39.02.26 – Rules Governing Temporary Vehicle Clearance for Carriers

Who does this rule apply to?

An owner or company who is qualified for commercial registration in Idaho.

- Commercial Motor Vehicle Owners; and
- Commercial Carriers

What is the purpose of this rule?

Rule establishes the ability for carriers and owners to obtain an immediate “temporary vehicle clearance” for immediate operation on Idaho roads valid for a maximum of 45 days. This allows the customer or carrier time to apply for title and pay applicable registration fees to obtain registration and plates. The customer can self-issue the temporary vehicle clearance online or at any Port-of-Entry for the fee set by rule.

What is the legal authority for the agency to promulgate this rule?

This rule implements the following statutes passed by the Idaho Legislature:

Motor Vehicles -

General:

- 49-201, Idaho Code – Duties of Board
- 49-202, Idaho Code – Duties of Department

Vehicle Titles:

- 49-501, Idaho Code – Titling Requirements – Exemptions
