Administration Division

02.01.04 – Rules Governing the Idaho Preferred® Promotion Program

Who does this rule apply to?

Participants in the Idaho Preferred® Program.

What is the purpose of this rule?

Idaho Preferred® is a voluntary program developed by the Idaho State Department of Agriculture (ISDA) dedicated to identifying and promoting Idaho food and agriculture products. Fresh fruits, vegetables and meats; fine wines, beers and spirits; specialty foods, forest products and nursery plants and trees – are all products marketed through the Idaho Preferred® program. The program seeks to identify food and agriculture products in order to increase market share and opportunity for profitability for Idaho farmers, ranchers, growers and food and beverage processors.

The Rules Governing the Idaho Preferred Program outline eligibility requirements for participation in the program. The rules also outline product selection criteria and establishes the requirements for the use of the Idaho Preferred® logo and participation fees.

What is the legal authority for the agency to promulgate this rule?

This rule implements the following statute(s) passed by the Idaho Legislature:

- 22-112, Idaho Code – Promotion and Certification of Idaho Agricultural Products
