle and has been previously driven, using the words “Pre-Driven,” or “Previously Driven,” or words of similar meaning; (1-21-92)
- c. Without displaying the Used Car Buyers Guide on the motor vehicle as required by the Federal Trade Commission Rule on Used Motor Vehicles (16 C.F.R. 455); or (1-21-92)
- d. By using any word or phrase which would lead a reasonable consumer to believe that the advertised motor vehicle is a new motor vehicle. (1-21-92)
- 03. Leased Vehicles. Advertise any leased vehicle: (7-1-93)
- a. Without clearly and conspicuously disclosing the year, make, and model of the motor vehicle; (1-21-92)
- b. Without clearly and conspicuously disclosing that the motor vehicle is a leased vehicle; (1-21-92)
- c. Without displaying the Used Car Buyers Guide on the motor vehicle as required by the Federal Trade Commission Rule on Used Motor Vehicles (16 C.F.R. 455); or (1-21-92)
- d. By using any word or phrase which would lead a reasonable consumer to believe that the advertised motor vehicle is a new motor vehicle. (1-21-92)
- 04. Other Used Motor Vehicles. Advertise any other used motor vehicle: (7-1-93)
- a. Without clearly and conspicuously disclosing the year, make, and model of the motor vehicle; (1-21-92)
- b. Without displaying the Used Car Buyers Guide on the motor vehicle as required by the Federal Trade Commission Rule on Used Motor Vehicles (16 C.F.R. 455); or (1-21-92)
- c. By using any word or phrase which would lead a reasonable consumer to believe that the advertised motor vehicle is a new motor vehicle. (1-21-92)
- 05. Dealer Rebates. Advertise that a consumer will receive a payment of money, or that a payment will be made to a third person on the consumer’s behalf, in conjunction with the purchase or lease of a motor vehicle, unless the payment is being offered by the manufacturer of the motor vehicle. A dealer may also advertise any manufacturer’s rebate for which the manufacturer requires any financial participation by the dealer so long as the dealer clearly and conspicuously discloses in the advertisement the following disclosure: “DEALER PARTICIPATION IN THE REBATE PROGRAM MAY INCREASE VEHICLE PRICE BEFORE REBATE.” (7-1-93)
- 06. Trade-In Allowances. Advertise or offer a specific trade-in allowance (i.e., “$2500 minimum trade-in”), including, without limitation, that the trade-in will be valued at a specific amount or guaranteed minimum amount if: (7-1-93)
- a. The price of the motor vehicle offered for sale is increased because of the amount of the allowance; or (1-21-92)

b. The offer fails to disclose that it is conditioned upon the purchase of additional options or services, if such is the case. (1-21-92)

07. Trade-In Policies. Advertise or offer a range of amounts for trade-ins (e.g., “up to $1,000” or “as much as $1,000”), unless the advertisement clearly and conspicuously discloses the criteria the dealer will use to determine the amount to be paid for a particular trade-in. Such criteria might include age, condition, or mileage of the motor vehicle. (7-1-93)

08. No Money Down. Advertise using the phrase “no down payment,” “no money down,” or words of similar meaning, unless, subject to the consumer’s credit approval, the dealer is willing to sell the advertised motor vehicle to a consumer without the requirement of a trade-in or prior payment of any kind. (7-1-93)

09. Dealer’s Size. Use statements as to the dealer’s size, inventory, or sales volume to represent or imply that the dealer can and does sell automobiles at a lower price, as a result of such size, inventory, or volume, than do other dealers, unless such is the fact. (7-1-93)

10. Factory Outlet. Advertise using the terms “Factory Outlet,” “Authorized Distribution Center,” or similar special affiliation, connection or relationship with the manufacturer that is greater or more direct than that of any other dealer, when, in fact, no such affiliation, connection, or relationship exists. (7-1-93)

11. Contract Add-Ons. Negotiate the terms of a sale and thereafter add the cost of items to the contract, including, without limitation, extended warranties, credit life, dealer preparation, or undercoating, to the contract without previously disclosing this to the consumer and without first obtaining the consumer’s consent. (7-1-93)

235. CREDIT SALES ADVERTISING (RULE 235).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a dealer to: (7-1-93)

01. Disclosure Requirements. Fail to clearly and conspicuously disclose in connection therewith that the advertised credit terms are available “On Approved Credit,” or the abbreviation, “OAC.” In advertising credit terms, a dealer shall also comply with either CPR 235.01.a. or CPR 235.01.b. below: (7-1-93)

a. Credit terms advertised by a dealer shall be calculated on the basis of the total retail price of the advertised motor vehicle (which, for purposes of calculating credit terms must include any applicable dealer documentation service fee, as defined herein) plus taxes, license, and title fees, from which may be subtracted out only the amount of the advertised down payment; or (1-21-92)

b. The credit terms advertised by a dealer may be calculated exclusive of taxes, license, and title fees and the dealer’s documentation service fee so long as the following statement (or a statement of similar meaning) is clearly and conspicuously disclosed in connection with the credit sale advertisement: “DOES NOT INCLUDE TAXES, TITLE, LICENSE FEES OR $ _____ DEALER DOC FEE” (insert actual amount charged for dealer documentation service fee). (1-21-92)

02. Advertised Terms Unavailable. Advertise credit terms that are not actually available. (7-1-93)

03. Advertised Finance Rates. Advertise a finance rate (A.P.R.) without disclosing, if such is the fact, the following: (7-1-93)

a. That such rate is limited to certain models; (1-21-92)

b. That to take advantage of such a reduced rate, a consumer must purchase additional options or services; (1-21-92)

c. That taking advantage of the rate will increase the final price of the vehicle or options or services purchased; (1-21-92)

- d. That the offer expires after a limited time period; or (1-21-92)
- e. Any other conditions, qualifications, or limitations which materially affect the availability of such rate. (1-21-92)

04. Truth in Lending Disclosures. Fail to comply with the disclosure requirements of the federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. Section 1601 et seq.) and Regulation Z promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 C.F.R. Section 226). Truth in Lending disclosures must be clear and conspicuous. (7-1-93)

236. TRUTH IN LEASING ADVERTISING (RULE 236).

It is an unfair and deceptive act or practice for a dealer to fail to comply with the disclosure requirements of the consumer leasing portions of the federal Truth in Lending Act (15 U.S.C. Section 1667 et seq.) and Regulation M promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 C.F.R. Section 213). Truth in Leasing disclosures must be clear and conspicuous. (7-1-93)

237. MOTOR VEHICLE SUBJECT-TO-FINANCING CONTRACTS (RULE 237).

01. Required Contract Disclosure. Unless specifically exempted in CPR 237.06, every subject-to-financing contract for the purchase of a motor vehicle in Idaho shall include the following disclosure in ten (10) point bold face type or a size at least three (3) points larger than the smallest type appearing in the contract or form:

YOU AND THE DEALER HAVE AGREED THAT THE MOTOR VEHICLE WILL BE DELIVERED TO YOU PRIOR TO THE PURCHASE. IF FINANCING CANNOT BE ARRANGED ON THE TERMS AND WITHIN THE TIME PERIOD AGREED UPON IN THE MOTOR VEHICLE PURCHASE CONTRACT, THE CONTRACT IS NULL AND VOID. (7-1-93)

02. Other Contractual Provisions. Nothing in CPR 237 is intended to prevent language from being included in a motor vehicle purchase contract specifying the responsibilities of the parties thereto in the event the contract becomes null and void pursuant to CPR 237. (7-1-93)

03. Trade-In Motor Vehicles. If a motor vehicle purchase contract has become null and void pursuant to CPR 237, the dealer must return the consumer's trade-in vehicle, if any, together with its title, if previously provided to the dealer, upon the consumer's return of the motor vehicle to the dealer. If the trade-in vehicle is not available, the dealer shall give the consumer the trade-in allowance within one business day. (7-1-93)

04. Subsequent Agreement. Nothing in CPR 237 is intended to prevent the parties to a motor vehicle purchase agreement from entering into a subsequent agreement for the purchase of the motor vehicle on different terms and conditions. (7-1-93)

05. Consumer's Copy. A copy of the disclosure specified in CPR 237.01 must be given to the consumer at the time the contract is signed. (7-1-93)

06. Exceptions. CPR 237 does not apply to sales transactions in which a dealer purchases a motor vehicle for resale. (7-1-93)
